Point of Order
Rep. Walsworth asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether Senate Bill No. 742 would require the favorable vote of two-thirds of the elected members to finally pass the House.

Ruling of the Chair
The Chair ruled the bill creates a criminal fine and not a civil fine, and therefore would require the favorable vote of a majority of the elected members to finally pass the House.

On motion of Rep. Daniel, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Arnold sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS
Amendments proposed by Representative Arnold to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 742 by Senator Marionneaux

The Chair declared the above bill was finally passed.

Rep. Schneider moved to reconsider the vote by which the above bill was finally passed, and, on his own motion, the motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

(3) This Section shall not apply to members of the Louisiana School Employees' Retirement System whose first employment making them eligible for system membership began on or after July 1, 2006.

§1002. Definitions

As used in this Chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this Section unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(a) "Average compensation," for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, shall be based on the thirty-six highest successive months of employment, or on the highest thirty-six successive months of employment where interruption of service occurred; however, the average compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the twenty-fifth through the thirty-sixth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month by more than ten percent. The limitations on the computation of average compensation in this Paragraph shall not apply to any of the twelve-month periods where compensation increased by more than one hundred and ten percent over the previous twelve-month period solely because of an increase in compensation by legislative act or by a city/parish system-wide salary increase.

(b) "Average compensation," for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, shall be based on the sixty highest successive months of employment, or on the highest sixty successive months of employment where interruption of service occurred; however, the average compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the twenty-fifth through the thirty-sixth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month by more than ten percent. The limitations on the computation of average compensation contained in this Paragraph shall not apply to any twelve-month period during which compensation increased by more than one hundred ten percent over the previous twelve-month period solely because of an increase in compensation by legislative act or by a city/parish system-wide salary increase.
§1141.2. Computation of retirement benefits

* * *

B. The annual retirement benefit of any member of the retirement system who is not a qualified participant, as defined by Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this Section, and which is not attributable to the member's after-tax employee contribution, cannot exceed the lesser of ninety thousand dollars or one hundred percent of such member's average compensation. For purposes of determining whether a member's benefit exceeds those limitations, the following shall apply:

* * *

(10) Average compensation: For the purposes of this Subsection the term "shall have the following meaning:

(a) "Compensation": "Average compensation," for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, shall mean the average compensation earned by a member for the period of three consecutive years during which the member was an active member of the retirement system and had the greatest aggregate compensation from the employer. "Compensation" shall mean the total compensation reportable by the state of Louisiana, its agencies, or its political subdivisions as income to the member for the year. Compensation shall not include deferred compensation which is not reportable as income in the current year. Average compensation shall specifically exclude amounts not includable in the member's gross income for federal tax purposes by reason of Internal Revenue Code Sections 125 and 414(h) and any other provision of federal law; such amounts shall not be excluded, however, for any other purposes of this Title.

(b) "Average compensation," for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, shall mean the average compensation earned by a member for the period of six consecutive years, or for the highest sixty successive joined months where interruption of service occurred, during which the member was an active member of the retirement system and had the greatest aggregate compensation from the employer. "Compensation" shall mean the total compensation reportable by the state of Louisiana, its agencies, or its political subdivisions as income to the member for the year. Compensation shall not include deferred compensation which is not reportable as income in the current year. Average compensation shall specifically exclude amounts not includable in the member's gross income for federal tax purposes by reason of Internal Revenue Code Sections 125 and 414(h) and any other provision of federal law; such amounts shall not be excluded, however, for any other purposes of this Title.

§1152. Deferred Retirement Option Plan

* * *

I. Monthly retirement benefits payable to a participant after termination of participation in the plan and employment shall be calculated as follows:

* * *

(3)(a) If the participant whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of less than thirty-six months, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the final average compensation used to calculate the monthly credit.

(b) If the participant whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of less than sixty months, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the final average compensation used to calculate the monthly credit.

(4)(a) If the participant whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of thirty-six months or more, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the higher of the final average compensation when the member entered the plan or for the period of employment after termination of participation in the plan.

(b) If the participant whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of sixty months or more, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the higher of the final average compensation when the member entered the plan or for the period of employment after termination of participation in the plan.

On motion of Rep. Schneider, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Schneider moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

On page 3, between lines 25 and 26, insert:

§1307. Persons eligible to retire on basis of service and age; retirement salaries

...

(2) Subject to the provisions of R.S. 11:1321, the surviving spouse of a retiree who would have been eligible pursuant to this Subsection shall receive a pension in an amount equal to the monthly benefit that would have been payable to the retiree had he lived. For the purposes of this Paragraph, surviving spouse shall mean a person who is married to the retiree at the time of his death.

(3) This Subsection shall apply to disability retirees without regard to minimum years of service credit or minimum years retired.

(4)(i) As soon as is practicable after June 30, 2006, the Public Retirement Systems' Actuarial Committee shall convene to determine the amount of any liability to the system that will result from the implementation of the provisions of this Subsection and the resulting increase in required employer contributions. Such additional liability shall be amortized as a separate liability and shall be assessed as an additional employer contribution to be paid by the office of state police as part of its employer contributions. The amortization payments required by this item shall be determined by the Public Retirement Systems' Actuarial Committee and shall be in addition to the actuarially required contributions provided in R.S. 11:102.

(ii) The employer contributions required by this Subsection shall be funded from monies appropriated to the office of state police from the Riverboat Gaming Enforcement Fund. The additional monthly benefit provided by this Subsection shall only be paid in any fiscal year in which monies appropriated to the office of state police from the Riverboat Gaming Enforcement Fund are sufficient to fully fund such increase in employer contributions resulting from the additional monthly benefit provided in this Subsection.

Point of Order

Rep. Triche asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled that the above amendments were not germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Appeal of the Ruling of the Chair

Rep. White appealed the ruling of the Chair.

The vote recurred on sustaining the ruling of the Chair.

By a vote of 78 yeas and 8 nays, the Chair was sustained.

On motion of Rep. White, the amendments were withdrawn.

Rep. Schneider moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

§1002. Definitions

As used in this Chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this Section unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(b) "Average compensation", for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, shall be based on the thirty-six highest successive months of employment, or on the highest thirty-six successive joined months of employment where interruption of service occurred; however, the average compensation amount to be considered for the first through the twelfth month shall not exceed the compensation for the immediately preceding twelve months by more than ten percent. The amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the twenty-fifth through the thirty-sixth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month by more than ten percent. The limitations on the computation of average compensation in this Paragraph shall not apply to any twelve-month period solely because of an increase in compensation by legislative act or by a city/parish system-wide salary increase.

(b) "Average compensation", for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, shall be based on the sixty highest successive months of employment, or on the highest sixty successive joined months of employment where interruption of service occurred; however, the average compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month shall not exceed the actual compensation amount for the first through the twelfth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the thirty-seventh through the forty-eighth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month by more than ten percent. The amount for the forty-ninth through the sixtieth month shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum allowable compensation amount or the actual compensation amount for the thirteenth through the twenty-fourth month by more than ten percent. The limitations on the computation of average compensation contained in this Paragraph shall not apply to any twelve-month period during which compensation increased by more than one hundred percent over the previous twelve-month period solely because of an increase in compensation by legislative act or by a city/parish system-wide salary increase.

§1141.2. Computation of retirement benefits

B. The annual retirement benefit of any member of the retirement system who is not a qualified participant, as defined by Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this Section, and which is not attributable to the member's after-tax employee contribution, cannot exceed the lesser of ninety thousand dollars or one hundred percent of such member's average compensation. For purposes of determining whether a member's benefit exceeds those limitations, the following shall apply:
(10) Average compensation. For the purposes of this Subsection the term shall have the following meaning:

(a) “Compensation.” “Average compensation,” for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, shall mean the average compensation earned by a member for the period of three consecutive years during which the member was an active member of the retirement system and had the greatest aggregate compensation from the employer. “Compensation” shall mean the total compensation reportable by the state of Louisiana, its agencies, or its political subdivisions as income to the member for the year. Compensation shall not include deferred compensation which is not reportable as income in the current year. Average compensation shall specifically exclude amounts not includable in the member's gross income for federal tax purposes by reason of Internal Revenue Code Sections 125 and 414(h) and any other provision of federal law; such amounts shall not be excluded, however, for any other purposes of this Title.

(b) “Average compensation,” for a member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, shall mean the average compensation earned by a member for the period of six consecutive years, or for the highest sixty successive joined months where interruption of service occurred, during which the member was an active member of the retirement system and had the greatest aggregate compensation from the employer. “Compensation” shall mean the total compensation reportable by the state of Louisiana, its agencies, or its political subdivisions as income to the member for the year. Compensation shall not include deferred compensation which is not reportable as income in the current year. Average compensation shall specifically exclude amounts not includable in the member's gross income for federal tax purposes by reason of Internal Revenue Code Sections 125 and 414(h) and any other provision of federal law; such amounts shall not be excluded, however, for any other purposes of this Title.

§1152. Deferred Retirement Option Plan

J. Monthly retirement benefits payable to a participant after termination of participation in the plan and employment shall be calculated as follows:

(3)(a) If the participant, whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or before June 30, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of less than thirty-six months, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the higher of the final average compensation when the member entered the plan or for the period of employment after termination of participation in the plan.

(b) If the participant, whose first employment making him eligible for membership in the system began on or after July 1, 2006, continues employment after termination of participation in the plan for a period of sixty months or more, his monthly retirement benefit shall equal his base benefit plus an amount based upon the service credit for the additional employment, together with conversion of the net amount of sick and annual leave accumulated during that period of employment, based upon the higher of the final average compensation when the member entered the plan or for the period of employment after termination of participation in the plan.
