"§2050.4. Enforcement; adjudicatory hearing; public comment

* * *

E. A request for an adjudicatory hearing must be filed within thirty days after notice to the respondent of the compliance order or penalty assessment. Within thirty days after the filing of the request, the secretary shall notify the person requesting an adjudicatory hearing that the request has been granted or denied unless the secretary and the applicant have mutually agreed to enter into informal dispute resolution in accordance with Subsection H of this Section.

* * *

G. If the secretary does not grant the hearing within the time provided for in Subsection E, the applicant shall, within thirty days thereafter, be entitled to file an application for de novo review of the secretary's action in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

(1) If the secretary grants the hearing within the time provided for in Subsection E, the matter shall proceed pursuant to the applicable rules of the department and the Administrative Procedure Act.

(2) If the secretary denies the hearing within the time provided for in Subsection E, an applicant appealing the decision of the secretary shall, within thirty days from the date of notice of the denial, file an application for de novo review of the secretary's denial in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

(3) If within the time provided for in Subsection E, the secretary has not granted or denied the hearing, or if the secretary and the applicant have not mutually agreed, in writing, to engage in informal dispute resolution, then this inaction by the secretary shall be deemed to be a denial of the applicants request for hearing and the applicant seeking de novo review of the secretary's decision shall, within thirty days after the expiration of the time period provided in Subsection E, file an application for de novo review of the secretary's denial in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

H.(1) If the secretary and the applicant mutually agree to enter into informal dispute resolution, they shall execute a written agreement prior to the expiration of the time provided for in Subsection E. The secretary and the applicant shall mutually select, or may extend, the expiration date for conducting the informal dispute resolution, provided however that the time period does not exceed one year from the date the parties first execute a written agreement.

(2) All informal disputes that are resolved may be reduced to writing. Either party may withdraw from the resolution process by sending a written notice of withdrawal, certified mail, return receipt requested, to the other party. If the dispute is not resolved within the time period agreed upon, within the one-year maximum, or by the date of the withdrawal of either party, the secretary shall, within thirty days, notify the person requesting an adjudicatory hearing that the request has been granted or denied.
