"Section 2. R.S. 13:4368 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§4368. Post judicial sale; cancellation of inferior mortgages, liens, and privileges

A. If the inscription of an inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege encumbering the immovable property sold through a judicial sale is not cancelled as required by Code of Civil Procedure Article 2376, the seizing creditor or its agent may have the inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege cancelled or partially released as to the immovable property sold by recording in the mortgage records of the parish in which the immovable property sold is located an "affidavit to cancel an inferior encumbrance" that is in compliance with the requirements of this Section. For purposes of this Section, an "inferior creditor" means the holder of record of a mortgage, lien, or privilege that is inferior to a seizing creditor's mortgage, lien, or privilege at the time the encumbered immovable property was sold at judicial sale.

B. A seizing creditor or its agent may file an affidavit to cancel or partially release the inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege in accordance with this Section only if the inferior creditor was provided written notice of seizure prior to the judicial sale.

C. An affidavit executed by a seizing creditor or its agent to cancel or partially release an inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address of the seizing creditor or its agent.

(2) The name of the court, case name, and docket number of the action under which the seizure and sale of the immovable property was ordered.

(3) The date of the judicial sale.

(4) A description of the seizing creditor's foreclosed mortgage, lien, or privilege, including the recordation information and recording date.

(5) A description sufficient to identify the foreclosed immovable property.

(6) A description of the inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege, including the recordation information and recording date, and a declaration that the described mortgage, lien, or privilege requested to be cancelled or partially released is inferior to the foreclosed mortgage, lien, or privilege.

(7) A certification that written notice of seizure was given to the inferior creditor prior to the judicial sale, and a copy attached of the written notice together with evidence that it was delivered to the inferior creditor.

(8) A request that the clerk of court cancel or partially release the identified inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege pursuant to this Section.

D. The clerk of court shall cancel or partially release the inferior mortgage, lien, or privilege upon the recordation of an affidavit that is in compliance with this Section.

E. The cancellation of a mortgage, lien, or privilege by the filing of an affidavit in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall have no effect if the mortgage, lien, or privilege is actually superior to the seizing creditor's foreclosed mortgage, lien, or privilege.

F. Any party recording an affidavit pursuant to this Section shall be subject to the liability requirements and standards provided in R.S. 9:5174.

G. This Section shall not apply to utility servitudes."

On motion of Rep. Garofalo, the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Rep. Garofalo, the bill, as amended, was ordered engrossed and passed to its third reading.

The following terms, as used in this Part, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this Section except where a different meaning is expressly stated or clearly indicated by context:"

AMENDMENT NO. 8

On page 3, delete lines 1 through 10 in their entirety and insert the following:

(1) "Bodily injury" means claims for general and special damages for personal injury arising under Civil Code Article 2315.

(2) "Department" means the Louisiana Department of Agriculture and Forestry.

(3) "Digital network" means any online-enabled application, software, website or system offered or utilized by a transportation network company that enables the prearrangement of rides with transportation network company drivers.

(4) "Gross trip fare" means the base fare plus any time or distance charges, excluding any additional charges such as airport or venue fees.

(5) "Prearranged ride" means the provision of transportation by a driver to a rider that commences when a driver accepts a ride requested by a person through a digital network controlled by a transportation network company, continues during the driver transporting a requesting rider, and ends when the last requesting rider departs from the personal vehicle. A prearranged ride does not include shared expense van pool services, as defined pursuant to R.S. 45:162(18), or shared expense car pool services, as defined pursuant to R.S. 45:162(1), transportation provided using a vehicle subject to Part A or B of the Motor Carrier law as provided for in R.S. 45:161 et seq. or engaged solely in interstate commerce.

(6) "Local governmental subdivision" means any parish or municipality as defined in Article VI, Section 44(1) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

(7) "Pre-trip acceptance period" means any period of time during which a driver is logged on to the transportation network company's digital network and is available to receive transportation requests but is not engaged in an intrastate prearranged ride as defined in Paragraph (4) of this Section.

(8) "Transportation network company" or "company" means a person, whether natural or juridical, that uses a digital network to connect transportation network company riders to transportation network company drivers who provide prearranged rides, or a person, whether natural or juridical, that provides a technology platform to a transportation network company rider that enables the transportation network company rider to schedule an intrastate prearranged ride.

(9) "Transportation network company driver" or "driver" means a person who receives connections to potential passengers and related services from a transportation network company in exchange for payment of a fee to the transportation network company, and who uses a personal vehicle to offer or provide a prearranged ride to persons upon connection through a digital network controlled by a transportation network company in return for compensation or payment of a fee.

(10) "Transportation network company rider" or "rider" means a person who uses a transportation network company's digital network to connect with a transportation network driver who provides intrastate prearranged rides to the rider in the driver's personal vehicle between points chosen by the rider.

(11) "Personal vehicle" means a vehicle that is used by a transportation network company driver and is owned, leased, or otherwise authorized for use by the transportation network company driver. A personal vehicle is not a vehicle subject to Parts A and B of the Motor Carrier law as provided for in R.S. 45:161 et seq. or engaged solely in interstate commerce."

(12) "Intrastate prearranged ride" means any prearranged ride, as provided for in this Section, originating within the jurisdiction of the local governmental subdivision.

(13) "Transportation network company vehicle" or "vehicle" has the same meaning as "personal vehicle" as provided for in this Section.
