"PART II-A. TRANSITION AND INAUGURATION

§1125. Purpose

The legislature recognizes that the effectiveness of representative government is dependent upon the confidence the electorate has in their elected public officials, particularly their statewide elected officials. The legislature therefore enacts this Part to provide public disclosure of funds used to finance the transition and inauguration of persons elected to statewide office, to limit contributions for purposes related to the transition and inauguration of a statewide elected official, and to prohibit contributions from certain persons substantially interested in the gaming industry for purposes related to the transition and inauguration of a statewide elected official.

§1126. Definitions

The terms used in this Part shall have the same meanings given to each in R.S. 18:1483 unless the context clearly indicates otherwise and except as provided below:

(1) The term "candidate" in any provision of law referenced in this Part shall mean a person elected to statewide office, for the purposes of this Part only.

(2) The term "campaign treasurer" in any provision of law referenced in this Part shall mean the chairman of the transition committee, if any, for the purposes of this Part only.

(3) The terms "contribution", "expenditure", and "loan" shall have the same meaning as provided in R.S. 18:1483 except that the purpose of a "contribution", "transfer of funds", "expenditure", or "loan" shall be to facilitate in any way or manner the transition or inauguration of a person to a statewide elective office.

(4) The term "reporting period" means the period from the date on which the first contribution, including a transfer of funds, or loan is received or the first expenditure is made by the statewide elected official or transition committee or any person acting on behalf of the statewide elected official or transition committee, whichever is earlier, through March fifteenth of the year of the inauguration of the statewide elected official.

(5) The term "transition committee" shall mean two or more persons or any corporation organized for the primary purpose of facilitating in any way or manner the transition or inauguration of a person to statewide elective office.

§1127. Reports; contents; records

A. A report shall be filed with the board which discloses contributions, loans, transfers of funds, expenditures, and other information relative to the financing and conduct of the transition and inauguration of the statewide elected official no later than the first day of April following the end of the reporting period. The statewide elected official and the transition committee chairman, if any, shall be responsible for filing the report required by this Section. The statewide elected official and the transition committee chairman, if any, shall certify that the information contained in the report is true and correct to the best of their knowledge, information, and belief, and that no expenditures have been made and no contributions have been received that are not reported therein and that no information required by this Section has been deliberately omitted.

B.(1) The report required by this Section shall contain all of the information required by R.S. 18:1495.5, except such information shall relate to the financing and conduct of the transition and inauguration of the statewide elected official.

(2) The report shall also contain expenditures made by any person on behalf of the statewide elected official or transition committee for transition or inauguration purposes. Such expenditures shall be considered to be expenditures of the statewide elected official or the transition committee and must be reported as required by this Section. Any such person who makes any expenditure on behalf of the statewide elected official or committee for transition or inauguration purposes shall timely furnish to the statewide elected official or transition committee chairman such information relative thereto as may be required for compliance with this Section.

(3) The report shall also contain the amount of any funds for the transition or inauguration remaining on hand at the end of the reporting period and the date such funds were donated to the Advisory Board of the Old State Capitol as required by R.S. 42:1128.

C. The requirements contained in R.S. 18:1495.2 shall apply to funds relating to the transition and inauguration of a statewide elected official and records of transition and inauguration funds shall be maintained in the manner required by R.S. 18:1495.3.

§1128. Prohibitions; limitations; penalties; enforcement; exception

A. The provisions of R.S. 18:1505.2 shall apply to this Part, except as otherwise provided in this Section.

B. The contribution limits established in R.S. 18:1505.2(H) for candidates for major office shall apply to contributions made for the purpose of facilitating the transition or inauguration of the statewide elected official during the reporting period. For the purposes of determining the contributions allowed under the provisions of this Part, the reporting period shall constitute a separate election.

C. No expenditures shall be made by the statewide elected official or the transition committee or any person on behalf of the statewide elected official or transition committee from funds of the transition or inauguration after the last day of the reporting period.

D. No contributions shall be made or accepted for purposes related to the transition or inauguration after the last day of the reporting period. Any contribution received for purposes related to the transition or inauguration after the last day of the reporting period shall be immediately returned to the contributor. The receipt and the return of any such contribution shall be reported by the statewide elected official to the supervisory committee within five days after the receipt of the contribution.

E. Notwithstanding the provisions of R.S. 18:1505.2(I), any funds received for the transition or inauguration which are not expended at the end of the reporting period for the transition or inauguration shall be donated to the Advisory Board of the Old State Capitol within ten days after the last day of the reporting period.

F. Failure to submit the reports required by this Part shall constitute a violation of this Chapter. Failure to submit the reports required by this Part at the time required shall constitute a violation of this Part. Failure to disclose or failure to disclose accurately any information required to be reported by this Part shall constitute a violation of this Chapter.

G. The enforcement provisions and the penalties contained in this Chapter which apply to violations of this Chapter shall apply to violations of this Part.

H. The provisions of this Part shall not apply to any funds specifically appropriated by the legislature for the transition or inauguration of a statewide elected official."

AMENDMENT NO. 9

On page 8, delete lines 7 and 8 and insert the following:

"(4) The late filing fees for any violation of R.S. 42:1114, ~~and~~ 1124, or Part II-A of this Chapter shall be as provided in R.S. 42:1124(C)."

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, at the beginning of line 5, change "for applicability;" to "procedures for certain annexations;"

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 7, after "Section 1." change "R.S. 33:175" to "R.S. 33:180" and at the end of the line and on line 8, delete "and R.S. 33:181 is hereby enacted"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 1, delete lines 9 through 20 and delete page 2 and insert the following:

"§180. Ordinance to annex territory owned by a public body ~~upon its petition~~

A. The governing body of any municipality other than the city of New Orleans may, by ordinance, enlarge the boundaries of the municipality to include territory within which all of the land is owned by a state agency, political subdivision, or public body, but only upon petition of the governing body of the agency, political subdivision or public body owning the land which is to be so included. ~~The~~ Except as otherwise provided by this Section, the governing body of the municipality may, in its discretion, upon majority vote thereof, adopt such an ordinance without the necessity of compliance with any of the procedures of advertisement, petition by residents, public hearing or other procedures set forth in this ~~Sub-part~~. Subpart.

B. No municipality may annex the paved portion of a public road without including in such annexation all property adjacent to at least one side of the road the paved portion of which is included in the annexation.

C. A municipality may annex a portion of the right-of-way of a public road as a corridor connecting other property which is not contiguous to the municipality but which is to be annexed without including the property adjacent to the corridor. Any annexation pursuant to this Subsection shall be in accordance with the following:

(1) The municipality shall, by certified mail, notify the state agency or political subdivision which owns the road proposed to be annexed at least thirty days prior to the introduction of the ordinance proposing such annexation.

(2) The petition or written consent of the state agency or political subdivision must be received by the municipality prior to the adoption of the ordinance.

Section 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of R.S. 33:175, an ordinance annexing property which violates R.S. 33:180(B) and which was adopted after January 1, 1990 by the governing authority of any municipality in a parish with a population of not fewer than seventeen thousand five hundred persons and not more than eighteen thousand persons as of the most recent federal decennial census may be contested by any citizen owning property adjacent to the public road in the manner provided in R.S. 33:174 within one hundred and eighty days after the effective date of this Act."

On motion of Rep. Wright, the amendments were adopted.
