AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 2, line 24, after "196(C)(3)," and before "and" insert "1401(D), 1405(G),"

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 9, line 1, after "qualifying" delete the remainder of the line

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 19, line 9, after "presence of" and before "the parish" insert "a majority of"

AMENDMENT NO. 8

On page 20, between lines 24 and 25 insert the following:

"§1401. Objections to candidacy and contests of elections; parties authorized to institute actions

D. A qualified elector may bring an action objecting to the calling of a special election to fill a vacancy if he alleges that no special election should have been called or that the special election was called on an improper day.

§1402. Proper parties

C. The secretary of state and the commissioner of elections shall be made parties defendant to any action contesting an election for public office. The secretary of state shall be made defendant to any action objecting to the calling of a special election. When named as defendants, in an action contesting an election, costs of court shall not be assessed against these officers.

§1403. Jurisdiction

The district courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of actions objecting to candidacy, objecting to the calling of a special election, and contesting elections. In a judicial district wherein there is a criminal and a civil district court, the civil district court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction.

§1404. Venue

A.(1) An action objecting to a candidate or contesting an election shall be instituted in the district court for the parish where the state capitol is situated if the action involves an office filled by statewide election and shall be instituted in the district court for any parish included, in whole or part, in the district for the office the action involves.

(2) An action objecting to the calling of a special election shall be instituted in the district court for the parish where the governing authority calling such special election is domiciled. If the governor, president of the Senate, or speaker of the House of Representatives calls the special election, then an action objecting the calling of such special election shall be instituted in the district court for the parish where the state capitol is situated.

§1405. Time for commencement of action

G. An action objecting to the calling of a special election shall be instituted within fourteen days after the calling of the election.

§1406. Petition; answer; notification

A. An action objecting to the calling of a special election, objecting to candidacy, or contesting an election shall be instituted by filing a petition in a court of competent jurisdiction and venue and posting a copy of the petition in a conspicuous place at the entrance of the office of the clerk of court where the petition is filed.

C. The defendant shall be served with citation directing him to appear in court at no later than 10:00 a.m. on the fourth day after suit was filed, subject, however, to the provisions of R.S. 18:1408(D). The defendant is not required to answer the petition, but if he answers, he shall do so prior to trial.

D. The clerk of court shall immediately notify the secretary of state and the commissioner of elections, by telephone and by written notice sent certified mail, when an action objecting to the calling of a special election, objecting to candidacy, or contesting an election has been filed.

§1409. Trial; decision; appeal

A. Actions objecting to the calling of a special election, objecting to candidacy, or contesting an election shall be tried summarily, without a jury, and in open court. The trial shall begin no later than 10:00 a.m. on the fourth day after suit was filed. If the defendant does not appear on the date set for the trial, either in person or through counsel, the court shall appoint an attorney at law to represent him by instantenous appointment made prior to the commencement of the trial. In a case where a court appointment of an attorney to represent the defendant is made, the proceedings shall be conducted contradictorily against the court-appointed attorney. The court shall determine the amount of the fee payable to curators ad hoc in accordance with criteria used by the court in fixing curator fees under Code of Civil Procedure Article 5091 et seq. The court shall tax the curator's fee as costs, and such fee shall be paid by the plaintiff unless the defendant was served personally at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing and the appointment of a curator ad hoc was necessitated by his failure to appear at the trial, in which case the court may require the defendant to pay the curator's fee.

§1410. Judgments in objection to candidacy or election contest; transmittal of certified copy to secretary of state and commissioner of elections

A certified copy of the judgment rendered in an action objecting to the calling of a special election, objection to candidacy, or contesting an election shall be transmitted by the clerk of court to the secretary of state and commissioner of elections. Upon receipt of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction disqualifying a candidate, the secretary of state shall remove the candidate's name from the ballot, if the ballot has not been printed. If the ballot has been printed with the disqualified candidate's name, any votes received by the disqualified candidate shall be void and shall not be counted for any purpose whatsoever.
