(2). "Compact", as used in this Section includes an Indian gaming compact and any extension, renegotiation, or renewal of an Indian gaming compact.

B. Prior to any Indian gaming compact being executed by the governor between the state of Louisiana and a federally recognized Indian tribe, or to permitting the renewal of any such Indian gaming compact, the governor shall submit the compact to the legislature for approval or rejection. No Indian gaming compact shall be signed by the governor until it is approved by a majority vote of each house of the legislature.

C.(1) If a compact is submitted to the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House of Representatives no earlier than sixty days prior to a regular session or during a regular session at least sixty days prior to adjournment sine die, the legislature has until adjournment sine die of that session to approve or reject the compact with the adoption of a concurrent resolution by a majority vote of the elected members of each house. If the legislature does not adopt a concurrent resolution, the compact shall be considered rejected.

(2) If a compact is submitted to the president of the Senate and speaker of the House during a regular session less than sixty days prior to adjournment sine die of the session, and the legislature does not approve or reject the compact during the session, the legislature shall vote on the compact by mail ballot as provided herein.

(a) If the legislature is in session fifty days after the compact is received, the compact, committee report, if any, and the ballot shall be delivered to the members of the legislature by the secretary of the Senate and the clerk of the House of Representatives. The ballots shall be returned to the secretary and clerk within fifteen days of the date which the secretary and clerk certify as the date that the ballots were delivered to members to which delivery was possible. If the secretary or clerk is unable to deliver the compact, committee report, if any, and ballot to any member, then the secretary or clerk shall mail the compact, committee report, if any, and ballot on the same day, as provided in Subparagraph (b).

(b) If the legislature is not in session fifty days after the compact is received, the compact, committee report, if any, and the ballot shall be mailed to all members by the secretary and the clerk, being postmarked on the same day, by certified mail with return receipt requested, and shall be returned to the secretary and clerk within fifteen days after the postmarked date.

D.(1) When a ballot is required pursuant to Subparagraphs (C)(2)(a) or (b), the secretary and the clerk shall prepare a ballot.

(2) The ballot shall be uniform, identify the compact and provide a method to indicate whether the members approve or reject the proposal, and such other pertinent information as the secretary and clerk shall determine.

(3) If more than one compact is to be voted on, the ballot shall set forth each compact in such form as to enable each member to cast his vote separately approving or rejecting each compact.

(4) Each ballot also shall contain the name of the member to whom it is to be mailed and the member shall sign the ballot after casting his vote.

E. No ballot received by the secretary or the clerk after five o'clock p.m. on the fifteenth day after the date on which the ballots were delivered to the members or after the date on which the ballots were mailed, shall be valid or counted, but the day and time received shall be marked on each ballot received after such time and the ballot shall be marked "Invalid". However, prior to five o'clock p.m., on the fifteenth day when delivered to the members while in session or after the postmarked date if mailed to the members of the legislature, a member may withdraw his ballot or change his vote upon his written request.

F. For the purposes of this Section, an electronically transmitted ballot shall be sealed immediately upon receipt and its contents not disclosed until the day when all ballots are opened and tabulated.

G.(1) On the sixteenth day after the date on which the ballots were mailed, as provided herein, the secretary and clerk shall open and tabulate the vote in roll call order for each house. The secretary and clerk shall open such ballots unopened and shall not disclose the contents to any person until the day when such ballots are opened and tabulated. No ballot shall be deemed spoiled if inadvertently opened in processing or if received and sealed pursuant to Subsection F of this Section.

(2) The tabulation shall indicate by name those members who voted to approve the compact, those who voted to reject the compact, those who did not vote, those who did not return the ballot by the due date and time, and those whose ballots were invalid because not signed by the member. The secretary and clerk shall sign the tabulation sheet or sheets and cause a summary thereof to be transmitted to the respective presiding officers. Failure of a majority of the elected members of each house to reject the compact shall constitute approval of the compact.

H. If approved by the legislature and executed by the governor, the compact shall be submitted to the United States secretary of the interior for approval.

I. No compact, nor any extension, renegotiation, or renewal thereof, shall have a term that exceeds seven years.

J. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no gaming compact entered into prior to August 15, 2003, shall be extended, renewed, renegotiated, or executed by the governor, and no gaming compact may be entered into, on or after August 15, 2003, without compliance with the procedure set forth in this Section.

Section 2. R.S. 27:451, as enacted in this Act, shall supersede conflicting provisions of R.S. 27:15(B)(1) and 31(A)(1); R.S. 46:2302 and 2303, Act No. 888 of the 1990 Regular Session of the Legislature, and Act No. 817 of the 1993 Regular Session of the Legislature.

F. The form of the standard fire insurance policy of the state of Louisiana (with permission to substitute for the word "company" a more accurate descriptive term for the type of insurer) shall be as follows:

* * *

(2) SECOND PAGE OF STANDARD FIRE POLICY

Concealment, fraud -- This entire policy shall be void if, whether before or after a loss, the insured has willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof, or the interest of the insured therein, or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the insured relating thereto.

Uninsurable and excepted property -- This policy shall not cover accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidence of debt, money or securities; nor, unless specifically named hereon in writing, bullion or manuscripts.

Perils not included -- This company shall not be liable for loss by fire or other perils insured against in this policy caused, directly or indirectly, by:

(a) enemy attack by armed forces, including action taken by military, naval or air forces in resisting an actual or an immediately impending enemy attack; (b) invasion; (c) insurrection; (d) rebellion; (e) revolution; (f) civil war; (g) usurped power; (h) order of any civil authority except acts of destruction at the time of and for the purpose of preventing the spread of fire, provided that such fire did not originate from any of the perils excluded by this policy; (i) neglect of the insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property at and after a loss, or when the property is endangered by fire in neighboring premises; (j) nor shall this Company be liable for loss by theft.

Other insurance -- Other insurance may be prohibited or the amount of insurance may be limited by endorsement attached hereto.

Conditions suspending or restricting insurance. Unless otherwise provided in writing added hereto, this Company shall not be liable for loss occurring:

(a) While the hazard is increased by any means within the control or knowledge of the insured; or

(b) While a described building, whether intended for occupancy by owner or tenant, is vacant, or unoccupied beyond a period of sixty consecutive days; or
(c) As a result of explosion or riot, unless fire ensue, and in that event for loss by fire only.

Other perils or subjects -- Any other peril to be insured against or subject of insurance to be covered in this policy shall be by endorsement in writing hereon or added hereto.

Added provisions -- The extent of the application of insurance under this policy and of the contribution to be made by this Company in case of loss, and any other provision or agreement not inconsistent with the provisions of this policy, may be provided for in writing added hereto, but no provisions may be waived except such as by the terms of this policy is subject to change.

Waiver provisions -- No permission affecting this insurance shall exist, or waiver of any provision be valid unless granted herein or expressed in writing added hereto. No provision, stipulation, or forfeiture shall be held to be waived by any requirement or proceeding on the part of this Company relating to appraisal or to any examination provided for herein.

Cancellation of policy -- This policy shall be canceled at any time at the request of the insured, in which case this Company shall, upon demand and surrender of this policy, refund the excess of paid premium above the customary short rates for the expired time. This policy may be canceled at any time by this Company by giving to the insured a thirty days written notice of cancellation, or ten days written notice when cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, with or without tender of the excess paid premium above the pro rata premium for the expired time which excess, if not tendered, shall be refunded on demand. Notice of cancellation shall state that said excess premium, if not tendered, will be refunded on demand. Upon the written request of the named insured, the insurer shall provide to the insured in writing the reasons for cancellation of the policy. There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any insurer or its agents, employees, or representatives for any action taken by them to provide the reasons for cancellation as required by this Paragraph.

Mortgagee interest and obligations -- If loss hereunder is made payable in whole or in part, to a designated mortgagee not named herein as the insured, such interest in this policy may be canceled by delivering or mailing to such mortgagee a thirty days written notice of cancellation, or a ten days written notice of cancellation if cancellation is for nonpayment of premium.

If the insured fails to render proof of loss within sixty days thereafter and shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to appraisal and time of payment and of bringing suit. If this Company shall claim that no liability existed as to the mortgagee or owner, it shall, to the extent of payment of loss to the mortgagee, be subrogated to all the mortgagee's rights of recovery, but without impairing mortgagee's rights to sue; or it may pay off the mortgage debt and require an assignment thereof and of the mortgage. Other provisions relating to the interests and obligations of such mortgagee may be added hereto by agreement in writing.

Pro rata liability -- This Company shall not be liable for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole insurance covering the property against the peril involved, whether collectible or not.

Requirements in case loss occurs -- The insured shall give immediate written notice to this Company of any loss, protect the property from further damage, forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, put it in the best possible order, furnish a complete inventory of the destroyed, damaged, and undamaged property showing in detail quantities, costs, actual cash value, and amount of loss claimed; and within sixty days after loss, unless such time is extended in writing by this Company, the insured shall render to this Company a proof of loss, signed and sworn to by the insured, stating the knowledge and belief of the insured as to the following: the time and origin of the loss, the interest of the insured and of all others in the property, the actual cash value of each item thereof and the amount of loss thereto, all encumbrances thereon, all other contracts of insurance, whether valid or not, covering any of said property, any changes in the title, use, occupation, location, possession, or exposures of said property since the issuing of this policy, by whom and for what purpose any building herein described and the several parts thereof were occupied at the time of loss and whether or not it then stood on leased ground, and shall furnish a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies and, if required, verified plans and specifications of any building, fixtures, or machinery destroyed or damaged. The insured, as often as may be reasonably required shall exhibit to any person designated by this Company all that remains of any property herein described, and submit to examinations under oath by any person named by this Company, and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by this Company or its representatives, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made.

Appraisal -- In case the insured and this Company shall fail to agree as to the actual cash value or the amount of loss, then, on the written demand of either, each shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser and notify the other of the appraiser selected within twenty days of such demand. The appraisers shall first select a competent and disinterested umpire; and failing for fifteen days to agree upon such umpire, then on request of the insured or this Company such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the state in which the property covered is located. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating separately actual cash value and loss to each item; and failing to agree, shall submit their differences, only, to the umpire. An award in writing, so itemized, of any two when filed with this Company shall determine the amount of actual cash value and loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting him and the expenses of appraisal and umpire shall be paid by the parties equally.

Company's options -- It shall be optional with this Company to take all, or any part, of the property at the agreed or appraised value, and also to repair, rebuild, or replace the property destroyed or damaged with other of like kind and quality within a reasonable time, on giving notice of its intention so to do within thirty days after the receipt of the proof of loss herein required.

Abandonment -- There can be no abandonment to this Company of any property.

When loss payable -- The amount of loss for which this Company may be liable shall be payable thirty days after proof of loss, as herein provided, is received by this Company and ascertainment of the loss is made either by agreement between the insured and this Company expressed in writing or by filing with this Company of an award as herein provided.

Suit -- No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless all the requirements of this policy shall have been complied with, and unless commenced within twelve months next after the inception of the loss.

Subrogation -- This Company may require from the insured an assignment of all right of recovery against any party for loss to the extent that payment therefor is made by this Company.
H. For the purposes of commercial property and casualty insurance policies, the standard policy of fire insurance prescribed by this Part shall not cover loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by terrorism, unless an endorsement specifically authorizing coverage for loss or damage caused by terrorism is attached to the policy. Insurers issuing commercial property and casualty insurance policies against the peril of fire and other perils permitted under this Section are hereby authorized to add to the policy by endorsement or include within the policy statement that the policy does not cover such loss.

A. The separation of powers is a basic tenet of the Louisiana Constitution. The history of the Louisiana Legislature demonstrates the strong influence the governor has exercised in the selection of legislative officers and legislative committee officers, often even before he takes office. The legislature recognizes that the separation of powers is a firm policy of this state and finds that it is in the best interests of the people of Louisiana that the separation of powers be maintained, that the overriding influence of the governor in the leadership of the legislature be ended, and that this can be done only if the governor does not seek to influence the selection of such officers.

B. This Section shall be applicable to the governor, the governor-elect, and any candidate in the general election for governor.

C. No person to whom this Section is applicable as provided in Subsection B of this Section shall take any action to support the nomination, election, or appointment of any person to any of the following offices:

(1) Speaker of the House of Representatives.
(2) President of the Senate.
(3) Speaker pro tempore of the House of Representatives.
