The persons that qualify to run for office in that district shall specify that they are running for office on the east bank of the river or the west bank of the river in that particular district."

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, after line 7, insert the following:

"B.(1) The additional office of justice of the peace and the additional office of constable for the parish of St. James as authorized by this Section shall not be established unless the voters of the parish of St. James by a majority vote approve the creation of the additional offices.

(2) The election shall be conducted as nearly as possible in accordance with the election laws of the state. The governing authority of the parish shall order the election to be held on the next date on which such an election may be held as provided for in R.S. 18:402(F), which falls more than forty-five days after the date the governing authority adopted an ordinance or resolution ordering such election.

(3) When such election has been ordered the following proposition shall be plainly printed upon a special ballot to be used for the election:

Shall the parish of St. James approve the creation of an additional office of justice of the peace and an additional office of constable which offices shall be totally funded by the parish governing authority?

Yes { }

No { }

C. If a majority of the people voting in the election in the parish of St. James approve the additional offices of justice of the peace and constable, then notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the governing authority of the parish shall be responsible for the payment of emoluments of office, compensation, and expense allowances as otherwise provided by law or for reimbursing the cost to the state.

Section 2. There are hereby created an additional office of justice of the peace and an additional office of constable for the parish of St. James.

The additional justice of the peace and constable and their successors shall be elected from the district which has territorial jurisdiction on both sides of the Mississippi River. They shall have territorial jurisdiction throughout the respective district, shall be elected by the qualified voters of the district, and shall have subject matter jurisdiction and powers and duties as provided by law. The office of constable for the court is also hereby created. Justices of the peace and constables running for office from the district which has territorial jurisdiction on both sides of the river shall specify from which side of the river they are qualifying to run for office and one justice of the peace and one constable shall be elected from the east bank and one justice of the peace and one constable shall be elected from the west bank.

The additional justice of the peace and constable shall have the same qualifications and shall receive the same emoluments of office, compensation and expense allowances, payable by the governing authority of the parish and in the same manner as are now or may hereafter be provided for other justices of the peace and constables.

The first additional justice of the peace elected to the district which has territorial jurisdiction on both sides of the river shall be elected as provided by Article V, Section 22 of the Louisiana Constitution, and the first constable shall be elected at a special election as provided by R.S. 18:402, and their terms shall expire at the same time as provided by law for other justices of the peace and constables. Their successors shall be elected at the same time and in the same manner and shall serve the same term as is now or may be provided hereafter for other justices of the peace and constables.

Section 3. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."

On motion of Rep. Toomy, the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Rep. Toomy, the bill, as amended, was ordered engrossed and passed to its third reading.
