PART II-A. REVENUE STABILIZATION/MINERAL TRUST FUND SPECIAL FUNDS; EXPENDITURE LIMIT

§91. Revenue Budget Stabilization ~~Mineral Trust~~ Fund

A. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund to be designated as the Revenue Budget Stabilization ~~Mineral Trust~~ Fund, hereafter referred to in this Part as the "fund".

B. Monies shall be deposited in the fund as follows:

(1) All money available for appropriation from the state general fund and dedicated funds in excess of the expenditure limit as established in this Part, except funds allocated by Article VII, Section 4, Paragraphs (D) and (E) of the Constitution of Louisiana, shall be deposited in the fund.

(2)(a) All mineral revenues received in each fiscal year by the state in excess of seven hundred fifty million dollars, referred to in this Part as the "base", shall be deposited in the fund. Mineral revenues shall be those revenues received by the state as a result of the production of or exploration for minerals, including severance taxes, royalty payments, bonus payments, or rentals, and excluding such revenues received by the state as a result of grants or donations when the terms or conditions thereof require otherwise and revenues derived from any tax on the transportation of minerals. Such mineral revenues shall be deposited in the fund after the following allocations of said mineral revenues have been made:

(~~a~~) (i) To the Bond Security and Redemption Fund as provided by Article VII, Section 9(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

(~~b~~) (ii) To the political subdivisions of the state as provided in Article VII, Section 4, Paragraphs (D) and (E) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

(~~c~~) (iii) As provided by the requirements of Article VII, Section 10-A and 10.1 of the Constitution of Louisiana.

~~(b)~~ The base of the fund may be increased every ten years for the ensuing fiscal year beginning in the year 2000 by a law enacted by two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature. Any such increase shall not exceed fifty percent in the aggregate of the increase in the Consumer Price Index For All Urban Consumers for the immediately preceding ten years.

(3) Twenty-five percent of any money designated in the official forecast as nonrecurring as provided in Article VII, Section 10(D)(2) of the Constitution of Louisiana shall be deposited in and credited to the fund.

(4) Out of the funds remaining in the Bond Security and Redemption Fund after a sufficient amount is allocated from that fund to pay all obligations secured by the full faith and credit of the state which become due and payable within any fiscal year as required by Article VII, Section 9(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana, the treasurer shall deposit in the fund one-half of the net revenues received by the state in each fiscal year from gaming activities conducted at the official gaming establishment as defined by law until such time as one hundred fifty million dollars of such net revenues in the aggregate have been deposited in the fund; thereafter all of such net revenues received by the state shall be deposited in the fund.

(5) Any money appropriated to the fund by the legislature including any appropriation to the fund from money designated in the official forecast as provided in Article VII, Section 10(D)(2) of the Constitution of Louisiana shall be deposited in the fund.

C. Money in the fund shall be used solely as provided for in R.S. 39:92 and 93. All monies in the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. Earnings realized in each fiscal year on the investment of monies in the fund shall be credited to the fund. All unexpended and unencumbered monies in the fund at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund.

D.(1) There shall be established within the fund the Revenue Reserve Account and the Fiscal Responsibility Account. Money deposited in the fund shall be credited to the accounts as provided in this Subsection.

(2) Deposits made to the fund shall be credited to the Revenue Reserve Account until the balance in the account is equal to seven percent of the official forecast for the previous fiscal year. The balance in the account shall not at any time exceed seven percent of the official forecast for the previous fiscal year. If the balance in the account becomes less than seven percent of the official forecast for the previous fiscal year, deposits to the fund shall commence to be credited to the account as provided in this Paragraph.

(3) Deposits made to the fund which are not credited to the Revenue Reserve Account as provided in this Subsection shall be credited to the Fiscal Responsibility Account.

(4) If the balance in the Revenue Reserve Account at the beginning of a fiscal year is less than seven percent of the official forecast for the preceding fiscal year, unencumbered monies in the Fiscal Responsibility Account shall be credited to the Revenue Reserve Account until the balance in the Revenue Reserve Account is equal to seven percent of the official forecast for the preceding fiscal year.

§92. Use of the fund; procedure Revenue Reserve Account

A. The monies in the ~~fund~~ Revenue Reserve Account shall not be available for appropriation or use except under the following conditions:

(1) If the official forecast of recurring money for the next fiscal year is less than ~~revenues received by the state~~ the official forecast of recurring money for the ~~preceding~~ current fiscal year, the difference, which shall not exceed one-third of the ~~fund~~ ~~may~~ account shall be incorporated into the official forecast. The amount of the ~~fund~~ account to be incorporated into the official forecast shall be determined by the Revenue Estimating Conference and shall be incorporated into the official forecast only after the consent of two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature. If the legislature is not in session, the two-thirds consent requirement may be obtained as provided in Subsection B of this Section.

(2) If a deficit for the current fiscal year is projected due to a decrease in the official forecast, an amount equal to one-third of the ~~fund~~ account, not to exceed the projected deficit, may be appropriated from the ~~fund~~ account to the state general fund. For purposes of this Paragraph, a projected deficit shall mean a projected deficit determined as provided in R.S. 39:75, occur when an official forecast minus the cash flow reserve is less than appropriated revenues. For purposes of this Paragraph, the following terms shall have the meaning given to them:

(a) "Cash flow reserve" means the difference between the official forecast on August fifteenth of any calendar year and total appropriations from the state general fund and dedicated funds as of that date.

(b) "Appropriated revenues" means the difference between the official forecast on August fifteenth of any calendar year and the cash flow reserve.

§93. Use of investment earnings Fiscal Responsibility Account

The legislature may annually appropriate the earnings from the investment of the fund but only for the following purposes: (1) First, to provide for the annual amortization of the unfunded accrued liability of the public retirement systems required by Article X, Section 29 of the Constitution of Louisiana and for such further payments against the unfunded accrued liability as the legislature may provide;

(2) Second, to provide for the retirement in advance of maturity through redemption, purchase, or repayment of state debt.; and

(3) Third, after satisfying the above requirements, as provided by law.

The monies in the Fiscal Responsibility Account may be appropriated but only for the following purposes:

(1) To provide for payments against the unfunded accrued liability of the public retirement systems which are in addition to any payments required for the annual amortization of the unfunded accrued liability of the public retirement systems, required by Article X, Section 29 of the Constitution of Louisiana; however, any such payment to the public retirement systems shall not be used, directly or indirectly, to fund cost-of-living increases for such systems.

(2) To provide for retiring or defeasance of bonds in advance and in addition to the existing amortization requirements of the state.

(3) To provide for funding for capital outlay projects in the comprehensive state capital budget.

Section 3. Sections 1 and 3 of this Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval. Section 2 of this Act shall take effect and become operative if and when the proposed amendment of Article VII, Section 10.3 of the Constitution contained in the Act which originated as House Bill No. 873 of this 1997 Regular Session is adopted at the congressional primary election to be held in 1998 and becomes effective."

On motion of Rep. Murray, the amendments were adopted.

"§416. Employment of retirees

A. Regardless of age, if a retiree of this system is engaged or hereafter engages in employment which otherwise would render him eligible for membership in this system, he shall choose one of the following irrevocable options:

(1)(a) Option 1. Any person on regular retirement under the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System may be employed in any position covered by this system during any fiscal year, provided that his earnings in such employment do not exceed fifty percent of his annual retirement benefit for such fiscal year. For the purposes of this Section, there shall be an annual cost-of-living adjustment to the annual retirement benefit figure used in these computations. This cost-of-living adjustment shall be based upon and directly reflect the annual percentage increase or decrease in the Consumer Price Index for the preceding year. The retiree may continue to receive his benefit until he earns more than fifty percent of his annual retirement benefit as defined herein, during any fiscal year, after which his retirement benefits shall be reduced so that the total reduction equals the amount earned in excess of fifty percent of his annual retirement benefit as adjusted under this Section. Retirees choosing this option shall not become contributing members of this system.

(b) Due to inconsistent interpretations arising from the passage of Act 610 of the 1995 Regular Session, which made the selection of Option 1 an irrevocable decision, the benefits of any retiree of the Department of Transportation and Development who chose Option

I shall not be reduced or suspended as a consequence of any employment occurring during the period between July 1, 1995 and June 30, 1997.

"§165. Felony conviction; benefit and eligibility disqualification

A. Any public employee who is employed after December 31, 1997, shall agree to be subject to the following conditions of employment:

(1) That if he is convicted of a felony offense as listed in Subsection B of this Section, where such conviction arose from his service as a public employee, then he shall by operation of law be automatically disqualified from eligibility to participate in, or to receive his share of benefits from the state or statewide public retirement system of which he is a member.

(2) The employee contributions that were made to fund the convicted employee's participation in the plan shall be refunded, without interest. No further employee or employer contributions shall be made on behalf of the convicted employee. Any further service by the convicted employee shall not be applied as credit to the retirement system.

(3)(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2 of this Subsection, the employee's contributions shall be retained by the plan to the extent necessary to fund the actuarial cost of retirement benefits of the convicted employee's spouse and children in an amount proportionate to the spouse's community interest and the children's interest in the plan, if any.

(ii) The spouse shall receive retirement benefits in an amount proportionate to the community interest that enured to the spouse, based on the service credited to the employee's account prior to conviction.

(iii) The children shall receive benefits in an amount proportionate to their interest as established by law.

(4)(i) If the conviction is reversed on appeal, the public employee shall be made whole by the restoration of his eligibility to participate in the retirement system and to receive benefits therefrom, including any credit or benefits that he may have been deprived of during the time between conviction and restoration.

(ii) Prior to such restoration, any refunded employee contributions received by the employee pursuant to Paragraph 2 of this Subsection shall be repaid to the system in one lump sum or in such installments as approved by the board of trustees thereof. Any employee contributions that would have been made during the period shall be made in such installments as approved by the board of trustees, provided that all such contributions shall be paid prior to applying for retirement.

(iii) The employer contributions that would have been made during the period shall be included in the employer contribution to the system in the fiscal year following the employee's repayment of contributions.

B. The provisions of this Section shall only be applicable where the employee is convicted of any of the following offenses.

- (1) Public bribery (R.S. 14:118).
- (2) Bribery of voters (R.S. 14:119).
- (3) Corrupt influencing (R.S. 14:120).

~~A.~~ The salary of the speaker of the House of Representatives shall be ~~thirty-two~~ sixty thousand dollars per annum, such salary to be payable ~~monthly~~ on his own warrant and drawn on the general fund of the state. This salary shall be compensation to the speaker for service to the House of Representatives, including that rendered during regular and extraordinary sessions of the legislature and during the interim between sessions. The speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to receive per diem compensation only during sessions of the legislature in the amount provided in R.S. 24:31 for his service to the House of Representatives.

B. In addition to the days for which he is authorized a per diem as provided in R.S. 24:31 or for attendance at meetings of legislative and other committees or commissions during the interim between sessions, the speaker shall be paid the per diem authorized in R.S. 24:31 for each day spent in the state capitol in the conduct of the business of his office, upon filing of a voucher for each such day with the clerk of the House.

§503. Expenses

The president of the Senate and the speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to be reimbursed for actual expenses, in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars per annum, to be paid monthly on their own warrants and drawn on the general fund of the state upon filing an itemized statement of expenses and appropriate invoices or receipts supporting the same with the chief clerical officer of their respective house of the legislature, including but not limited. Such reimbursable expenses shall include but not be limited to travel, lodging expenses, and for attendance at meetings, conferences, and appearances in connection with their official duties, in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars per annum, to be paid monthly on their own warrants and drawn on the general fund of the state.

§504. Speaker pro tempore; assumption of duties of speaker; salary

A. The speaker pro tempore of the House of Representatives shall, upon the death of the speaker of the House of Representatives, assume the powers, duties, responsibilities, and emoluments of the speaker of the House until the first regular or special session of the legislature thereafter, at which time a new speaker shall be elected. The speaker pro tempore, in the event of the disability or absence of the speaker of the House of Representatives as certified by the speaker of the House or a majority of the members of the House of Representatives by roll call vote or mail ballot, shall assume the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the speaker until the termination of such disability or absence, and the House of Representatives shall make appropriate financial recompense for such service.

B. The salary of the speaker pro tempore of the House of Representatives shall be forty-two thousand five hundred dollars per annum. This salary shall be compensation to the speaker pro tempore for service to the House of Representatives, including that rendered during regular and extraordinary sessions of the legislature and during the interim between sessions. The salary provided for in this Section shall be payable in the same manner as provided in R.S. 24:31.1(B). The speaker pro tempore shall be entitled to the per diem and all other allowances provided by law for members of the Legislature of Louisiana.

§506. President of the Senate; salary; expenses

A. The salary of the president of the Senate shall be thirty-two sixty thousand dollars per annum, such salary to be payable monthly on his own warrant and drawn on the general fund of the state. This salary shall be compensation to the president for service to the Senate, including that rendered during regular and extraordinary sessions of the legislature and during the interim between sessions. The president of the Senate shall be entitled to receive per diem compensation only during sessions of the legislature in the amount provided in R.S. 24:31 for his service to the Senate.

B. In addition to the days for which he is authorized a per diem as provided in R.S. 24:31 or for attendance at meetings of legislative and other committees or commissions during the interim between sessions, the president shall be paid the per diem authorized in R.S.

24:31 for each day spent in the state capitol in the conduct of the business of his office, upon filing of a voucher for each such day with the secretary of the Senate.

§507. President pro tempore; assumption of duties of president; salary

A. The president pro tempore of the Senate shall, upon the death of the president of the Senate, assume the powers, duties, responsibilities, and emoluments of the president of the Senate until the first regular or extraordinary session of the legislature thereafter, at which time a new president shall be elected. The president pro tempore, in the event of the disability or absence of the president of the Senate as certified by the president of the Senate or by a majority of the members of the Senate by roll call vote or mail ballot, shall assume the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the president until the termination of such disability or absence, and the Senate shall make appropriate financial recompense for such service.

B. The salary of the president pro tempore of the Senate shall be forty-two thousand five hundred dollars per annum. This salary shall be compensation to the president pro tempore for service to the Senate, including that rendered during regular and extraordinary sessions of the legislature and during the interim between sessions. The salary provided for in this Section shall be payable in the same manner as provided in R.S. 24:31.1(B). The president pro tempore shall be entitled to the per diem and all other allowances provided by law for members of the Legislature of Louisiana.

§651. Committee created; membership and composition

E. The committee by majority vote may set additional compensation for the chairman and vice chairman of the committee for service on the committee, except that the amount of such additional compensation shall not cause the total compensation of such officers to exceed the compensation of the speaker of the House of Representatives or the president of the Senate. In addition, if such officers receive additional compensation as provided in this Subsection, such officers shall not be entitled to receive per diem as provided in Subsection D of this Section for the performance of their duties for the committee.

Section 2. In addition to the emoluments established by law for members of the Legislature of Louisiana, either house of the legislature by resolution may establish additional allowances, supplements, or other compensation for its members.

Section 3. Any additional compensation paid to the officers of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget prior to July 1, 1997, authorized pursuant to Act No. 538 of 1976 or any other provision of law is hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Section 4. Any member of the legislature in office on the effective date of this Act may elect to receive per diem compensation and salary as provided by law in effect on January 1, 1997. Such election shall be filed with the clerk of the House or the secretary of the Senate, as applicable. Such election may be filed any time after adjournment sine die of the 1997 Regular Session of the Legislature of Louisiana and prior to July 10, 1997.

Section 5. Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this Act shall become effective upon adjournment sine die of the 1997 Regular Session of the Legislature of Louisiana. Section 1 of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 1997; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on July 1, 1997, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later."

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, after line 27, add:

"§430. Credit for settlement of "United States v. Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development, et al."

A. Any member of the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System who is reinstated to his job, or who receives a back pay award, or both, as a result of the settlement of the lawsuit entitled "United States v. Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development, et al.", bearing Docket Number C.A. 87-0331, of the United States District Court, Middle District of Louisiana, shall be entitled to purchase credit for service commensurate to such award and subject to the provisions set forth in this Section.

B. Any person covered by this Section may purchase such credit at any time prior to his application for retirement by submitting his request in writing and paying the actuarial value of the contributions that would have been made if he had not been terminated from employment in the manner that was made the subject of the referenced lawsuit subject to the provisions of R.S. 11:158.

C. If the consent decree that was approved by the court in the lawsuit referenced in Subsection A of this Section is modified or amended by the court, or if any subsequent court order is entered relative thereto, to provide that the employer shall pay all or any part of the contributions due for any plaintiff class member to receive retirement credit, then such contributions shall be deemed to be part of the employer portion of the normal cost of the applicable retirement system and such contributions, as specified in the decree or order, shall be made in accordance with Article X, Section 29(E) of the Louisiana Constitution. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, the plaintiff class member shall only be required to pay that actuarial portion of the contributions that are expressly required by the modified or amended consent decree or any subsequent court order entered relative thereto, if any, and the member shall receive credit commensurate to all contributions made on his behalf.

"Section 4. Part X of Chapter 7 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 13:2488.91 through R.S. 13:2488.99, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

PART X. TALLULAH

§2488.91. City Court of Tallulah; officials and employees; provisions governing

A. There is hereby created and established a court, to be styled the City Court of Tallulah, Louisiana, the territorial jurisdiction of which shall extend throughout the whole of the parish of Madison. The court shall be composed of a city judge, a marshal, and a clerk of said court. The offices of city judge and marshal shall be filled initially by appointment by the governor. The court shall be domiciled in the town of Tallulah, Madison Parish, Louisiana.

B. The city judge and marshal appointed by the governor shall serve until their successors are elected by the qualified electors of the parish of Madison, at a special election to be called by the governor, and their successors shall be elected every six years thereafter.

C. Unless inconsistent herewith and except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the general provisions of Subpart A of Part I of Chapter 7 of Title 13, of the Revised Statutes of Louisiana of 1950, consisting of R.S. 13:1871, et seq., shall be applicable to and shall govern and regulate the City Court of Tallulah, and its officers.

§2488.92. Rules for conduct of business

A. The city court may adopt and from time to time amend its rules for conduct of the judicial business before it.

B. The city court shall have such terms and sessions for the transaction of its judicial business as shall be fixed from time to time by the rules adopted by the court.

§2488.93. Qualifications and salary of judge

A. The judge of the city court shall be licensed to practice law in this state for at least five years previous to his election and be a resident elector of the territorial jurisdiction of the court on the date of qualifying for election to the office. The initial judge, to be appointed by the governor, shall be a resident elector of the territorial jurisdiction of the court on the date of his appointment.

B. In addition to the compensation paid by the state, as provided in R.S. 13:1874(E), the judge of the city court shall receive an annual salary as provided by law, payable monthly on his own warrant, one half to be paid by the town of Tallulah and one half by the parish of Madison.

§2488.94. Salary of marshal

The marshal of the city court shall receive annual salary as provided by law, payable monthly in equal proportions by the respective governing authorities of the town of Tallulah and the parish of Madison. The town and the parish, or either of them, may pay such additional salary to the marshal as it may deem proper.

§2488.95. Salary of clerk

The clerk shall receive a monthly salary as provided by law and payable in equal proportions by the respective governing authorities of the town of Tallulah and the parish of Madison. The town and the parish, or either of them, may pay such additional salary to the clerk as it may deem proper.

§2488.96. Courtroom and offices

The expenses of operation and maintenance of the courtroom and offices shall be paid by the town of Tallulah.

§2488.97. Collection of fines, forfeitures, penalties, and costs

The city judge, or any other officer of the city court designated by the city judge, shall collect all fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs, and all funds so collected, excluding costs, shall be paid into the treasury of the town of Tallulah when the prosecution is on behalf of the town, and into the parish treasury of the Madison Parish general fund when the prosecution is on behalf of the state or the parish.

§2488.98. Criminal matters; costs

A. In all criminal matters, including traffic violation cases, the city judge may assess, in addition to the fine or other penalty imposed, costs of court in an amount not to exceed forty dollars.

B. The proceeds derived from these costs shall be deposited in a special account which shall be subject to audit and shall be used for the operational expenses of the court, including but without limitation, the use from time to time for the costs of operating the court and for the employment by the judge of secretaries, accountants, stenographers, filing clerks, bookkeepers, reporters and other court employees, and for the purchase of stationery, books, office supplies and such other equipment, all as may be useful or necessary for the proper conduct of the court's judicial business, and all as may be approved by the court. In addition, the proceeds derived from such costs in excess of that necessary for the proper conduct of the court's business may, with approval of the judge, be paid in equal proportions into the treasury of the town of Tallulah and into the treasury of the Madison Parish general fund.

§2488.99. Nonrefundable civil fee; assessment and disposition

A. Except as otherwise provided by law and subject to the Code of Civil Procedure Art. 5181 et seq., in addition to any other fees or costs provided by law, the clerk of the Tallulah City Court shall collect from each person filing any type of civil suit or proceeding, except in the small claims division, a nonrefundable fee in an amount determined by the judge, but not to exceed thirty dollars.

B. The clerk shall place all sums collected or received pursuant to this Section in the general fund of the court, special cost account, to be used to supplement the operational expenses of the court. The expenditure of funds shall be at the sole discretion of the judge of the court. All funds shall be subject to and included in the court's annual audit. A copy of the audit shall be filed with the legislative auditor who shall make it available for public inspection.

C. The assessment and disposition of any funds pursuant to this Section shall not affect the responsibilities of the city and parish governing authority provided by law for the financing of the Tallulah City Court."

Point of Order

Rep. McCain asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Barton to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 1477 by Senator Ellington

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 1, line 2, between "To" and "enact" insert "amend and reenact Section 2(A) of Act No. 19 of the 1970 Regular Session of the Legislature, as amended by Act No. 623 of the 1974 Regular Session, Act No. 629 of the 1979 Regular Session, Act No. 465 of the 1990 Regular Session, and Act No. 303 of the 1993 Regular Session and to"

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, at the end of line 2, insert "certain local tourist commissions; to provide relative to the composition of the Shreveport-Bossier Convention and Tourist Commission; to establish limits on the terms a commissioner of such commission may serve; to provide relative to"

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 3, between "by" and "commissions" change "tourism" to "certain tourist"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, after line 24, insert the following:

"Section 2. Section 2(A) of Act No. 19 of the 1970 Regular Session, as amended by Act No. 623 of the 1974 Regular Session, Act No. 629 of the 1979 Regular Session, Act No. 465 of the 1990 Regular Session, and Act No. 303 of the 1993 Regular Session, is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 2(A). The commission shall be composed of seventeen members, who shall be known as directors, to be appointed by the following persons or organizations: one by the Caddo Parish Commission; one by the Bossier Parish Police Jury; one by the mayor of Bossier City; one by the mayor of Shreveport; four by the Shreveport-Bossier Hotel Motel Association, two of whom shall have an ownership interest in a hotel within the jurisdiction of the commission and two of which whom shall be from Shreveport and two of which whom shall be from Bossier City; one by the Bossier Chamber of Commerce; one by the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce; one by the Shreveport Negro Chamber of Commerce; one by the Bossier Community Action Program, Inc.; one by the Northwest Chapter of the Louisiana Restaurant Association; one appointed by the mayors and the governing authorities of the municipalities in Caddo Parish that have a population of less than ten thousand persons; one appointed by the mayors and the governing authorities of the municipalities in Bossier Parish that have a population of less than ten thousand persons; and two by the Shreveport-Bossier Attractions Association, one of which whom shall be a representative from Louisiana Downs, and one of which whom shall be a representative from a Shreveport attraction. The terms of all appointees shall be for three years, except as provided below. The commission shall adopt bylaws which shall provide for the expiration dates of the terms of the directors, and may provide for shorter terms for some directors when necessary to prevent all terms from expiring at the same time. For the years 1990 and 1991, the bylaws may also provide for shorter terms in order to change the expiration date from that designated in Act 629 of 1979. Any vacancy in the office of any director caused by resignation or other reasons shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by appointment in the same manner as the particular office was filled. No director appointed after January 1, 1994, shall serve more than two consecutive three-year terms."

On motion of Rep. Barton, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Kenney moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

On page 2, after line 16, insert the following:

"Section 3. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a minor is considered the child of both parties to a marriage if the child has been raised during the marriage as if he were the biological or legally adopted child of the parties, has been dependent upon the parties for his health, education, or welfare as evidenced by the child being named as a dependant on the federal and state tax returns of the parties for five consecutive years, and has been classified by a branch of the United States military as a dependent of either party. The provisions hereof shall apply both prospectively and retroactively, but shall only apply to those children born between July 1, 1986 and August 1, 1986; however, no provision hereof shall confer upon the child the status of forced heir or serve to involuntarily terminate parental rights."

On motion of Rep. Doerge, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Kenney moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

"Section 1. Section 3(1)(A) of Act No. 541 of the 1976 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, as amended by Act No. 499 of the 1978 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act No. 449 of the 1980 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act No. 927 of the 1981 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act No. 476 of the 1984 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act No. 259 of the 1989 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, and Act No. 640 of the 1993 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 3. The board shall have the following duties, powers, functions, and responsibilities:

(1)(A) Subject to other provisions of this Act, the board, as the governing authority of the district, shall have those powers and duties vested in the district and the board by Article 14, Section 47 of the 1921 Louisiana Constitution continued as a statute pursuant to the provisions of Article XIV, Section 16 of the Louisiana Constitution, as amended, including the power to plan, acquire, finance, own, construct, operate, and maintain, recreational facilities, recreation centers, and other facilities to accommodate expositions, conventions, exhibitions, sports events, spectacles, and other public meetings and all facilities and properties incidental and necessary to a complex suitable for any or all types of sports and recreation, and shall exercise them in the name and on behalf of the district. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the board, as governing authority of the district, shall have the power and authority to enter into one or more cooperative endeavor agreements to assist in the planning and financing, specifically including the issuing of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness on behalf of the New Orleans Business and Industrial District, which relate to the Automotive Technology Center and Raceway; however, (1) any fees, charges, or other costs related to the issuance of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be approved in advance by the State Bond Commission and (2) the board shall take such actions as necessary to assure that the execution of any cooperative endeavor agreements in connection with such issuance be accomplished in the most efficient and expeditious manner as possible.

Section 2. R.S. 33:4702(I)(1) is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§4702. Board of commissioners; appointment and term; organization

I.(1)(a) The board, by resolution adopted by a vote of a majority of the members of the board of the district, shall have power and is hereby authorized to incur indebtedness for and on behalf and for the sole and exclusive benefit of the district, and to issue at one time, or from time to time, negotiable bonds, notes and other evidence of indebtedness, herein referred to collectively as bonds, of the district, the principal of, premium if any, and interest on which shall be payable solely from the proceeds of the special tax authorized, levied, and collected pursuant to the provisions of this Section for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring and constructing capital improvements, projects, and facilities within the district. Such bonds shall not constitute general obligations of the city of New Orleans, nor shall any property situated within the city other than property situated within the boundaries of the district be subject to taxation for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such bonds. Furthermore, any indebtedness incurred by the city of New Orleans for and on behalf and for the benefit of the district pursuant to the provisions of this Section, whether evidenced by bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, or otherwise, shall be excluded in determining the power of the city of New Orleans to incur indebtedness and to issue its general obligation bonds. The principal amount of such bonds which may be outstanding and unpaid at any one time in the district shall never exceed the sum of fifty million dollars. All such bonds shall be sold by the board, and shall bear such rate or rates of interest, and shall, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, be in such form, terms, and denominations, be redeemable at such time or times at such price or prices, and payable at such times and places, within a period of not exceeding fifty years from the date thereof, as the board, shall determine.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Part to the contrary, any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which relate to the planning, acquisition, or construction of the Automotive Technology Center and Raceway shall only be issued on behalf of the New Orleans Business and Industrial District by the Louisiana Stadium and Exposition District through one or more cooperative endeavor agreements executed for that purpose. Any such cooperative endeavor agreement shall specify that any such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness shall be payable as to principal, interest, premium, and other related costs of issuance solely from revenues of the New Orleans Business and Industrial Development District and shall not constitute a pledge of any revenues of the state of Louisiana or the Louisiana Stadium and Exposition District.

Amendments proposed by Representative DeWitt to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 253 by Senator Hines

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 3, line 3, delete "fifty" and insert "two hundred fifty"

Rep. DeWitt moved the adoption of the amendments.

Rep. Rodney Alexander objected.

By a vote of 46 yeas and 49 nays, the amendments were rejected.

Rep. Copelin sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Copelin to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 253 by Senator Hines

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 3, line 3, after "less than" and before "thousand" delete "fifty" and insert "one hundred and twenty-five"

On motion of Rep. Copelin, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Pratt sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Pratt to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 253 by Senator Hines

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 32, line 23, change "applicant" to "food service establishment"

On motion of Rep. Pratt, the amendments were adopted.

Point of Order

Rep. Winston asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether Senate Bill No. 253 levies a new fee or increases an existing fee and therefore would require the favorable vote of two-thirds of the elected members to finally pass the House.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled the bill did levy a new fee or increases an existing fee and therefore would require the favorable vote of two-thirds of the elected members to finally pass the House.

Rep. Rodney Alexander moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
