"Q. (1) The legislature recognizes that it is essential to the operation of effective democratic government in this state that citizens have confidence in the legislative process and believes it is essential to promote citizen confidence that legislative decisions are independent and impartial and to that end finds that regular legislative sessions should be conducted without certain campaign contribution activity so as to prevent the appearance of undue influence on legislative decisionmaking by certain persons who may have a particular substantial economic interest in a matter being considered by the legislature.

(2) No legislator or any principal or subsidiary committee of a legislator shall accept and deposit a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds or accept and use any in-kind contribution, as defined in this Chapter, for his own campaign during a regular legislative session.

(3) If a legislator or any principal or subsidiary committee of a legislator receives a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds during a regular legislative session in violation of this Subsection, the legislator shall return such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds to the contributor within ten days after the receipt of such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds. Any contribution, loan, or transfer of funds so returned shall not be deemed to be accepted.

(4)(a) The provisions of this Subsection shall not prohibit an expenditure by a legislator for his own campaign or a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds by a legislator to his own political committee.

(b) The provisions of Paragraphs (O)(1), (2), and (3) of this Subsection shall not apply to any legislator who is a candidate for the office of United States senator; the office of United States representative; an office which is to be filled by an election which occurs during the regular legislative session during which the contribution, loan, or transfer of funds or in-kind contribution is accepted or within sixty days after such regular legislative session adjourns; or an office other than that of a member of the state legislature."

AMENDMENT NO. 5

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 2, line 12, after "Paragraphs" and before "(1)" change "(Q)" to "(R)"

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 2, delete lines 18 through 20 and insert the following:

"S. (1) The legislature recognizes that it is essential to the operation of effective democratic government in this state that citizens have confidence in the government and believes it is essential to promote citizen confidence that governmental decisions are independent and impartial and to that end finds that certain campaign contribution activity should be prohibited at certain times so as to prevent the appearance of undue influence on decisionmaking by certain persons who may have a particular substantial economic interest in a matter being considered by the legislature.

(2) No statewide elected official or public service commissioner or any principal or subsidiary committee of such an official or commissioner shall accept and deposit a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds or accept and use any in-kind contribution, as defined in this Chapter, for his own campaign during a regular legislative session.

(3) If a statewide elected official or public service commissioner or any principal or subsidiary committee of such an official or commissioner receives a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds during a regular legislative session in violation of this Subsection, such official or commissioner shall return such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds to the contributor within ten days after the receipt of such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds. Any contribution, loan, or transfer of funds so returned shall not be deemed to be accepted.

(4)(a) The provisions of this Subsection shall not prohibit an expenditure by a statewide elected official or public service commissioner for his own campaign or a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds by a statewide elected official or public service commissioner to his own political committee.

(b) The provisions of Paragraphs (S)(1), (2), and (3) of this Subsection shall not apply to any statewide elected official or public service commissioner who is a candidate for the office of United States senator; the office of United States representative; an office which is to be filled by an election which occurs during the regular legislative session during which the contribution, loan, or transfer of funds or in-kind contribution is accepted or within sixty days after such regular legislative session adjourns; or an office other than the office held by such official or commissioner.

(c) The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to the governor.

Section 2. R.S. 24:56 and 56.1 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§56. Prohibited conduct

A. No fundraising function shall be held during a regular legislative session for or by a legislator unless written notice of the function has been given to the board not less than thirty days prior to the function. If the deadline for the notice falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or other legal holiday, the notice required by this Subsection shall be extended until the first day after the Saturday, Sunday, or other legal holiday.

B. Unless the provisions of Subsection A of this Section and R.S. 24:56.1(B) are complied with, no lobbyist, for himself or his principal, shall offer or provide to a legislator or his principal campaign committee any campaign contribution or loan resulting from a fundraising function held during such a legislative session.

C. Unless the provisions of Subsection A of this Section and R.S. 24:56.1(B) are complied with, no legislator shall solicit or receive any campaign contribution or loan for himself or his principal campaign committee from a lobbyist or his principal resulting from a fundraising function held during such a legislative session.

D. For purposes of this Section "loan" shall be defined as in R.S. 18:1505.2(H)(6).

E. The provisions of Subsections A, B, and C of this Section and of R.S. 24:56.1(B) shall not apply to any contribution, loan, or transfer of funds prohibited by R.S. 18:1505.2(Q) and shall not be construed in a manner to permit acceptance of any contribution, loan, or transfer of funds prohibited by R.S. 18:1505.2(Q).

F. No state employee in his official capacity or on behalf of his employer shall lobby for or against any matter intended to have the effect of law pending before the legislature or any committee thereof. Nothing herein shall prohibit the dissemination of factual information relative to any such matter or the use of public meeting rooms or meeting facilities available to all citizens to lobby for or against any such matter.

§56.1. Fundraising functions

A. The provisions of R.S. 24:56(A), (B), and (C) shall not apply to a fundraising function conducted by or for a legislator during a session of the legislature called pursuant to Article III, Section 2(B) or (C) of the Constitution of Louisiana or held pursuant to Article III, Section 18(C) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

B. No fundraising function shall be held for or by a legislator during any session of the legislature convened pursuant to Article III, Section 2(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana unless notice of the function has been filed with the board ~~within~~ no later than two business days after the issuance of the proclamation stating the objects of the session."
