"(b) Any person ~~who has made application for a truck stop facility prior to May 15, 1994, and who has entered into a written contract for construction of a new facility, has site work complete, has exterior walls and roof complete, has the building shell sealed to the exterior, has door and windows installed and complete, and has heating and air conditioning, plumbing, and electrical systems in operation by July 1, 1994, or who has entered into a reconstruction of an existing structure in which over one hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of purchase price, has been expended for actual renovation or repairs by July 1, 1994, and whose application has not completely been processed by the division as a result of delays in processing caused by the prohibition on the expenditure of monies for the purposes of any activity related to the processing or issuance of any new license for video poker devices at truck stops contained in Act No. 4 and in Act No. 15 of the 1994 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature who was issued a license prior to August 15, 1997, for a qualified truck stop facility which is located within a parish which voted to discontinue the operation of video draw poker devices in the election authorized by R.S. 18:1300.21, may transfer his license to a comparable truck stop facility if the comparable truck stop facility is located in an adjacent parish and within fifty miles of the facility for which he was issued a license prior to August 15, 1997. The person~~ shall not be required to have fuel sales reports or verifiable fuel tickets at the comparable facility to complete their application nor shall such person be required to meet the requirement for the sales of a minimum number of gallons of fuel otherwise required by this Part until January 1, 1996, provided the division issues such person a license no later than September 1, 1994. Chapter for the ninety days immediately prior to licensing. However, all requirements other than such minimum fuel sales shall be required for issuance of a license. ~~Further, such a person, if licensed, shall meet the same requirements as provided in Paragraph (6) of this Subsection or within one hundred twenty days of licensure. A person issued a license pursuant to the provisions of this Subparagraph shall have ninety days from the date of issuance of that license to provide verifiable fuel tickets which indicate average fuel sales of sufficient gallons, as required by this Chapter. Failure of the licensee to supply verifiable fuel tickets indicating average fuel sales of sufficient gallons shall result in revocation of that license.~~"
