AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 13, after "R.S. 38:2251(J)" insert "and I"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 4, between lines 7 and 8, insert the following:

"J. Each procurement officer, purchasing agent, or similar official of a parish who procures or purchases materials, supplies, or equipment under the provisions of this Chapter may purchase materials, supplies, or equipment which are parish products and which are equal in quality to other materials, supplies, or equipment, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The cost of the parish products does not exceed the cost of other materials, supplies, or equipment which are manufactured, processed, produced, or assembled outside the parish but within the state by more than five percent.

(2) The vendor of parish products agrees to sell the products at the same price as the lowest bid offered on such products.

(3) In cases where more than one bidder offers parish products which are within five percent of the lowest bid, the bidder offering the lowest bid on parish products is entitled to accept the price of the lowest bid made on such products.

(4) For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "parish products" shall mean those products produced within the parish purchasing or procuring such products."

Point of Order

Rep. Travis asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 5, between lines 15 and 16, insert the following:

"Section 5. R.S. 36:761(B) and (C) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 36:764(C), 768(D) through (I), 769(C)(3) and (4), (G), and (K) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

§761. Department of the Treasury; creation; composition; purposes and functions

B. The Department of the Treasury, through its offices and officers, shall be responsible for performing the functions of the state treasurer and the agencies transferred into this department in accordance with the provisions of this Title. The Department of the Treasury, through its offices and officers, also shall be responsible for assessing, evaluating, and collecting the consumer, producer, and any other state taxes specifically assigned by law to the department, and shall have authority generally for alcoholic beverage control and the regulation of charitable gaming.

C.(1) The Department of the Treasury shall be composed of the executive office of the state treasurer, the office of management and finance, the office of the State Bond Commission, the office of state depository control and investment, the office of tax administration, group I, the office of tax administration, group II, the office of tax administration, group III, the office of alcohol and tobacco control, the office of legal affairs, the office of charitable gaming, and such other offices as shall be created by law.

(2) Whenever the state treasurer determines that the administration of the functions of the department may be more efficiently performed by eliminating, merging, or consolidating existing offices or establishing new offices, he shall present a plan therefor to the legislature for its approval by statute. However, whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a specific tax from one office provided for in R.S. 36:768(D) through (I) to another such office.

§764. Powers and duties of state treasurer

* * *

C. The state treasurer and agents of the office of charitable gaming are authorized to have direct access, by means of computer interfacing, to criminal history records maintained by the office of state police, Department of Public Safety and Corrections, for the purpose of issuing, denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning a charitable gaming license or for any other action necessary with respect to a charitable gaming license.

§768. Offices; purposes and functions

D. The office of tax administration, group I, shall be responsible, in accordance with applicable laws and under the direction of the state treasurer, for the administration, and assessment of the individual income tax, sales taxes, the tax-return processing and post-processing operations, and the centralized tax assessment and collection functions for the taxes imposed by law in the state of Louisiana and matters related thereto. Whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a tax or other duty assigned by this Subsection to this office to another office within the department provided for by Subsections E through I of this Section.

E. The office of tax administration, group II, shall be responsible, in accordance with the applicable laws and under the direction of the state treasurer, for the administration and collection of corporation income and franchise taxes, excise taxes, and severance taxes imposed by law in the state of Louisiana and matters related thereto. In addition, the office of tax administration, group II, shall be responsible for the review of field audits and the research and technical functions of the Department of Revenue. Whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a tax or other duty assigned by this Subsection to this office to another office within the department provided for by Subsection D or Subsections F through I of this Section.

F. The office of tax administration, group III, shall be responsible in accordance with the applicable laws and under the direction of the state treasurer, for the supervision, direction, and control of the field-collection and field-audit functions in the headquarter's office and various district and regional offices of the Department of Revenue. Whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a tax or other duty assigned by this Subsection to this office to another office within the department provided for by Subsection D or E or Subsections G through I of this Section.

G. The office of alcohol and tobacco control shall perform in accordance with the applicable laws and under the direction of the state treasurer, the functions of the state relating to the regulation of the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state, including certification of persons eligible for the issuance and renewal of permits required by law for persons engaging in the business of dealing in beverages of high or low alcoholic content, and the administration of the law relating to alcoholic beverages and their sale. Whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a tax or other duty assigned by this Subsection to this office to another office within the department provided for by Subsections D through F or Subsection H or I of this Section.

H. The office of legal affairs shall be responsible, in accordance with the applicable laws and under the direction of the state treasurer, for providing legal consultation and representation in tax litigation matters before the state and federal courts and the Board of Tax Appeals, bankruptcy cases in the federal bankruptcy courts, and any matters related thereto. Whenever the state treasurer deems necessary, he may reassign the responsibility for the collection of a tax or other duty assigned by this Subsection to this office to another office within the department provided for by Subsections D through G or Subsection I of this Section.

I. The office of charitable gaming shall perform generally the functions of the state relating to the regulation of charitable gaming in the state, including the issuance and renewal of licenses required by law for organizations conducting games of chance pursuant to the Charitable Raffles, Bingo and Keno Licensing Law, for manufacturers or distributors of supplies or equipment for such games, and for commercial lessors of premises on which such games are conducted. The office shall be responsible for the administration of the law relating to charitable gaming.

§769. Transfer of boards, commissions, departments, and agencies to Department of Treasury

C. The following agencies, as defined by R.S. 36:3, are transferred to and hereafter shall be within the Department of the Treasury, as provided in R.S. 36:802:

(3) Public administrators for all parishes appointed pursuant to R.S. 9:1581 (R.S. 9:1581-1590; R.S. 9:1551-1552)

(4) The Louisiana Tax Free Shopping Commission (R.S. 51:1301 et seq.)

* * *

G. The powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities of the Department of Revenue (R.S. 47:1501-1690 and generally, Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950) previously abolished by Act 513 of the 1976 Regular Session and transferred to the Department of Revenue created by that Act are transferred to the state treasurer and hereafter shall be exercised and performed as provided in Part IV of Chapter 22 of this Title.

K. The Louisiana Tax Commission (R.S. 47:1831-1837; R.S. 47:1951-1998) is transferred to the Department of the Treasury and shall exercise and perform its powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities as provided for agencies transferred in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 36:801.

Section 6. R.S. 36:4(A)(9) and Chapter 10 of Title 36 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 36:451 through 459, are hereby repealed in their entirety.

Section 7. A. On July 1, 2000, the Department of Revenue and its offices shall be abolished and the powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities of the department, its officers, and its offices shall be transferred to the Department of the Treasury, its officers, and its offices, as provided in this Act. References in this Section to the departments shall include their officers and offices. All unfinished business, references in laws and documents, employees, property, obligations, and books and records of the Department of Revenue shall be transferred as provided in this Section. Any pending or unfinished business of the Department of Revenue shall be taken over and be completed by Department of the Treasury with the same power and authorization as that of the Department of Revenue, and the Department of the Treasury shall be the successor in every way to the Department of Revenue for the purpose of completing such business. Any reference in laws and documents to the Department of Revenue shall be deemed to apply to the Department of the Treasury. Any legal proceeding to which the Department of Revenue is a party and which is filed, initiated, or pending before any court on the effective date of this Section, and all documents involved in or affected by said legal proceeding, shall retain their effectiveness and shall be continued in the name of the Department of the Treasury. All further legal proceedings and documents in the continuation, disposition, and enforcement of said legal proceeding shall be in the name of the Department of the Treasury, and the Department of the Treasury shall be substituted for the Department of Revenue without necessity for amendment of any document. This Act shall not be construed so as to impair the contractual or other obligations of the Department of Revenue or of the state of Louisiana. All obligations of the Department of Revenue shall be the obligations of the Department of the Treasury. The Department of the Treasury shall be the successor in every way to the Department of Revenue, including all of the obligations and debts of the Department of Revenue. This Act shall not be construed or applied in any way which will prevent full compliance by the state, or any department, office, or agency thereof, with the requirements of any Act of the Congress of the United States or any regulation made thereunder by which federal aid or other federal assistance has been or hereafter is made available. All books, papers, records, money, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the Department of Revenue are hereby transferred to the Department of the Treasury. All employees heretofore engaged in the performance of duties of the Department of Revenue are hereby transferred to the Department of the Treasury to the extent the state treasurer deems necessary and shall, insofar as practicable and necessary, continue to perform the duties heretofore performed, subject to applicable state civil service laws, rules, and regulations. Subject to such laws, positions in the unclassified service shall remain in the unclassified service.

B. The provisions of Subsection A of this Section shall also include and apply to the powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities, programs and operations, employees, and property of entities previously abolished and transferred to the Department of Revenue, including but not limited to those of the office of alcoholic beverage control of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections transferred by Act No. 1188 of the 1995 Regular Session of the Legislature and the division of charitable gaming control, office of state police, Department of Public Safety and Corrections transferred by Act No. 568 of the 1999 Regular Session of the Legislature .

Section 8. The Louisiana State Law Institute shall make appropriate changes in references to the Department of Revenue, its officers, and its offices in the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 to the Department of the Treasury, its officers, and offices, to reflect the transfer of powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities as provided in this Act."

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 5, at the beginning of line 16, change "Section 5." to "Section 9."

Point of Order

Rep. Hammett asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.
