STATE OF MAINE

In the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Nine

JOINT RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING THE UNITED STATES SENATE TO RATIFY THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE ELIMINATION OF ALL FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN

WHEREAS, we your Memorialists, the Members of the One Hundred and Nineteenth Legislature of the State of Maine, now assembled, in the First Regular Session, most respectfully present and petition the President of the United States and the United States Congress, as follows:

WHEREAS, the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on December 18, 1979, became an international treaty on September 3, 1981 and as of December 1997 has been ratified or acceded to by 161 nations; and

WHEREAS, although the United States is considered a world leader in human rights, supports and has a position of leadership in the United Nations, was an active participant in the drafting and is a signatory of the convention, the United States is one of the few nations that have not ratified the treaty; and

WHEREAS, the spirit of the convention is rooted in the goals of the United Nations and the United States, which seek to affirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the person and in the equal rights of men and women; and

WHEREAS, the convention provides a comprehensive framework for challenging the various forces that have created and sustained discrimination based on sex against half of the world's population and the 161 nations that have ratified the convention have agreed to follow the convention prescriptions; and

WHEREAS, although women have made major gains in the struggle for equality in social, business, political, legal and educational fields, there is much more to be accomplished; and through its support, leadership and prestige, the United States can help create a world where women are no longer discriminated against and have achieved one of the most fundamental of human rights, equality; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, your Memorialists, request the President of the United States and the United States Congress to ratify the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women; and be it further

RESOLVED: That suitable copies of this resolution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Honorable William J. Clinton, President of the United States; the President of the United States Senate; the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States; the President of the Senate or the equivalent officer in the 49 other states; the Speaker of the House or the equivalent officer in the 49 other states; the United Nations Secretary-General, Kofi Annan; and each member of the Maine Congressional Delegation.

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, between lines 8 and 9, insert the following:

"§230.2. Policies, group health and accident; conversion

A. Effective January 1, 1998, health coverage subject to fees assessed under R.S. 22:239.1(A)(2) shall be exempted from mandatory issuance of a converted policy. Conversion policies issued prior to January 1, 1998, shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this Section.

B.(1) A group policy or group certificate delivered or issued for delivery in this state by: (a) an insurer; (b) a nonprofit mutual association which is engaged exclusively in the furnishing of hospital services and medical or surgical benefits; (c) a health maintenance organization; (d) a self-insured plan that provides, on an expense-incurred basis, hospital, surgical, or major medical expense insurance; or (e) any combination thereof, shall provide that an employee or member whose insurance under the group policy has been terminated for any reason and who has been continuously insured under the group policy and under any group policy providing similar benefits that the terminated group policy replaced, for at least three months immediately prior to termination, shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer a policy or certificate of health and accident insurance, hereafter referred to in this Section as a "converted policy".

(2) An employee or member shall be denied a converted policy if termination of the prior insurance under the group policy occurred because of fraud or discontinuance of the prior group policy by replacement of similar group coverage within thirty-one days after discontinuance.

C. The written application for the converted policy shall be completed, and the first premium shall be paid to the insurer not later than thirty-one days after notice to the insured of the termination of the prior group coverage.

D. The converted policy shall be issued without evidence of insurability.

E.(1) The premium for the converted policy shall be determined in accordance with premium rates applicable to the age, class of risk, and type and amount of insurance coverage provided in the converted policy of the person to be covered. However, the premium for the converted policy may not exceed the premium charged by the Louisiana Health Insurance Association at the time of conversion, adjusted for differences between benefit levels for the converted policy and the policy offered by the Louisiana Health Insurance Association.

(2) The actual or expected experience under converted policies may be combined with the experience under group policies for the purposes of the determination of premium and loss experience by the insurer and the establishment of adequate premium rate levels for group coverage.

(3) For purposes of this Section, a conversion policy shall not be denied because a person is or may be eligible for benefits pursuant to R.S. 22:240. In the event that the Louisiana Health Insurance Association does not issue policies, or has not done so by the effective date of this Section, benefit and premium levels for conversion policies under this Section shall be based upon those proposed by the Louisiana Health Insurance Association, if any, or determined in accordance with the mechanisms established by R.S. 22:240.

F. The effective date of the converted policy shall be the day following the termination of insurance under the group policy.

G. The converted policy shall provide insurance coverage for the employee or member and the dependents of the employee or member who were covered by the group policy for at least three months prior to the date of termination of insurance. At the option of the insurer, a separate converted policy may be issued to cover any dependent.

H. The insurer shall not be required to issue, maintain, or renew a converted policy for an employee or member if any of the following apply to the employee or member:

(1) The person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, surgical, medical, or major medical insurance policy; hospital or medical service subscriber contract; medical practice or other prepayment plan; or any other plan or program.

(2) The person is eligible for similar benefits, whether or not actually provided coverage, under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis.

(3) If similar benefits are provided for or are available to the person under any state or federal law.

(4) The person legally resides outside the health maintenance organization service area.

I.(1) A converted policy may include a provision under which the insurer may request information, in advance of any premium due date, of any person covered thereunder as to whether:

(a) The person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, or major medical expense insurance policy, hospital or medical service subscriber contract, medical practice or other prepayment plan, or any other plan or program.

(b) The person is covered for similar benefits under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis.

(c) Similar benefits are provided for or are available to the person under any state or federal law.

(2) The converted policy may provide that the insurer may refuse to renew the policy of any person only for one of the following reasons:

(a) The converted policyholder fails to provide the information requested pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.

(b) Fraud or material misrepresentation by the member or employee in applying for any benefits under the converted policy.

(c) Eligibility of the insured person for coverage under Medicare, Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as added by the Social Security Amendments of 1965, or as later amended or superseded, or under any other state or federal law providing for those benefits provided by the converted policy.

(d) Any other reason approved by the commissioner of insurance.

J. An insurer under this Section shall not be required to issue a converted policy that provides benefits in excess of those provided under the preceding group policy.

K. In determining whether any preexisting condition precludes coverage for a specific benefit in the converted policy, credit shall be given for the time the person was covered under the group policy.

L.(1) Subject to any provision and condition of this Section, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing major medical coverage under a plan providing substantially similar benefits to those offered in R.S. 22:240(A) through (E). If the benefit levels required in R.S. 22:240(A) through (E) exceed the benefit levels provided under the prior group insurance policy, the converted policy may offer benefits which are substantially similar to those provided under the prior group policy.

(2) The converted policy shall include coverage from birth for a newborn if the converted policy includes dependent coverage. The converted policyholder may add coverage for a newborn from birth to a policy without dependent coverage by paying the additional premium and notifying the insurer within thirty-one days of the birth of the newborn. This Paragraph shall only apply to the biological child of the policyholder.

M. An insurer may, at its option, also offer alternative plans for group health and accident conversion in addition to the converted policy required by this Section.

N. The conversion privilege provided in this Section shall also be available to any of the following:

(1) To the surviving spouse, if any, at the death of the employee or member, with respect to the spouse and the children whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, otherwise to each surviving child whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, or, if the group policy provides for continuation of coverage for the dependent following the death of the employee or member.

(2) To the spouse of the employee or member upon termination of coverage of the spouse, if the employee or member remains insured under the group policy, by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, with respect to the spouse and the children whose coverages under the group policy terminate at the same time.

(3) To a minor solely with respect to himself upon termination of coverage by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, if the conversion privilege is not otherwise provided in this Subsection with respect to such termination.

O. If the benefit levels required in this Section exceed the benefit levels provided under the prior group policy, the converted policy may offer benefits which are substantially similar to those provided under the prior group policy.

P. Any insurer of health and accident insurance may elect to provide group health and accident insurance coverage instead of issuing an individual converted policy.

Q. A notification of the right to a converted policy shall be included in each certificate of coverage for health and accident insurance.

R. This Section may not require conversion on termination of eligibility for a policy or contract that provides benefits for specified diseases or for accidental injuries only, or to disability income, Medicare supplement, hospital indemnity, limited benefit, nonconventional, or excess insurance policies.
