§863.1. Evidence of compulsory motor vehicle liability security contained in vehicle; enforcement; penalty; fees

* * *

(b)(i) The owner of the vehicle shall have ten working days from the date that the notice of noncompliance was issued to present to the office of motor vehicles proof of insurance coverage or security in effect at the time of the issuance of the notice of noncompliance. If the vehicle was properly insured at the time the notice was issued, any valid license plate shall be returned within forty-eight hours, exclusive of legal holidays, to the owner of the vehicle at no cost to the owner. However, if the owner fails to provide proof of the fact that the vehicle was properly insured at the time the notice of noncompliance was issued, the chief administrative officer of the office of motor vehicles shall destroy, or shall cause to be destroyed, the license plate removed from that owner's vehicle and shall notify the secretary that the owner of the vehicle is not in compliance with the compulsory liability law. Upon receipt of such notification, the secretary shall revoke the registration of such vehicle for thirty days. If, within ten business days from the date on which the plate was removed, the owner of the vehicle fails to present proof of insurance coverage or security in effect at the time the notice of noncompliance was issued, the office of motor vehicles shall destroy the license plate which was removed from the vehicle and notify the appropriate law enforcement agency. Such law enforcement agency shall seize and sequester the vehicle and take such actions as are necessary to enable the appropriate prosecuting agency to initiate prosecution of the offense.

(ii) Any law enforcement officer observing a vehicle with an expired temporary use sticker operating on any public roadway shall cause the vehicle to be impounded. Any law enforcement officer observing a vehicle without a license plate or an expired temporary use sticker shall stop the vehicle and determine if the owner or lessee is in compliance with the provisions of this Section which require evidence of liability insurance or other security to be contained in the vehicle. If the owner or lessee is not in compliance with those provisions, the law enforcement officer shall cause the vehicle to be impounded.

(iii) The redemption of an impounded vehicle shall require that the owner or lessee show that the civil sanctions for noncompliance of the Compulsory Motor Vehicle Liability Security Act, if any, have been resolved and, that the owner or lessee has complied with the security requirements of R.S. 32:861.

(iv) However, if the vehicle is covered by an automobile liability policy, the owner or lessee shall provide proof of a prepaid insurance policy effective for a minimum of six months. The owner shall pay all costs of the towing and impoundment of the vehicle.

(v) The Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of state police, subject to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the issuance of a clearance letter to be issued to the owner of a vehicle impounded pursuant to this Subparagraph.

(vi) Nothing herein shall be deemed to impair any rights, interests, privileges, or remedies of any secured party or lessor of any vehicle affected by the provisions of this Subparagraph.

(vii) When any vehicle is seized and sequestered or impounded under the provisions of this Subparagraph, the provisions of R.S. 32:1711 through 1732 shall be applicable."

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Bowler to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 1064 by Senator Dardenne

AMENDMENT NO. 1

In Amendment No. 3 proposed by Representative Donelon and adopted by the House of Representative on June 4, 1997, between lines 36 and 37 of page 2 of the Amendments.

"Section 2. within thirty days after the anniversary of the effective date of this Act, the Department of Insurance shall prepare a report which quantifies the number of registered uninsured vehicles in Louisiana on the date of the effective date of this Ave and the number of registered uninsured vehicles which are being operated on the anniversary date of this Act. A similar report shall be made each year thereafter. The report shall state the method used to make the calculations, the source of the data, and the statistical validity of the report. Such report shall be filed with the House and Senate Insurance Committees and made available to any interested person, and the report shall be made each year and shall be published each year in the Louisiana Register for the issue immediately following the required date of preparation of the report and submission to the House and Senate Insurance Committees.

Section 3. If the number of uninsured vehicles is not decreased by twenty percent the first year, and ten percent each succeeding year, the provisions of this Act shall be null, void, and of no effect."

Rep. Bowler moved the adoption of the amendments.

Rep. Donelon objected.

By a vote of 28 yeas and 67 nays, the amendments were rejected.

Any law enforcement officer observing a vehicle without a license plate or a temporary use sticker shall stop the vehicle and determine if the owner or lessee is in compliance with the provisions of this Section which require evidence of liability insurance or other security to be contained in the vehicle. If the owner or lessee is not in compliance with those provisions, the law enforcement officer shall cause the vehicle to be impounded. Redemption of an impounded vehicle shall require that the owner or lessee show that the criminal sanctions for noncompliance of the Compulsory Motor Vehicle Liability Security Act, if any, have been successfully resolved; that the owner or lessee has complied with the security requirements of R.S. 32:861, provided, however, that if the vehicle is covered by an automobile liability policy, the owner or lessee shall provide proof of a prepaid insurance policy effective for a minimum of six months; that the owner or lessee show proof of ability to pay any damages caused by the vehicle while the vehicle was not covered by insurance or security; and that the owner pay all costs of the impoundment of the vehicle. The Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of state police, subject to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the issuance of a clearance letter to be issued to the owner of a vehicle impounded pursuant to this Subparagraph and the setting of the rates for the storage of the vehicles impounded pursuant to this Subparagraph. Nothing herein shall be deemed to impair any rights, interests, privileges, or remedies of any secured party or lessor of any vehicle affected by the provisions of this Paragraph. When any vehicle is seized and sequestered or impounded under the provisions of this Paragraph, the law enforcement agency taking such action shall notify the holder of any lien or security interest in the vehicle or the lessor of the vehicle, within ten days of such action. Said notice shall inform the secured party or lessor of the action taken with regard to the vehicle. The secured party or the lessor shall be entitled to seek any available remedies in order to protect its interests, and shall not be required to fulfill the obligations of the owner or lessee under this Paragraph in order to enforce those remedies.

§1728. Disposal of a stored motor vehicle

A. Whenever any such vehicle has been left in storage with any person engaged in the business of public storage of motor vehicles and the same has not been claimed for a period of forty-five days or more, and no payment for the costs of storage has been made for that period, the person with whom the vehicle has been left for storage may dispose of it and collect the charges and costs of storage in the manner set forth hereinafter. In the event the vehicle has been stored pursuant to R.S. 32:863.1(C)(1)(b), the time period shall be one hundred eighty days or more.

B. After the forty-five day or one hundred eighty-day period has lapsed, he shall forward a certified letter, return receipt requested, to the owner at the owner's last known address and to the mortgage holder, should there be any, advising in the letter the exact location of the vehicle, the date it was placed in storage, and by whom so placed, the outstanding charges against the vehicle, and the general condition of the vehicle. The letter shall also include a statement placing the registered owner and mortgage holder, if any, on notice that, unless action is taken on their part to claim the vehicle from the possession of the place of storage or unless an agreement is made by either or both of them to pay outstanding storage charges and to pay storage charges for continued storage of the vehicle and all costs incurred for the notification required by this Chapter, not to exceed the cost authorized by R.S. 32:1714(5), within fifteen days from the receipt of the letter, the vehicle will be advertised for sale at public auction and the proceeds disposed of as hereinafter provided.
