"D.(1) The technical endorsements provided for in Paragraph (C)(11) of this Section shall be issued to a person who has received at least one of the following certifications:

(a) Certified Elevator Technician (CET) certification provided by the National Association of Elevator Contractors.

(b) Certification provided by the National Elevator Industry Educational Program.

(c) Qualified Elevator Inspectors (QEI) certification provided by the National Association of Elevator Safety Authorities.

(2) A person who currently holds a technical endorsement provided for in Paragraph (C)(11) of this Section, but has not acquired the certification described in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, is not prohibited from actively working pursuant to the issuance of the license endorsement, but such person is required to obtain at least one of the certifications within three years from the date the person receives notice from the office of state fire marshal that such person is required to comply with the provisions of this Subsection.

~~D. E.~~ E. All licenses are valid for one year, unless a multi-year license is created, and shall be renewed within thirty days of its expiration date to remain valid. The state fire marshal may create a prorated fee system to allow employee license renewal dates to coincide with the firm license renewal date.

~~E. F.~~ F. A license not renewed within thirty days of its expiration date shall be considered past due and subject to late fees. The late fee penalty shall be twenty-five dollars for a license not renewed before thirty-one to forty-five days past the expiration date and fifty dollars for a license not renewed before forty-six to sixty days past the expiration date.

~~F. G.~~ G. A license shall be suspended if not renewed within sixty days of its expiration date or if the license holder has not maintained the license. The cost to reinstate a suspended license shall be the cost of the initial fees plus twenty dollars.

~~G. H.~~ H. The cost for a duplicate or replacement firm or individual license is twenty dollars, regardless of how many endorsements are carried.

~~H. I.~~ I. The cost to transfer an individual license from one firm to another is twenty dollars.

~~I. J.~~ J. The fees established in this Section shall not be refundable except under such conditions as the state fire marshal may establish.

~~J.(1) K.(1)~~ K.(1) The owner or his designee of an installed conveyance device, except those exempt pursuant to R.S. 40:1664.5(B), shall register the conveyance device with the office of state fire marshal.

(2) A firm that installs a conveyance device shall register the conveyance device with the office of state fire marshal within thirty days of its installation.

L.(1) Subject to the exceptions contained in Article VII, Section 9 of the Constitution of Louisiana, all monies received by the state fire marshal pursuant to this Subpart, including but not limited to fees and fines, shall be deposited immediately upon receipt in the state treasury and shall be credited to the Bond Security and Redemption Fund. Out of the funds remaining in the Bond Security and Redemption Fund after a sufficient amount is allocated from that fund to pay all obligations secured by the full faith and credit of the state which become due and payable within any fiscal year, the treasurer, prior to placing such remaining funds in the state general fund, shall pay an amount equal to the total amount of funds paid into the state treasury by the state fire marshal pursuant to this Subpart into a special fund which is hereby created in the state treasury and designated as the Louisiana Life Safety and Property Protection Trust Fund.

(2) The monies in the Louisiana Life Safety and Property Protection Trust Fund shall be used solely for implementation, administration, and enforcement of this Subpart, and thereafter, for fire education or emergency response by the state fire marshal and only in the amounts appropriated each year to the state fire marshal or the board by the legislature. Any surplus monies and interest remaining to the credit of the fund on June thirtieth of each year after all such appropriations of the preceding fiscal year have been made shall remain to the credit of the fund, and no part thereof shall revert to the state general fund."
