AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, delete lines 14 through 17 in their entirety, on page 2, delete line 1 in its entirety, and insert the following:

"Section 1. Code of Criminal Procedure Article 894.4 as amended by Act No. 260 of the 2017 Regular Session of the Legislature, and Code of Criminal Procedure Article 875.1 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:"

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 2, delete lines 3 through 11 in their entirety and insert the following:

"A. The purpose of imposing financial obligations on an offender who is convicted of a criminal offense is to hold the offender accountable for his action, to compensate victims for any actual pecuniary loss or costs incurred in connection with a criminal prosecution, to defray the cost of court operations, and to provide services to offenders and victims. These financial obligations should not create a barrier to the offender's successful rehabilitation and reentry into society. Financial obligations in excess of what an offender can reasonably pay undermine the primary purpose of the justice system which is to deter criminal behavior and encourage compliance with the law. Financial obligations that cause undue hardship on the offender should be waived, modified, or forgiven. Creating a payment plan for the offender that is based upon the ability to pay, results in financial obligations that the offender is able to comply with and often results in more money collected. Offenders who are consistent in their payments and in good faith try to fulfill their financial obligations should be rewarded for their efforts.

B. For purposes of this Article, "financial obligations" shall include any fine, fee, cost, restitution, or other monetary obligation authorized by this Code or by the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and imposed upon the defendant as part of a criminal sentence, incarceration, or as a condition of the defendant's release on probation or parole.

C.(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, prior to ordering the imposition or enforcement of any financial obligations as defined by this Article, the court shall determine whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations to be imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents.

(2) The defendant may not waive the judicial determination of a substantial financial hardship required by the provisions of this Paragraph.

D.(1) If the court determines that payment in full of the aggregate amount of all financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents, the court shall do either of the following:

(a) Waive all or any portion of the financial obligations.

(b) Order a payment plan that requires the defendant to make a monthly payment to fulfill the financial obligations.

(2)(a) The amount of each monthly payment for the payment plan ordered pursuant to the provisions of Subsubparagraph (1)(b) of this Paragraph shall be equal to the defendant's average gross daily income for an eight-hour work day.

(b) If the court has ordered restitution, half of the defendant's monthly payment shall be distributed toward the defendant's restitution obligation.

(c) During any periods of unemployment, homelessness, or other circumstances in which the defendant is unable to make the monthly payment, the court or the defendant's probation and parole officer is authorized to impose a payment alternative, including but not limited to any of the following: substance abuse treatment, education, job training, or community service.

(3) If, after the initial determination of the defendant's ability to fulfill his financial obligations, the defendant's circumstances and ability to pay his financial obligations change, the defendant or his attorney may file a motion with the court to reevaluate the defendant's circumstances and determine, in the same manner as the initial determination, whether under the defendant's current circumstances payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents. Upon such motion, if the court determines that the defendant's current circumstances would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents, the court may either waive or modify the defendant's financial obligation, or recalculate the amount of the monthly payment made by the defendant under the payment plan set forth in Subsubparagraph (1)(b) of this Paragraph.

E. If a defendant is ordered to make monthly payments under a payment plan established pursuant to the provisions of Subsubparagraph (D)(1)(b) of this Article, the defendant's outstanding financial obligations resulting from his criminal conviction are forgiven and considered paid-in-full if the defendant makes consistent monthly payments for either twelve consecutive months or consistent monthly payments for half of the defendant's term of supervision, whichever is longer.

F. If restitution is ordered by the court as a condition of probation, the amount of restitution shall be reduced to a civil money judgment in favor of the person to whom restitution is owed that may be enforced in the same manner as provided for the execution of judgments in the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure. A form for the judgment shall be submitted by the district attorney to the sentencing judge for signature. For any civil money judgment ordered under this Article, the clerk shall record the judgment without charge to the person to whom restitution is to be paid and shall send notice of the judgment to the last known address of the person to whom the restitution was ordered to be paid.

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, between lines 14 and 15, insert the following:

"Art. 894.4. Probation; extension

~~A. When a defendant has been sentenced to probation and has a monetary obligation, including but not limited to court costs, fines, costs of prosecution, and any other monetary costs associated with probation, the judge may not extend the period of probation for the purpose of collecting any unpaid monetary obligation, except as provided in Paragraph B of this Article, but may refer the unpaid monetary obligation to the office of debt recovery pursuant to R.S. 47:1676.~~

~~B. The judge may extend probation only one time and only by a period of six months for the purpose of monitoring collection of unpaid victim restitution if the court finds on the record by clear and convincing evidence that the court's temporary ongoing monitoring would ensure collection of unpaid restitution more effectively than any of the following:~~

~~(1) Converting the unpaid restitution to a civil money judgment pursuant to Article 886 or 895.1.~~

~~(2) Referring the unpaid restitution to the office of debt recovery pursuant to R.S. 47:1676.~~

~~(3) Any other enforcement mechanism for collection of unpaid restitution authorized by law.~~

~~C. A six-month extension of probation as provided in Paragraph B shall apply only to the order of victim restitution. All other conditions of probation during the six-month extension shall be terminated.~~

Probation shall neither be revoked nor extended based solely upon the defendant's inability to pay fines, fees, or restitution to the victim.

Section 2. Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 893(A)(1)(a), 895.6(A) and (B), 899.2(B)(1), and 900(A)(5) and (6)(b)(introductory paragraph) and (iv) and (d)(v) are hereby amended and reenacted and Code of Criminal Procedure Article 893(H) and 900(A)(6)(b)(v) are hereby enacted to read as follows:"
