AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 2, between lines 10 and 11, insert the following:

"G. (1)The Louisiana Recovery Authority shall submit to the legislature for its approval by a majority of the elected members of each house of the legislature any proposals which it has developed related to recovery from the hurricanes which provide for expenditures of ten million dollars or more.

(2) Members of the legislature can only cast an intelligent, responsible vote if they have detailed and accurate information, and information which does not change as the approval instrument is introduced and moves through the process.

(3) Legislators can make proper use of such information only if the legislator has a reasonable amount of time to review it.

(4) The Louisiana Recovery Authority shall provide to each member of the legislature seven days before submitting for approval by a committee or by a house of the legislature any instrument which provides for expenditures of ten million dollars or more accurate detailed information explaining the following about the proposal:

(a) For each type of proposed expenditure set forth in the proposal, detailed information showing how the total amount of expenditure was derived or estimated, including the types of goods, services, or contract work expected to be purchased with such expenditures.

(b) If the amounts of the proposed expenditures are estimates, which amounts or other information were such estimates based upon and a specific designation of the sources of that information.

(c) A listing of the governmental and nongovernmental, public and private beneficiaries of the proposed expenditures.

(5) Such information shall include any work papers or other documents related to estimated expenditures received by the authority from any task force, subcommittee, consultant, or state department or agency utilized by the authority in preparation of the proposal.

(6) Any legislative instrument submitted for approval by the legislature shall contain a reference to such information provided to members of the legislature pursuant to this resolution which shall become a part of such instrument and proposal by reference."

If a political subdivision elects to accept bids by this electronic medium, and the Louisiana Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations has failed to develop standards to be utilized for the receipt of bids electronically, as provided for in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph, the political subdivision may develop uniform standards to be utilized for the receipt of bids electronically and for a secure electronic interactive environment. Once developed by the political subdivision, the standard shall be promulgated. Any special condition or requirement for the submission shall be specified in the advertisement for bids required by this Section. If bids are to be accepted electronically, the advertisement required in this Section shall contain the electronic address of the public entity and shall establish the specific times for public access to the electronic interactive environment for purposes of submission of bids.

(b) The Louisiana Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, with the advice and assistance of the chief information officer, in the office of information technology, shall develop uniform standards to be utilized by political subdivisions for the receipt of bids electronically and for a secure electronic interactive environment. In developing these standards, the commission shall receive recommendations and information from contractors and interest groups. Once developed by the commission, the standards shall be promulgated by the chief information officer. However, if the commission fails to develop standards by January 30, 2007, a political subdivision may develop the standards in accordance with Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph.

(c) Any uniform standards developed by a political subdivision to electronically receive bids shall be preempted by standards developed by the Louisiana Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations and promulgated in accordance with Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph.

"(c) Abatement of interest attributable to unreasonable errors and delays by the department. In the case of any assessment of interest attributable in whole or in part to any unreasonable error or delay by the secretary or her designee (acting in an official capacity) in performing a ministerial or managerial act, the secretary may abate all or any part of such interest for any period. For purposes of the preceding sentence, an error or delay shall be taken into account only if no significant aspect of such error or delay can be attributed to the taxpayer involved and after the department has contacted the taxpayer in writing with respect to such deficiency or payment.

(d) In order to promote the effective administration of the tax laws of this state, the secretary may provide by rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act for the compromise of the amount of interest to be added to the amount of the tax due as computed pursuant to this Section. A complete record of all such compromises shall be kept by the secretary, shall be open to public inspection and, notwithstanding the provisions of R.S. 47:1508 and 1508.1, shall be published in the department's annual report."
