A. Effective July 1, 1997, the Orleans Regional Technical Institute is hereby merged with Delgado Community College in the University of Louisiana system and on this date the funds, property, obligations, programs, and functions of the Orleans Regional Technical Institute are transferred from the State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education to and hereby are vested in the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities.

B. (1) Any student enrolled in a program of study at the Orleans Regional Technical Institute at the time of the merger with Delgado Community College shall be permitted to complete such program of study at no greater cost or conditions than those applicable to the student prior to the merger.

(2) Any person employed at the Orleans Regional Technical Institute on the date of merger with Delgado Community College shall have the right to be retained in his position pursuant to the same policies and conditions applicable to such person prior to the merger.

The Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities shall conduct a careful and deliberate review of the programs and employees at the former technical institute and provide for an employee transition that is consistent with the mission of Delgado Community College and that provides opportunities for an employee to have a role at the community college at least equivalent to his position prior to the merger. Such opportunities shall include but not be limited to providing such additional training or professional development, or both, at no cost to the employee as is necessary to prepare the employee to undertake his role at the community college subsequent to the transfer.

(3) A student, faculty member, or other employee of the technical institute on the date of the merger with Delgado Community College shall be entitled to and eligible for all benefits provided by law, rule, or regulation for students, faculty, and employees,

D. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, Delgado Community College shall give preference in the operation of vending stands, vending machines, and other concessions operated on its premises and on the premises of the former technical institute to blind persons pursuant to programs for such persons administered by the Department of Social Services. Additionally, no other vending stands, vending machines, or other concessions shall be operated on the same premises as the vending stands, vending machines, and other concessions given preference by this Subsection. No blind person shall be required to pay any fee, service charge, or other cost to operate any vending stand, vending machine, or other concession on the premises of Delgado Community College or on the premises of the former technical institute and no blind person operating such a vending stand, vending machine, or other concession on such premises shall be adversely impacted in any way in the operation of such stand, machine, or concession without reasonable or just cause.

E. Nothing in this Section shall affect in any way any other

"the trustees" shall mean the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and the merger of the institute with the community college, any pending or unfinished business of the institute and of the board on behalf of the institute shall be taken over and be completed by the community college with the same power and authorization as that of the institute and the trustees shall be the successor in every way to the board for the purpose of completing such business. Any reference in laws and documents to the institute shall be deemed to apply to the community college and all such references to the board in relation to the institute shall be deemed to apply to the trustees. A legal proceeding to which the institute or the board on behalf of the institute is a party and which is filed, initiated, or pending before any court on the effective date of this Section, and all documents involved in or affected by said continued in the name of the community college or the trustees on its behalf. All further legal proceedings and documents in the continuation, disposition, and enforcement of said legal proceeding shall be in the name of the community college or the trustees on its behalf, and the community college shall be substituted for the trustees on its behalf. The community college and the trustees on its behalf shall be the successor in every way to the institute and the board on its behalf, including all of the obligations and debts of the institute. All funds heretofore dedicated by or under authority of the constitution and laws of this state or any of its subdivisions to the payment of any bonds issued for construction or improvements for any facility under the control of the institute shall continue to be collected and dedicated to the payment of such bonds, unless and until other provision is made for the payment of such bonds. In like manner, all other dedications and allocations of revenues and sources of revenues heretofore made shall continue in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as were provided prior to the enactment of this Act, unless and until other provision is made for the payment of said bonds. This Act shall not be construed or applied in any way which will prevent full compliance by the state, or any department, office, or agency thereof, with the requirements of any Act of the Congress of the United States or any regulation made thereunder by which federal aid or other federal assistance has been or hereafter is made available. All books, papers, records, money, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the institute are hereby transferred to the community college.

Section 3. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana.

A. (2) As used in this Section, the terms "fetus" and "infant" are used interchangeably to mean the biological offspring of human parents.

B. It shall not be unlawful for a licensed physician to perform a partial birth abortion where the procedure is necessary to save the life of the mother because her life is endangered by a physical disorder, physical illness, or physical injury, and further provided that no other medical procedure would suffice for that purpose.

C. As used in this Section, the term "person" shall not include the female upon whom the partial birth abortion is performed, and she shall not be subject to prosecution hereunder or as accessory to the offense or as a co-conspirator thereto.

D. Whoever commits the crime of partial birth abortion shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than one nor more than ten years or fined not less than ten thousand nor more than one hundred thousand dollars.

C. There is hereby created a cause of action against the licensed physician or any other person who performs a partial birth abortion for civil damages for survival and wrongful death as more fully set forth in Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2315.1 and 2315.2, except that such causes of action shall only be in favor of the natural or biological father of the aborted infant or fetus, the mother of the aborted infant or fetus or the parents or guardian on behalf of the mother of the aborted infant or fetus if the mother was a minor at the time of the abortion, unless such person's criminal conduct caused the pregnancy, or the person consented to the partial birth abortion.

Section 3. R.S. 40:1299.35.1(1) is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1299.35.1. Definitions

If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items, or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items, or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.
