D.(1) * * * * * * * * *

(b) The assistant secretary for the office of environmental assessment or his designee shall make a written determination, based on sound scientific information, that the environmental and public health benefits to be derived from the proposed rule outweigh the social and economic costs reasonably expected to result from the proposed rule. This written determination shall be submitted to the legislative fiscal office for its review. The written determination shall be submitted at the same time to the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget for its approval. The written determination, at a minimum, shall include an assessment of the environmental and public health benefits to be derived from the proposed rule; the estimated economic cost to all persons directly affected by the proposed rule; and an explanation of the data, assumptions, and methods used in making the determination. These factors shall be identified to the maximum extent practical and, where feasible, quantified. A statement that the environmental and public health benefits to be derived from the proposed rule outweigh the social and economic costs reasonably expected to result from the proposed rule, which has been submitted for review to the legislative fiscal office, shall be included in any notice required under R.S. 49:953(A).

* * * * *

(4) Prior to proposal of any rule which meets an exception allowed in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, the secretary or the assistant secretary for the office of environmental assessment his designee shall certify for the public record that the proposed rule complies with any of the exceptions provided for in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection."
