F. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection D of this Section, if any person required to be found qualified or suitable pursuant to Subsection D of this Section fails to provide all or part of the documents or information required by the Louisiana Gaming Control Board or the division, and if, as a result, any person holding a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter is not or may no longer be qualified or suitable, the board shall issue, under penalty of revocation of the license, a condition naming the person who failed to provide all or part of the documents or information required by the board or the division, and declaring that such person may not:

(1) Receive dividends or interest on securities of a corporation holding a license, if the person has or controls directly or indirectly more than a five percent ownership, income, or profit interest in such corporation; or

(2) Exercise directly, or through a trustee or nominee, a right conferred by securities of a corporation holding a license, if the person has or controls directly or indirectly more than a five percent ownership, income, or profit interest in such corporation; or

(3) Receive remuneration or other economic benefit from any person holding a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter; or

(4) Exercise significant influence over the activities of a person holding a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter; or

(5) Continue owning or holding a security of a corporation holding a license if the person has or controls directly or indirectly more than a five percent ownership, income, or profit interest in such corporation.

G.(1) An institutional investor otherwise required to be found suitable or qualified pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto shall be presumed suitable or qualified upon submitting documentation sufficient to establish qualifications as an institutional investor as provided herein, and upon certifying that:

(a) It owns, holds or controls publicly traded securities issued by a licensee, permittee or holding, intermediate or parent company of a licensee or permittee in the ordinary course of business for investment purposes only.

(b) It does not exercise influence over the affairs of the issuer of such securities nor over any licensed or permitted subsidiary of the issuer of such securities.

(c) It does not intend to exercise influence over the affairs of the issuer of such securities, nor over any licensed or permitted subsidiary of the issuer of such securities, in the future, and that it agrees to notify the Board in writing within thirty days if such intent should change.

(2) The exercise of voting privileges with regard to publicly traded securities shall not be deemed to constitute the exercise of influence over the affairs of a licensee.

(3) This Section shall not be construed to preclude the Louisiana Gaming Control Board or the division from investigating the suitability or qualifications of an institutional investor should the Louisiana Gaming Control Board or division become aware of facts or information which may result in such institutional investor being found unsuitable or disqualified.
