A. As used in this Section, the following words and phrases have the following meanings ascribed to them:

   (1) "Cockfight" means a contest wherein birds are set against one another with the intention that they engage in combat.

   (2) "Cockfighting weapon" means any object which has a point or a blade and which is designed so that it can be attached to a fighting bird. The two common types of "cockfighting weapon" are the "gaff", which is narrow and pointed and the "knife", which has a blade.

   (3) "Fighting bird" means any bird which is intended for participation in a cockfight or any bird (typically of the genus Gallus, but not limited to those birds) derived from specific breeding of birds commonly used in a cockfight.

   (4) "Organized cockfight" means any cockfight that is conducted as a commercial enterprise. Evidence that a cockfight is an "organized cockfight" includes but is not limited to a published schedule of the event, advertising of the event, charging admission to the event, offering a prize in connection with the event, records of wagers made in connection with the event, and scales used for the weighing of fighting birds.

   B.(1) Promoting or conducting an organized cockfight is prohibited. Assisting in promoting or conducting an organized cockfight is prohibited. Whoever promotes or conducts an organized cockfight or whoever assists in promoting or conducting an organized cockfight shall be fined ten thousand dollars and imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for not less than one year nor more than five years.

   (4) The amputation of the comb or the wattles from a rooster is prohibited. Except for a licensed, practicing veterinarian acting on the basis of a medical necessity, whoever amputates the comb or wattles from a rooster or modifies the natural spur of a rooster to hold a cockfighting weapon shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars.

   (5) Employment at a cockfight means to be in charge of or assist in any operation or function at or in support of a cockfight, including but not limited to keeping the gate, keeping records, weighing birds, and operating a concession. Evidence of payment for services is not necessary to prove that a person was employed at a cockfight. Employment at a cockfight is prohibited. Whoever is employed at a cockfight shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

   (6) Attending a cockfight is prohibited. Whoever attends a cockfight shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars.

   (7) The breeding of fighting birds is prohibited. Whoever breeds a fighting bird shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.
