If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval.

Section 30. The provisions of R.S. 13:751.4 and 841.3 of Section 2 of this Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. Until a single clerk for the Forty-First Judicial District Court is elected, the clerk shall mean the clerk of the Civil District Court and the clerk of the Criminal District Court. All fees and costs assessed or collected by the clerk of the Civil District Court or the clerk of the Criminal District Court for the parish of Orleans in effect on the effective date of this Section are continued and shall be assessed and collected in accordance with these provisions. On or after January 1, 2009, the sixty percent in R.S. 13:841.3 may be renegotiated by the clerk and chief judge of the Forty-First Judicial District Court, but shall not be reduced below fifty percent of the civil filing fees collected by the clerk.

Section 31. If a vacancy occurs in civil or criminal district courts, the office of the clerk of the civil or criminal district courts, civil or criminal sheriffs, no special election shall be held to fill the vacancy. In the case of the clerks of the civil and criminal district courts, the chief deputy of either office shall fill the unexpired term."
