AMENDMENT NO. 3
On page 1, line 10, after "organization," insert "managed care entity"

AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 1, line 16, after "organization" insert "or managed care entity"

AMENDMENT NO. 5
On page 2, after line 5 insert the following:
"(3) For the purposes of this Subsection, "managed care entity" means a licensed insurance company, hospital, or medical benefit plan or program, preferred provider organization, or managed care entity, integrated health care delivery system, an employer or employee organization, or a managed care contractor which operates a managed care plan. A managed care entity may include but it is not limited to a preferred provider organization, health maintenance organization, exclusive provider organization, independent practice association, clinic without walls, management services organization, managed care services organization, physician hospital organization, and hospital physician organization.

Section 2. R.S. 40:2255 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§2255. Health care treatment; information
A. No preferred provider organization, managed care entity, contracting provider, their agent, trustee, or assignee may prohibit a health care provider from disclosing medical information to a patient, subscriber, or dependent, including the administration of plan benefits and their costs, treatments and their costs, and other alternatives determined to be in the best interests of the patient, subscriber, or dependent.

B. No preferred provider organization or managed care entity may refuse to contract with or compensate for covered services an otherwise eligible provider or nonparticipating provider solely because the provider has in good faith communicated with one or more current, former, or prospective patients regarding the provisions, terms, or requirements of the preferred provider organization's or managed care entity's benefits as they relate to the needs of the provider's patients.

C. For the purposes of this Subsection, "managed care entity" means a licensed insurance company, hospital, or medical benefit plan or program, preferred provider organization, or managed care entity, integrated health care delivery system, an employer or employee organization, or a managed care contractor which operates a managed care plan. A managed care entity may include but it is not limited to a health maintenance organization, exclusive provider organization, independent practice association, clinic without walls, management services organization, managed care services organization, physician hospital organization, and hospital physician organization.

Amendments proposed by Representative Bowler to Engrossed House Bill No. 946 by Representative Murray

AMENDMENT NO. 1
On page 1, line 2, delete ", (A), (C), and (D)"

AMENDMENT NO. 2
On page 1, delete lines 7 through 18 in their entirety and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. R.S. 22:669 is hereby amended and reenacted as follows:

A. (1) In the case of a group health plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with such a plan, that provides both medical and surgical benefits and mental health benefits

(a) If the plan or coverage does not include an aggregate lifetime limit on substantially all medical and surgical benefits, the plan or coverage shall not impose any aggregate lifetime limit on mental health benefits.

(b) If the plan or coverage includes an aggregate lifetime limit on substantially all medical and surgical benefits, in this Paragraph referred to as the "applicable lifetime limit", the plan or coverage shall do one of the following:

(i) Apply the applicable lifetime limit both to the medical and surgical benefits to which it otherwise would apply and to mental health benefits and not distinguish in the application of such limit between such medical and surgical benefits and mental health benefits.

(ii) Include any aggregate lifetime limit on mental health benefits that is less than the applicable lifetime limit.

(c) In the case of a plan or coverage that is not described in Subparagraphs (a) or (b) of this Paragraph and that includes no or different aggregate lifetime limits on different categories of medical and surgical benefits, the commissioner shall establish rules and regulations under which Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph shall be applied to such plan or coverage with respect to mental health benefits by substituting for the applicable lifetime limit an average aggregate lifetime limit that is computed taking into account the weighted average of the aggregate lifetime limits applicable to such categories.

(2) In the case of a group health plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with such a plan, that provides both medical and surgical benefits and mental health benefits:

(a) If the plan or coverage does not include an annual limit on substantially all medical and surgical benefits, the plan or coverage may not impose any annual limit on mental health benefits.

(b) If the plan or coverage includes an annual limit on substantially all medical and surgical benefits, in this Paragraph referred to as the "applicable annual limit", the plan or coverage shall do one of the following:

(i) Apply the applicable annual limit both to medical and surgical benefits to which it otherwise would apply and to mental health benefits and not distinguish in the application of such limit between such medical and surgical benefits and mental health benefits.

(ii) Not include any annual limit on mental health benefits that is less than the applicable annual limit.

(c) In the case of a plan or coverage that is not described in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph:

(d) and that includes no or different annual limits on different categories of medical and surgical benefits, the secretary shall establish rules under which Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph shall be applied to such plan or coverage with respect to mental health benefits by substituting for the applicable annual limit on average annual limit that is computed taking into account the weighted average of the annual limits applicable to such categories.

B. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to do the any of the following:

(1) As requiring a group health plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with such a plan, to provide any mental health benefits.

(2) In the case of a group health plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with such a plan, that provides mental health benefits, as affecting the terms and conditions, including cost sharing, limits on numbers of visits or days of coverage, and requirements relating to medical necessity, relating to the amount, duration, or scope of mental health benefits under the plan or coverage, except as specifically provided in Subsection A of this Section, in regard to parity in the imposition of aggregate lifetime limits and annual limits for mental health benefits.

C. (1) This Section shall not apply to any group health plan, and group health insurance coverage offered in connection with a group health plan, for any plan year of a small employer.
(b) For purposes of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph, the term "small employer" shall mean, in connection with a group health plan with respect to a calendar year and a plan year, an employer who employed an average of at least two but not more than fifty employees on business days during the preceding calendar year and who employs at least two employees on the first day of the plan year.

(c) For purposes of this Paragraph the following apply:

(i) The rules similar to the rules under Subsections (b), (c), (m), and (o) of Section 414 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall apply for purposes of treating persons as a single employer as allowed by applicable federal law and regulations.

(ii) In the case of an employer which was not in existence throughout the preceding calendar year, the determination of whether such employer is a small employer shall be based on the average number of employees that it is reasonably expected such employer will employ on business days in the current calendar year.

(iii) Any reference in this Paragraph to an employer shall include a reference to any predecessor of such employer.

(2) This Section shall not apply with respect to a group health plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with a group health plan, following certification by the United States Department of Health And Human Services that application of under such plan, or such coverage, results in an increase in the cost under the plan, or for such coverage, of at least one percent.

D. In the case of a group health plan that offers a participant or beneficiary two or more benefit package options under the plan, the requirements of this Section shall be applied separately with respect to each such option.

E. For purposes of this Section only, the following terms are defined as indicated:

(1) "Aggregate lifetime limit" shall mean, with respect to benefits under a group health plan or health insurance coverage, a dollar limitation on the total amount that may be paid with respect to such benefits under the plan or health insurance coverage with respect to an individual or other coverage unit.

(2) "Annual limit" shall mean, with respect to benefits under a group health plan or health insurance coverage, a dollar limitation on the total amount of benefits that may be paid with respect to such benefits in a twelve-month period under the plan or health insurance coverage with respect to an individual or other coverage unit.

(3) "Medical or surgical benefits" shall mean benefits with respect to medical or surgical services, as defined under the terms of the plan or coverage, as the case may be, but does not include mental health benefits.

(4) "Mental health benefits" shall mean benefits with respect to mental health services, as defined under the terms of the plan or coverage, as the case may be, but does not include benefits with respect to treatment of substance abuse or chemical dependency.
