§2507.1. Judicial Expense Fund for the Traffic Court of New Orleans

A. There is hereby established the judicial expense fund for the Traffic Court of New Orleans, which shall be a special account for use in administration of the court. The judicial administrator shall deposit into the fund any monies specifically designated for such purpose. The judges of the court, en banc, shall have control over and administer the funds and all disbursements made therefrom. They shall cause to be conducted an annual audit of the fund and the books and accounts relating thereto, and shall file the same with the legislative auditor where it shall be available for public inspection.

B. The judicial expense fund may be used for any operating expense of the court, including salaries for court reporters, bailiffs, minute clerks, and other court personnel and is in addition to any and all other funds, salaries, expenses, or other monies that are provided, authorized, or established by law. No salary shall be paid from the judicial expense fund to any judges of the court."

§557. Additional benefits
A. Any person covered by this Subpart who becomes a member of the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System shall receive an additional benefit equal to one percent times the number of years of service as a judge or court officer times his average compensation.

B. Any person covered by this Subpart who has not severed employment on the effective date of this Subsection and who was eligible to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan on March 1, 1999, who entered the plan but who did not participate in the plan for the maximum time period allowed pursuant to this Chapter may elect to resume participation in the plan. The member shall notify the system on or before December 31, 2004, of his intention to resume participation and the date on which he would like to resume participation. For a time period not longer than the portion of the maximum participation period during which the member did not participate in the plan, and beginning on the date selected by the member, the system shall treat the member in the same manner as it treats any other participant in the plan. The rights, duties, and responsibilities of the system and of the member shall be governed by the provisions of this Chapter pertaining to the Deferred Retirement Option Plan. In no event shall the total of the time period the member originally participated in the plan and the time period during which the member resumes participation exceed the statutory maximum plan participation period."

"§231.6. Termination of eligibility; twenty-four-month limit; refusal of employment

A. A family shall be ineligible for FITAP benefits, including automatic eligibility for medical assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (Medicaid), if any one of the following applies:

(1) The parent has received FITAP for at least twenty-four months, whether consecutive or not, out of the previous sixty months after January 1, 1997.

(2) A work-eligible parent has declined or refused the opportunity for full-time employment as specified in the participant's Family Success Agreement or has not complied with required work activities as specified in the participant's Family Success Agreement.

B. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to a permanently incapacitated or disabled individual, as documented, or to such an individual in the recipient's household.

C. All work-eligible families receiving FITAP benefits will receive on-going intensive case management including monthly contact with those engaged in a work activity. The on-going intensive case management services will be provided to work-eligible families by the Department of Social Services and other TANF partner agencies, in accordance with R.S. 46:231.7, to develop and comply with Family Success Agreements. The Family Success Agreement is the mutually developed contract between a FITAP recipient, on behalf of their family, and the department that sets forth mutual and time-bound responsibilities, expectations, activities, and goals.
designed to transition a participant from welfare to self-sufficiency. The Family Success Agreement shall be reviewed every six months. Failure to comply with the Family Success Agreement shall result in sanctions imposed upon the family in accordance with R.S. 46:231.7.

D. The secretary of the department may promulgate rules and regulations providing exceptions to the time limitations of this Section in cases of hardship to the extent funds are available. In promulgating rules and regulations, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, the secretary shall address circumstances:

1. Where the individual has been actively seeking employment by engaging in appropriate job-seeking activities and required work activities as specified in the participant’s Family Success Agreement, but is unable to find employment maintains compliance with the STEP Family Success Agreement pursuant to R.S. 46:231.7.

2. Where factors relating to job availability may be unfavorable.

3. Where an individual loses his job as a result of factors not related to his job performance.

4. Where an individual is unemployed for up to one year will enable an individual to complete employment-related education or training, including workplace literacy, and is required as part of a Family Success Agreement, when an individual has received an assessment that indicates such activities will likely result in long-term success in the workforce.

D. E. Work-eligible participants nearing the twenty-four-month limit on cash assistance, or participants that are within six months of an expected transition from cash assistance, for reasons other than noncompliance with program requirements, or who have sustained unsubsidized employment for a period of more than three consecutive months, shall receive a Transition Assessment Plan, which will be developed in person to the extent possible, to assist in their transition from cash assistance. Such assessment shall include but not be limited to:

1. Short and long-term goals related to self-sufficiency.

2. On-going barriers to self-sufficiency.

3. Action planning to overcome barriers to self-sufficiency.

4. Information regarding on-going eligibility for supportive services such as child care, transportation, Medicaid, food stamps, Louisiana Children's Health Insurance Program, earned income tax credit, and other supportive services.

E. An initial Transition Assessment Plan shall be conducted not later than six months prior to the expiration of benefits, or after the receipt of an earned income disregard for three months, whichever occurs first. To the extent feasible, the development of a Transition Assessment Plan shall be developed in person. Participants nearing the expiration of their twenty-four-month limit on assistance shall receive written notification of their expiration of benefits that includes the months accumulated towards the twenty-four-month limit and the time remaining until reaching the twenty-four-month limit; the process by which they are to receive a Transition Assessment Plan and information regarding on-going eligibility for supportive services such as child care, transportation, Medicaid, food stamps, Louisiana Children's Health Insurance Program, or earned income tax credit. Participants shall receive notice no later than six months before the expiration of benefits and at regular intervals up to their twenty-fourth-month of eligibility.
