On page 2, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

"§3091. Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program; creation; purpose; legislative intent

A. In order to help make education affordable and accessible to all citizens of Louisiana, to assist in the maintenance of state institutions of postsecondary education by helping to provide a more stable financial base to these institutions, to provide the citizens of Louisiana with financing assistance for education and protection against rising tuition costs, to encourage saving to enhance the ability of citizens to obtain access to institutions of postsecondary education, to encourage academic excellence, to promote a well educated and financially secure population to the ultimate benefit of all citizens of the state, and to encourage a recognition that financing an education is an investment in the future, there is hereby created the Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program which may hereafter be shall consist of the education savings program, referred to as the "START Program and the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program which shall consist of a higher education student loan program. The program shall consist of the establishment of: provide for the education savings accounts for the routine savings by individuals, groups, or organizations and provisions for the routine deposit of funds to cover for the future educational costs of a designated beneficiary or a group of beneficiaries and for educational loans to be made to students who are residents of Louisiana or who are attending school in this state.

D. It is the intention of the legislature that the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program may compete for some or all of any allocation made by the governor for qualified student loan bonds, as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code Section 146(b), from the state's bond volume cap for private activity bonds, as determined under the provisions of United States Internal Revenue Code Section 146.

§3092. Definitions

A. For the purposes of the provisions of this Chapter related to the START Program, the following words, terms, and phrases shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

B. For the purposes of the provisions of this Chapter related to the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program, the following words, terms, and phrases shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Bond" or "note" means any bond or note authorized to be issued by the authority under this Chapter, and may consist of a bond, note or debt obligation evidencing an obligation to repay borrowed money and payable solely from revenues and other money of the authority pledged for repayment.

(2) "Eligible borrower" means a person, or parent of a person, who is eligible to borrow under the Federal Family Education Loan Program and the rules and regulations of the Louisiana Student Financial Assistance Commission.

(3) "Eligible school" means a postsecondary institution of higher education or a vocational school declared eligible by the United States Department of Education to participate in the Federal Family Education Loan Program and which qualifies under the rules and regulations of the Louisiana Student Financial Assistance Commission.

(4) "Eligible lender" means any person, corporation, agency, company or other legal entity qualified to participate as a lender in the Federal Family Education Loan Program and qualified as such under the rules and regulations of the Louisiana Student Financial Assistance Commission.

(5) "Higher Education Act" means the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended by the Higher Education Amendments of 1998, and as may be further amended from time to time, codified as Title 20, United States Code, Sections 1001 et seq.

(6) "Student loan" means a loan qualifying for a guarantee under the Federal Family Education Loan Program made to an eligible borrower.

§3093. Louisiana Tuition Trust Authority; creation; powers

(5). The executive director of the office of student financial assistance shall serve as the executive director of the authority in support of the programs authorized under this Chapter. The executive director shall administer, manage, and direct the affairs and business of the authority, subject to the policies, control, direction and bylaws of the authority. The office of student financial assistance shall provide technical, clerical, and administrative assistance to the authority, together with necessary office space and personnel, and shall assist the authority in all ways by the performance of any and all actions which may be useful or beneficial to the authority in the performance of its responsibilities under this Chapter. The executive director shall ensure that the functions of the Louisiana Student Financial Assistance Commission related to the guarantee of student loans under the Federal Family Education Loan Program are separate and apart from the functions of the authority in regard to loans made to eligible students which may be guaranteed under the Federal Family Education Loan Program. The duties, responsibilities, funds, liabilities, and expenses of the authority in regard to the Higher Education Loan Program shall be maintained wholly separate and apart from other duties, responsibilities, funds, liabilities, and expenses of the authority. Members of the authority or employees of the office of student financial assistance executing the notes, bonds, or other obligations of the authority are not personally liable for the repayment of the note, bond, or other obligation or subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of its issuance or nonissuance.

E. In regard to its responsibilities under the Higher Education Loan Program, the authority shall have all of the powers necessary to effectively and efficiently carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Chapter, including, but without limitation, the following powers:

(1) Make or participate in making a student loan to an eligible borrower, including refinancing or consolidating obligations previously incurred by an eligible borrower and participating in a loan to an eligible borrower with other eligible lenders.

(2) Acquire, purchase, make commitments to purchase, take assignments of or participate in the purchase of a student loan from an eligible lender.

(3) Sell or participate in the sale of insured student loans.

(4) Collect and pay reasonable fees and charges in connection with making, purchasing, and servicing or causing to be made, purchased, or serviced student loans by the authority, including payment to the office of student financial assistance for services performed for the authority related to the making of student loans.

(5) Procure insurance in respect of all student loans made or purchased by the authority.

(6) Consent whenever it deems it necessary or desirable in the fulfillment of its responsibilities under the Higher Education Loan Program or the modification of the rate of interest, time of payment of any installment of principal or interest or any other terms of any student loan to which the authority is a party; provided, that no such consent shall be made or given if the effect of the same would be to obviate insurance coverage in respect of any student loan.

(7) Include in any borrowing or bond issuance such amounts as may be deemed necessary by the authority to pay financing charges, interest on the obligations for a reasonable period, consulting, advisory and legal fees, and such other expenses as are necessary or incident to any such borrowing.

(8) Make and publish rules and regulations respecting its lending programs and such other rules and regulations as are necessary or incident to any such borrowing.

(9) Make, execute, and effectuate any and all agreements or other documents with any federal or state agency or any person, corporation, association, partnership, or other organization or entity necessary to accomplish the purpose of this Chapter.

(10) Accept appropriations, loans, grants, revenue sharing, devises, gifts, bequests and federal grants, and any other aid from any source whatsoever and to agree to, and to comply with, conditions incident thereto.

(11) Sue and be sued in its own name.

(12) Employ fiscal consultants, attorneys, counselors, and such other consultants and employees as may be required in the judgment of the authority and to fix and pay their compensation.

(13) Borrow money and issue bonds and notes and provide for the rights of bondholders and to secure the bonds by assignment, pledge, or subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of its issuance or nonissuance.

(14) Service and collect student loans for other lenders, holders, and educational institutions.

(15) Make and provide for the issuance of refunding obligations for the purpose of refunding any outstanding obligations which have been issued under the provisions of this Chapter and enter into such obligations, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such obligations. Refunding obligations may be sold or exchanged for outstanding obligations issued under this Chapter and, if sold, the proceeds thereof may be applied, in addition to any other authorized purposes, to the purchase, redemption or payment of such outstanding obligations.

(16) Establish in respect to any bonds, notes or other obligations issued for the purposes of the Higher Education Loan Program such reserve funds or replacement funds as the authority may determine are required for the purposes of the program.

§3092.1. Status of obligations issued by the Louisiana Tuition Trust Authority and disposition of proceeds

A. A bond, note or other obligation issued under the provisions of this Chapter shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability or obligation of the state or a pledge of the full faith and credit of the state, but shall be payable solely from the revenues or assets of the authority. Each bond, note or other obligation issued under this Chapter shall contain on its face thereof a statement to the effect that the authority shall not be obligated to pay the same nor the interest thereof except from the revenues or assets pledged therefor and that neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such obligation.

B. Proceeds from any bond, note or other obligation of the authority issued for purposes of the Higher Education Loan Program may only be used for the funding of student loans, the payment of interest, the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, and other expenditures of the authority necessary to carry out the purpose of the program and the powers of the authority granted in this Chapter. Any portion of such proceeds in excess of the amount required to be expended as provided in this Subsection shall be deposited into a separate Higher Education Loan Program account in the Louisiana Education Tuition and Savings Fund provided for in R.S. 17:3129.4(C).

C. Bonds issued by the authority shall be issued in accordance with and subject to the rules and regulations of the Louisiana Bond Commission.

D. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all moneys received pursuant to the authority of this Chapter shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this Chapter. The resolution authorizing any obligations or the trust agreement securing the same may provide that any of such moneys may be temporarily invested pending the disbursement thereof and shall provide that any officer with whom, or any bank or trust company with which, such moneys shall be deposited shall act as trustee of such moneys and shall hold and apply the same for the purposes hereof, subject to such regulations as this Chapter and such resolution or trust agreement may provide.

E. Any holder of a bond, note or other obligation issued under the provisions of this Chapter or any coupons appertaining thereto, and the trustee under any trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of such obligations, except as the rights herein given may be restricted by such trust agreement or resolution, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the state or granted hereunder or under such trust agreement or resolution or under any other contract executed by the authority pursuant to this Chapter or by such trust agreement or resolution to be performed by the authority or by any officer thereof.

F. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law or any recitals in any obligations issued under the provisions of this Chapter, all bonds, notes or other obligations issued pursuant hereto, and interest coupons appertaining thereto shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments under the laws of this state, subject only to any applicable provisions for registration.

G. Bonds, notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this Chapter are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such obligations are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes or obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

H. No member of the authority or other officer or any officer or employee of the office of student financial assistance shall be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of his execution of any obligation or the issuance of any document in furtherance thereof.

I. The bonds issued under the provisions of the Higher Education Loan Program and the interest earned thereon are exempt from taxation in this state.

§3129.4. Louisiana Education Tuition and Savings Plan and Fund

C. (1) There shall be established in the state treasury as a special permanent fund the Louisiana Education Tuition and Savings Fund, hereinafter referred to as the “Tuition and Savings Fund”. The fund created by this Section is hereby renamed, subject to the requirements of Article VII, Section 9(B) of the constitution relative to the Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program established in Chapter 22-A of Title 17 of the Louisiana Revised Civil Code, and shall be known as the “Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program Account. All moneys in the Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program Account may be withdrawn by the Louisiana Tuition Trust Authority for purposes provided by law for the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program, subject to appropriation by the legislature. All revenues and interest earned, or generated pursuant to programs of the Louisiana Education Tuition and Savings Plan and Fund, the Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program, and the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program shall be credited to their respective fund accounts or sub-accounts. The moneys in this fund shall be used solely to finance the permitted educational benefits provided by the respective programs. All unexpended and unencumbered monies in fund accounts and their respective sub-accounts at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in such fund accounts or sub-accounts and be available for appropriation in the next fiscal year. The moneys in the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer in accordance with state law and as provided for by program rules, regulations, and guidelines, and interest earned on the investment of these moneys shall be credited to the respective fund accounts or sub-accounts, following compliance with the requirements of Article VII, Section 9(B) of the constitution relative to the Bond Security and Redemption Fund. However, principal moneys generated pursuant to programs of the Louisiana Education Tuition and Savings Plan and Fund, and the Louisiana Student Tuition Assistance and Revenue Trust Program, and the Louisiana Higher Education Loan Program shall be credited to their respective fund accounts or sub-accounts, following compliance with the requirements of Article VII, Section 9(B) of the constitution.

"Section 2. Accountability Provisions.  (A) The legislature does hereby acknowledge that the primary legislative intent in the passage of the Act which originated as House Bill No. 1393 of the 2001 Regular Session of the Legislature is that the actuarial costs of implementing the Act shall be funded solely from funds contained in the "employee experience account" of the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System and that no state general funds shall be used for funding the actuarial costs of implementing the Act.

(B) In furtherance of the legislative intent as expressed in this Section, the Public Retirement Systems' Actuarial Committee shall report on an annual basis all of the following information with regard to implementing the Act which originated as House Bill No. 1393 of the 2001 Regular Session of the Legislature:

(1) Whether all funds that are being used to fund the Act are being debited from the Employee Experience Account.

(2)(a) Whether the employer contribution rate which is set forth in the actuarial valuation for the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System, as the valuation is being considered for each upcoming plan year, contains any state general funds that are being used for the purpose of funding the Act.

(b) If any state general funds are being used to fund the Act, then the report shall set forth, as a separate line item, the total amount of such funds being used for that purpose.

(3) Whether it is reasonably foreseeable that state general funds will be necessary to fund the Act as stated annually but applicable to rolling five-year increments."

The panel shall have the duty to evaluate the risk of danger to society which each person who has been convicted of a non-violent crime not defined or enumerated as a crime of violence in R.S. 14:2(13), and who is confined in a prison facility of any kind, may present if released from confinement. However, the panel shall not evaluate the risk of danger to society presented by:

1. A person convicted of a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:540 et seq. when the victim is under the age of eighteen at the time of commission of the offense.

2. A person convicted of a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law except for any of the following:
   a. Possession as defined in R.S. 40:966(C), 967(C), 968(C), 969(C) or 970(C).
   b. Distribution or possession with the intent to distribute cocaine where the offense of conviction involves less than twenty-eight grams of cocaine.
   c. Distribution or possession with the intent to distribute marijuana where the offense of conviction involves less than one pound of marijuana.

3. A person sentenced as a habitual offender under R.S. 15:529.1 where one or more of the crimes for which the person was convicted and sentenced under R.S. 15:529.1 is a crime of violence defined or enumerated in R.S. 14:2(13)."

Respectfully submitted,
Senator Donald R. Cravins
Senator John Hinkel
Senator Charles D. Jones
Representative Emile "Peppi" Bruneau

(3) For purposes of proving intoxication, the employer may avail himself of the following presumptions:

(b) If there was, at the time of the accident, in excess of 0.05 percent but less than 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the employee's blood, such fact shall not give rise to any presumption that the employee was or was not intoxicated, but such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the employee was intoxicated.

(c) If there was, at the time of the accident, 0.08 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the employee's blood, it shall be presumed that the employee was intoxicated.

Section 3. R.S. 29:211(2) is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§211. Article 111. Drunken or reckless driving

Any person subject to this code who operates any motor vehicle, aircraft, watercraft, vessel, or other means of conveyance when:

(2) The operator's blood alcohol concentration is 0.08 percent or more by weight based on grams of alcohol per one hundred cubic centimeters of blood; or

§378.2. Ignition interlock devices; condition of probation for certain DWI offenders; restricted license

A. (2)(a) Any person who has had his driver's license suspended, revoked, or canceled under any of the following conditions, shall, upon proof to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections that his motor vehicle has been equipped with a functioning ignition interlock device as provided in this Section, be issued a restricted driver's license:

(iv) For submitting to a chemical test to determine the alcohol content of blood where the test results showed over 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the blood, or where the results showed under 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the blood but the person was nevertheless convicted for a first or second offense of a law or ordinance which prohibits operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

§661. Operating a vehicle under the influence of alcoholic beverages or illegal substance or controlled dangerous substances; implied consent to chemical tests; administering of test and presumptions; effect of refusal to submit to tests; informing person of consequences of submission or refusal and his rights; furnishing information to person tested

C.(1) When a law enforcement officer requests that a person submit to a chemical test as provided for above, he shall first read to the person a standardized form approved by the Department of Public Safety and Corrections. The department is authorized to use such language in the form as it, in its sole discretion, deems proper, provided that the form does inform the person of the following:

(c) That his driving privileges can be suspended if he submits to the chemical test and such test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above or, if he is under the age of twenty-one years, a blood alcohol level of 0.02 percent or above.

§662. Administering chemical tests; use of results as evidence

A. The chemical test or tests as provided for by this Part shall be subject to the following rules and shall be administered as provided for hereafter:

(1) Upon the trial of any criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages the amount of alcohol in the person's blood at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, breath, or other bodily substance shall give rise to the following presumptions:

(b) Except as provided in Subparagraph (d), if the person had a blood alcohol concentration at that time in excess of 0.05 percent but less than 0.08 percent by weight, such fact shall not give rise to any presumption that the person was or was not under the influence of alcoholic beverages, but such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of alcoholic beverages.
percent or above by weight, or, if the person either refuses to submit to an approved chemical test for intoxication, or submits to such test and such test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above by weight, the following procedures shall apply:

§670. Test results for persons under the age of twenty-one; exclusion from official driving record

The submission to a chemical test by any person under the age of twenty-one which indicates a blood alcohol level of at least 0.02 but less than 0.08 percent shall not be included on his official driving record. However, this provision shall not prohibit the use of those results for administrative purposes or for obtaining a conviction, or the use of a conviction obtained based on those results for any purpose allowed by law.

§853. Commissioner to furnish operating records; other information; fees; withdrawal of forms or information

A. (1)

(c) The operating record of a person shall not include those arrests for a first or second violation of any ordinance or statute making criminal the driving of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages nor shall it include any record of any civil sanction imposed, including the suspension of a license, as a result of such an arrest when any of the following occurs:

(iv) The person submitted to an approved chemical test and the test resulted in a blood alcohol reading of 0.08 percent by weight, or of less than 0.02 percent by weight, if the person was under the age of twenty-one years on the date of the test, and the person is found not guilty.

§688. Procedure following revocation or denial of license; hearing; court review; review of final order; restricted licenses

A. Upon suspending the license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege of any person or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections shall immediately notify the person in writing and upon his request shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing based upon the department's records or other evidence admitted at the hearing, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as is provided in R.S. 32:414 for notification and hearings in the case of suspension of licenses, except that the scope of such a hearing for the purposes of this Part shall cover the following issues:

Section 5. This Act shall become effective on September 30, 2004; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on September 30, 2004, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later.

Section 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5 of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall become null and of no effect if and when Section 351 of P.L. 106-346 regarding the withholding of federal highway funds for failure to enact a 0.08 percent blood alcohol level is repealed or invalidated for any reason.

On motion of Rep. Gary Smith, the amendments were withdrawn.

For submitting to a chemical test to determine the alcohol content of blood where the test results showed over 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the blood, or where the results showed under 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the blood but the person was nevertheless convicted for a first or second offense of a law or ordinance which prohibits operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

§661. Operating a vehicle under the influence of alcoholic beverages or illegal substance or controlled dangerous substances; implied consent to chemical tests; administering of test and presumptions; effect of refusal to submit to tests; informing person of consequences of submission or refusal and his rights; furnishing information to person tested

C.(1) When a law enforcement officer requests that a person submit to a chemical test as provided for above, he shall first read to the person a standardized form approved by the Department of Public Safety and Corrections. The department is authorized to use such language in the form as it, in its sole discretion, deems proper, provided that the form does inform the person of the following:

(c) That his driving privileges can be suspended if he submits to the chemical test and such test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above or, if he is under the age of twenty-one years, a blood alcohol level of 0.02 percent or above.

§661.1. Operating a watercraft under the influence of alcoholic beverages or controlled dangerous substances; implied consent to chemical tests; administering of test and presumptions

C.(1) When a law enforcement officer requests that a person submit to a chemical test as provided for in this Section, he shall first read to the person a standardized form approved by the Department of Public Safety and Corrections. The department is authorized to use such language in the form as it, in its sole discretion, deems proper, provided that the form does inform the person of the following:

(c) That his driving privileges can be suspended if he submits to the chemical test and such test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above or, if he is under the age of twenty-one years, a blood alcohol level of 0.02 percent or above.

§662. Administering chemical tests; use of results as evidence

A. The chemical test or tests as provided for by this Part shall be subject to the following rules and shall be administered as provided for hereafter:

(1) Upon the trial of any criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages the amount of alcohol in the person’s blood at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, breath, or other bodily substance shall give rise to the following presumptions:

(b) Except as provided in Subparagraph (d), if the person had a blood alcohol concentration at that time in excess of 0.05 percent but less than 0.08 percent by weight, such fact shall not give rise to any presumption that the person was or was not under the influence of alcoholic beverages, but such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

(c) If the person had a blood alcohol concentration at that time of 0.08 percent or more by weight, it shall be presumed that the person was under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

§667. Seizure of license; circumstances; temporary license

A. When a law enforcement officer places a person under arrest for a violation of R.S. 14:98, R.S. 14:98.1, or a violation of a parish or municipal ordinance that prohibits operating a vehicle while intoxicated, and the person either refuses to submit to an approved chemical test for intoxication, or submits to such test and such test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or more by weight or, if the person is under the age of twenty-one years, a blood alcohol level of 0.02 percent or above by weight, the following procedures shall apply:

B. If such written request is not made by the end of the fifteen-day period, the person’s license shall be suspended as follows:

(1) If the person submitted to the test and the test results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above by weight, his driving privileges shall be suspended for ninety days from the date of suspension on first offense violation, without eligibility for a hardship license for the first thirty days, and for three hundred sixty-five days from the date of arrest and the test results show a blood alcohol level of less than 0.08 percent by weight, then no hearing shall be held and the license shall be returned without the payment of a reinstatement fee. If the person was under the age of twenty-one years on the date of arrest and the test results show a blood alcohol level of less than 0.08 percent by weight, then no hearing shall be held and the license shall be returned without the payment of a reinstatement fee.

§668. Procedure following revocation or denial of license; hearing; court review; review of final order; restricted licenses
A. Upon suspending the license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege of any person or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections shall immediately notify the person in writing and upon his request shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing based upon the department’s records or other evidence admitted at the hearing, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as is provided in R.S. 32:414 for notification and hearings in the case of suspension of licenses, except that the scope of such a hearing for the purposes of this Part shall cover the following issues:

(4) Whether he voluntarily submitted to an approved chemical test and whether the test resulted in a blood alcohol reading of 0.08 percent or above by weight, or of 0.02 percent or above if he was under the age of twenty-one years on the date of the test.

(b) No person who has refused a chemical test for intoxication is eligible for a restricted license for the first ninety days of the suspension. When a person submits to a chemical test and the results show a blood alcohol level of 0.08 percent or above by weight, or of 0.02 percent or above if the person was under the age of twenty-one years on the date of the test, he is not eligible for a restricted license for the first thirty days of the suspension.

§670. Test results for persons under the age of twenty-one; exclusion from official driving record

The submission to a chemical test by any person under the age of twenty-one which indicates a blood alcohol level of at least 0.02 but less than 0.08 percent shall not be included on his official driving record. However, this provision shall not prohibit the use of those results for administrative purposes or for obtaining a conviction, or the use of a conviction obtained based on those results for any purpose allowed by law.

§853. Commissioner to furnish operating records; other information; fees; withdrawal of forms or information

(c) The operating record of a person shall not include those arrests for a first or second violation of any ordinance or statute making criminal the driving of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages nor shall it include any record of any civil sanction imposed, including the suspension of a license, as a result of such an arrest when any of the following occurs:

(i) The person submitted to an approved chemical test and the test resulted in a blood alcohol reading of less than 0.08 percent by weight, or of less than 0.02 percent by weight, if the person was under the age of twenty-one years on the date of the test, and the person is found not guilty.

Section 5. This Act shall become effective on September 30, 2003; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on September 30, 2003, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later.

Section 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5 of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall become null and of no effect if and when Section 351 of P.L. 106-346 regarding the withholding of federal highway funds for failure to enact a 0.08 percent blood alcohol level is repealed or invalidated for any reason.
