"(h)(i) To hold a franchised dealer liable for any sums determined to be owed to a manufacturer, distributor, wholesaler, distributor branch, or factory branch by virtue of an audit of the books of such franchised dealer, when said sums owed are a result of transactions which occurred more than two years prior to the commencement date of such an audit, unless such sums are owed as a result of fraudulent practices of such franchise dealers. Provided however, a dealer shall not be held liable by virtue of an audit for failure to retain parts for a period in excess of six months. Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, warranty and sales incentive audits of dealer records may be conducted by the manufacturer, distributor, distributor branch, or factory branch. Any audit for warranty parts or service compensation shall be for the twelve-month period immediately following the date of the payment of the claim by the manufacturer or distributor. However, a dealer shall not be held liable by virtue of an audit for failure to retain parts for a period in excess of six months. Any audit for sales incentives, service incentives, rebates, or other forms of incentive compensation shall only be for the eighteen-month period immediately following the date of the payment of the claim by the manufacturer or distributor.

(ii) No claim which has been approved and paid may be charged back to the dealer unless it can be shown that the claim was false or fraudulent, that the repairs were not properly made or were unnecessary to correct the defective condition under generally accepted standards of workmanship or that the dealer failed to reasonably substantiate the repair in accordance with reasonable written requirements of the manufacturer or distributor, if the dealer has been notified of the requirements prior to the time the claim arose and if the requirements were in effect at the time the claim arose.

(iii) A manufacturer or distributor shall not deny a claim solely based on a motor vehicle dealer's incidental failure to comply with a specific claim processing requirement that results in a clerical error or other administrative technicality.

(iv) Limitations on warranty parts or service compensation, sales incentive audits, rebates, or other forms of incentive compensation, chargebacks for warranty parts or service compensation, and service incentives and chargebacks for sales compensation only, shall not be effective in the case of intentionally false or fraudulent claims.
