Subsections A and B shall apply in all instances whether or not the claim is assigned for valuable consideration; whether or not the services performed by the attorney were for the collection agency or debt collector alone; whether or not the collection agency or debt collector exercised control of the account or exercised control over the attorney; whether or not the collection agency or debt collector hired the attorney; and whether or not the collection agency or debt collector's fees are contingent upon the amount collected by the attorney.

E. "Collection agency" and "debt collector" are synonymous and interchangeable terms and mean any person who uses any instrumentality of intrastate or interstate commerce or the mails in any business the principal purpose of which is the collection of any debts, or who regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another, and relative to Louisiana clients, notwithstanding the fact that such person has no employees, offices, equipment, or other physical facilities in this state. The terms include each of the following:

(i) A person directly or indirectly engaged in soliciting claims for collection, or collecting or attempting to collect claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another non-affiliated person.

(ii) Any person or creditor who, in the process of collecting his own debts, uses any name other than his own which would indicate that a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such debts.

Section 2. The provisions of R.S. 9:3576 are intended to clarify existing law and therefore are corrective, curative, interpretative and remedial in nature and shall apply to all existing transactions. Specifically, and without limitation, those provisions shall apply to all assignment agreements entered into on or after August 15, 2003 and to all transactions and lawsuits arising from such assignment agreements."
