"§460.104. Work and community engagement initiative plan; purpose; requirements; exemptions

A.(1) The secretary shall submit to the House and Senate committees on health and welfare a plan for a work and community engagement initiative in the Medicaid program that conforms with the provisions of this Section, and shall commence to implement the plan upon approval by the committees.

(2) The plan may include submission of a section 1115 waiver application to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services for a program in which certain working-age, non-pregnant adults who qualify for Medicaid on a basis other than a disability will be required to participate in certain work or community engagement activities unless they qualify for an exemption as provided in Subsection C of this Section.

(3) The plan may incorporate a workforce development component.

(4) The plan may identify alignment opportunities with current work promotion programs in place for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, if practicable.

(5)(a) The secretary shall ensure that the work and community engagement initiative proposed in the plan can be implemented in a cost-effective manner and with maximum administrative efficiency.

(b) The secretary may model the work and community engagement initiative proposed in the plan, in whole or in part, on a similar initiative of any other state.

B.(1) Work activities required by the work and community engagement initiative may include any of the following:

(a) Full-time or part-time employment.

(b) Career planning, job training, or referral and job support services.

(2) Community engagement activities required by the work and community engagement initiative may include any of the following:

(a) Volunteer work.

(b) Community service.

(c) Education.

(3) The secretary shall establish minimum participation standards, in terms of average number of hours per week or per month, for participants in the initiative.

C. Beneficiaries to be exempt from work and community engagement requirements may include any of the following:

(1) Any individual who is a primary caregiver of a dependent.

(2) Any parent or caretaker of a dependent child who is under the age of public school eligibility.

(3) Individuals with health-related barriers to employment.

(4) Other persons or populations with extenuating circumstances as determined by the secretary.

D. The work and community engagement initiative shall include procedures that allow for an assessment of beneficiaries' abilities and barriers to employment in order to identify appropriate services, supports, and any modifications necessary for those individuals to participate in work and community engagement activities and attain long-term employment and self-sufficiency.

E. The work and community engagement initiative shall ensure all of the following:

(1) That individuals with substance use disorders, who may not be defined as disabled for Medicaid purposes but may be protected by certain disability laws, have access to appropriate Medicaid coverage and treatment services.

(2) That individuals with a serious medical condition or terminal illness have access to appropriate Medicaid coverage and treatment services.

(3) That beneficiaries have support in meeting work and community engagement requirements through linkages to resources for job training or other employment services, child care assistance, transportation, or other work supports necessary to help beneficiaries prepare for work or increase their earnings.

(4) That the project adheres to all requirements set forth by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, including but not limited to due process for recipients, transparency, budget neutrality, monitoring, and evaluation.

F. The work and community engagement initiative shall establish supports for beneficiaries in regions with limited employment opportunities or localities facing particular economic stress or lack of viable transportation.

G. The work and community engagement initiative shall include measures to address social determinants of health, including but not limited to the conditions in which people are born, grow, live, and age, including neighborhood and physical environment, early child development and education, nutrition, community and social context, and availability of health services.

H. Prior to submitting the plan for the work and community engagement initiative for legislative approval as required by Subsection A of this Section, the department shall administer a public input process that provides an opportunity for consideration of the views of Medicaid beneficiaries, applicants, and other stakeholders, and for gathering input that may support continuous improvement of the program.
