"§708.1. Issuance of certificates; satisfaction of child support lien or security interest; security measures

A. A judgment creditor who has obtained a final, nonappealable judgment ordering the payment of past due child support which has remained unpaid at least sixty days after it has become final may file the judgment with the office of motor vehicles to perfect a security interest on any motor vehicle titled in the name of the judgment debtor.

B. The security interest on the titled motor vehicle shall be perfected by filing with the office of motor vehicles the appropriate documentation as required by this Section, together with the appropriate fees charged for titles and security interests. Any filing which fails to comply with this Section shall be rejected by the office of motor vehicles and shall not result in the perfection of a security interest.

C. The following documents shall be required to be filed to perfect a security interest on a titled motor vehicle:

(1) A completed application signed by the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney on a form approved by the office of motor vehicles. The form shall contain information that the office of motor vehicles may deem necessary to process the transaction.

(2) A certified copy of the final, nonappealable judgment.

(3) A statement verified and signed by the creditor or the creditor's attorney attesting to the following facts:

(a) That the judgment is final, that no appeal was taken, or if an appeal was taken, the judgment was affirmed on appeal and all delays for review of the judgment have expired.

(b) That more than sixty days have elapsed since the judgment became final and it remains unpaid.

(4) The previously issued certificate of title of the motor vehicle on which the lien is to be recorded.

D. The court, as part of its judgment of awarding past due child support, may order the judgment debtor to surrender the certificate of title to the judgment creditor. The failure to surrender the certificate of title shall be enforced by the court."

On motion of Rep. Hunter, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Hunter moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.
