AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 4, between lines 7 and 8, insert the following:

"SUBPART I. ADDITIONAL DOMAIN NAME PROTECTION

§300.21. Prohibited activities; exceptions

A. In addition to the activities prohibited by R.S. 51:300.12(A), no person shall register a domain name that consists of the name of another living person or an alias or nickname by which such person is commonly known, or a name substantially and confusingly similar to such name, without the person's consent.

B. Nothing in this Subpart shall prohibit the registration of a domain name as provided for in R.S. 51:300.12(C).

C. No domain name registrar, domain name registry, or any other domain name registration authority shall be subject to any penalties or liable for any damages under this Subpart for the registration or maintenance of a domain name for another absent a showing of bad faith intent to register the domain name without the consent of the person whose domain name has been taken.

§300.22. Violations; private actions

A. A violation of this Subpart shall be a deceptive and unfair trade practice in the same manner provided for in R.S. 51:300.13(A).

B. In addition to the attorney general's right to bring an action for injunctive relief, an aggrieved person may also bring such action, and if a court awards injunctive relief, it may order the forfeiture or cancellation of the domain name or the transfer of the domain name to the aggrieved person.

C. The court may award costs to the attorney general or other law enforcement authority in the same manner provided for in R.S. 51:300.13(D).

D. (1) Additionally, no person shall attempt to resell or resell the domain name that consists of the name of another living person or an alias or nickname by which such person is commonly known, or a name substantially and confusingly similar to such name, without the person's consent, for a price in excess of the registration cost paid by the original registrant.

(2) Nothing in this Subpart shall prohibit the transfer by the original registrant of a domain name that is the name of another living person or an alias or nickname by which such person is commonly known, or is substantially or confusingly similar to such name, to the person whose name has been registered as long as the cost of the transfer does not exceed the registration cost paid by the original registrant."

Rep. Cazayoux sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Cazayoux to Engrossed House Bill No. 1474 by Representative Clarkson

On page 2, at the end of line 2, add:

"In the event a health care provider has accepted an assignment of health insurance benefits from any insured, beneficiary, subscriber, or enrollee and the insurer disputes a charge on the basis that the charge exceeds the usual and customary charge for the service rendered, then the health care provider shall not bill the balance of the charge to the insured, beneficiary, subscriber, or enrollee and the provider and the insurer shall resolve the dispute taking into account all circumstances surrounding the provision of the service."

On motion of Rep. Cazayoux, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Clarkson moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
