ADDITION TO LEGISLATIVE WEBSITE

There have been two additions to the Legislative website (www.legis.state.la.us) under the heading "ELECTION 2003". The dates for absentee voting has been added on the "Dates and Times" page, and a new section called "My Ballot" has been added to the Election home page.

The "My Ballot" link allows the user to type in their address and not only get district information and where they vote, but it also provides a link to the ballot for their polling place.

To view this feature, click on the Election 2003 graphic on the home page. Then click on the "My Ballot" link on the Election page and type in your address and click Submit. The information that follows will include a graphic link that says "Your Ballot." (This includes ALL elections for that particular ward and precinct. On election night, the returns will be posted here as well.)
