or division in the civil and criminal district courts of Orleans Parish in existence prior to the enactment of Act 621 of the 2006 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature."

AMENDMENT NO. 6
On page 8, after line 17, insert the following:

"Section 2. Legislative Findings

Prior to the 2006 Regular Session, the judges of the Orleans Parish juvenile Court were elected to staggered terms every two years. No other Louisiana district judges of the same court are elected to staggered terms. To remove this anomaly dating from the Constitution of 1921 and to achieve uniformity in the election of the judges of the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court, the legislature enacted R.S. 13:621.44 to, among other things, provide a uniform election date for the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court.

In view of the recent court ruling calling into question the validity of Act 621 of the 2006 Regular Session, which established R.S. 13:621.44, the legislature finds that the uniformity of election dates for the judges of the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court is an important legislative goal independent of the contested provisions of Act 621. And further noting that the Louisiana Constitution of 1974 bars the reduction of a judge's term while in office, the only constitutional method to accomplish the goal of a uniform election date is to extend the terms of the judges now in office to the same date. For these reasons, the legislature hereby amends and reenacts R.S. 123:621.44(A)."
