"The projected impact areas and recommendations relative to leases located in those projected impact areas shall be presented by the Department of Natural Resources to the Oyster Task Force by August fifteenth each year. Final recommendations shall be given to the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries and the Oyster Task Force prior to September thirtieth of each year.

(2)(a) The Oyster Task Force may request review by the House and Senate committees on Natural Resources of the final recommendations presented by the Department of Natural Resources under the provisions of this Section. The request for review shall be submitted by the task force, in writing, to the committees no later than October fifth with a copy of the request forwarded by the task force to the Department of Natural Resources. Failure of the task force to submit a request for review in writing prior to the fifth of October shall be interpreted as acceptance of the final recommendations of the Department of Natural Resources.

(b) A request from the Oyster Task Force may be for review of all of the final recommendations or of specific individual recommendations which shall be delineated in the request for review submitted by the task force. Any recommendation which is not included in a timely request by the task force for review by the legislative committees shall be deemed to be final and the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries may implement those recommendations.

(c) If a timely request for review has been submitted, the committees shall meet prior to October thirtieth to review the recommendations which were delineated in the request for review. The committees may vote to approve the recommendations, disapprove the recommendations, or suggest changes to the recommendations. Failure to conduct a hearing or to make a determination relative to a recommendation by October thirtieth shall be interpreted to mean approval of that recommendation. For any recommendation which is disapproved or for which changes are suggested by either or both committees prior to October thirtieth, the Department of Natural Resources shall present to the Oyster Task Force and the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, no later than November fifth, a revised final recommendation which reflects the action taken by the legislative commitees.

the bill or resolution at any time prior to prefilling or introduction. In determining whether an actuarial note should be requested, due consideration shall be given to the recommendation of the staff of the house in which the author is a member.

(4) In addition, at prefilling or introduction, the chief clerical officer may request an actuarial note, and the chairman of the committee to which such bill or resolution is referred may request an actuarial note immediately upon referral of the bill or resolution.

* * *

E. Prior to the prefilling or introduction, the subject matter of bills or resolutions submitted to the legislative auditor for preparation of the required information for said actuarial notes shall be kept in strict confidence, and no information relating thereto or relating to the fiscal or actuarial effect of any such measure bill or resolution shall be disclosed by the legislative auditor or any of his employees without its consideration, by any committee of either house of the legislature, except to the author or authors of the bill or resolution, the chief clerical officer and the staff of the house in which the author serves, and the legislative fiscal officer and his staff, listed therein at the time of receipt thereof by the legislative auditor. However, copies of the notes may be furnished to the staff and to the chairman of the retirement committee of the house of origin of the bills or resolutions, all of whom shall be subject to the provisions of this Paragraph. After prefiling or introduction, copies of the actuarial note on any bill or resolution shall be furnished to the author, the chief clerical officer of the house in which the author is a member, and the committee to which the bill or resolution is referred.

"Section 1. R.S. 14:143 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§143. Preemption of state law; exceptions

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section, no governing authority of a political subdivision shall enact an ordinance defining as an offense conduct that is defined and punishable as a felony under state law.

B. A governing authority of a political subdivision may enact an ordinance defining as an offense conduct that is defined and punishable as a felony under state law if the ordinance is comparable to one of the crimes defined by state law and listed in Subsection C of this Section. No ordinance shall define as an offense conduct that is defined and punishable as a felony under any other state law. The ordinance shall comply with the provisions of Subsection D of this Section. A conviction under an ordinance which complies with the provisions of this Section may be used as a predicate conviction in prosecutions under state law.

C. The offense defined in the ordinance shall be comparable to one of the following state laws:

(1) R.S. 14:63 (criminal trespass).

(2) R.S. 14:67(B)(3) (theft when the misappropriation or taking amounts to less than a value of three hundred dollars).

(3) R.S. 14:67.2(B)(3) (theft of animals when the misappropriation or taking amounts to less than a value of one hundred dollars).

(4) R.S. 14:67.3 (unauthorized use of "access card" as theft).

(5) R.S. 14:67.4 (theft of domesticated fish from fish farm).

(6) R.S. 14:67.5 (theft of crawfish).

(7) R.S. 14:67.6(C)(1) (first offense of theft of utility service).

(8) R.S. 14:67.10(B)(3) (theft of goods when the misappropriation or taking amounts to less than a value of three hundred dollars).

(10) R.S. 14:67.13(B)(3) (theft of an alligator when the misappropriation or taking amounts to less than a value of one hundred dollars).

(11) R.S. 14:69(B)(3) (illegal possession of stolen things when the value of the stolen things is less than three hundred dollars).

(12) R.S. 14:82(B)(1) (prostitution).

(13) R.S. 14:93.2.1 (child desertion).

(14) R.S. 14:222.1 (unauthorized interception of cable television services).

(15) R.S. 14:285(C) (improper telephone communications).

D. An ordinance adopted under the provisions of this Section shall comply with the following provisions:

(1) The ordinance shall incorporate the standards, elements, and sentences of the comparable offense under state law.

(2) The ordinance shall require the initiation and prosecution of alleged violations of the ordinance to be conducted in a manner which is consistent with the initiation and prosecution of the comparable offense under state law.

(3) The ordinance shall require the initiation and prosecution of alleged violations of the ordinance to comply with all requirements of the United States Constitution and related jurisprudence, all requirements of the Louisiana Constitution and related jurisprudence, and any other requirement that must be satisfied in order for a conviction under the ordinance to be used as a predicate conviction in prosecutions under state law.

(4) The ordinance shall provide that prosecutions of violations of the ordinance shall be brought only in a court which complies with the definition of a court in Code of Criminal Procedure Article 931.

(5) The ordinance shall provide that each prosecution under the ordinance, including a prosecution that results in a trial on the merits, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere, shall comply with the provisions of this Subsection.

E. The provisions of this Section shall not repeal, supersede, or limit the provisions of R.S. 13:1894.1.
