AMENDMENT NO. 3
On page 1, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

"Section 1. R.S. 15:828.4 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§828.4. Classification procedures for inmates held in closed cell confinement
A. The purpose of this Section is to establish procedural and substantive criteria that will permit the Department of Public Safety and Corrections to determine whether, consistent with sound institutional policy, an inmate who has been assigned to closed cell restriction shall remain in that type of confinement.
B. For purposes of this Section the following words shall have the following meanings:
(1) "Assault" shall mean physical or sexual assault, attempted physical or sexual assault, or conspiracy to commit physical or sexual assault while housed in a correctional facility.
(2) "Closed cell restriction" shall mean any type of confinement in which an inmate is held for at least eighteen hours each day in a cell and additionally includes the maximum security dormitory at Camp D of the Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola established March, 2008.
(3) "Escape" shall mean escape, attempted escape, or conspiracy to escape from a correctional facility.
(4) "Homicide" shall mean homicide, attempted homicide, or conspiracy to commit homicide while housed at a correctional facility.
C. Review boards
(1) Any inmate housed in closed cell restriction shall be entitled to a live hearing conducted by a review board every ninety days to determine whether the inmate shall remain in closed cell restriction.
(2) The review board shall consist of a minimum of three neutral members of the prison staff. At least one member shall be from treatment or mental health services.
D. Hearing procedures
(1) The inmate shall be given notice at least five days in advance when a hearing is scheduled.
(2) The inmate shall have an opportunity to submit evidence and to contest any evidence relied upon by the review board.
(3) The inmate shall have an opportunity to consult with inmate counsel before the hearing and be represented by inmate counsel during the hearing if the inmate so desires.
(4) All hearing shall be recorded, in their entirety, by video or audiotape. Such recordings shall be maintained for at least three years.
(5) The inmates shall be given written notice of the board's decision, which notice shall include the reasons for the action of the board.
(6) After an inmate is placed in closed cell confinement for more than one year, the review board shall articulate specific reasons, supported by the record, for concluding that an inmate shall remain in closed cell confinement.

Corrections of an inmate's closed cell restriction type of confinement; to provide for review boards; to provide for hearing procedures; to provide for review criteria to be used by the review board;"
(7) After an inmate is placed in closed cell confinement for more than one year, the inmate shall have the right to appeal any adverse decision by a review board in accordance with the Corrections Administrative Remedy Procedure as set forth in Part XV of Chapter 7 of Title 15 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

E. Criteria to be used by the review board

(1) The review board shall base its decision about whether an inmate will be released from closed cell confinement on the inmate's conduct since being transferred to closed cell confinement. Other factors may be considered to the extent they are relevant and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Section.

(2) In determining whether the inmate's conduct since being transferred to closed cell confinement warrants release, relevant factors shall include, but not be limited to, the following factors:

(a) Negative
   (i) Attempts to escape.
   (ii) Assaults upon staff or prisoners.
   (iii) Self-destructive acts.

(b) Positive
   (i) Any positive acts toward staff and fellow prisoners.
   (ii) Affirmative acts of rehabilitation, including such acts as obtaining a GED.
   (iii) Any acts by the inmate to acknowledge and address past behavioral issues.

(3) After one year, the original reason for placement in closed cell confinement shall no longer be relevant to or considered in the review process, unless the original reason was for escape, homicide, or assault.

(4) After three years, if the original reason for placement in closed cell confinement was escape, homicide, or assault, the original reason for placement in closed cell confinement shall not be the principal reason why an inmate is denied release from closed cell confinement. Instead, after three years, the board's decision shall be based primarily on the inmate's conduct since being placed in closed cell confinement. The original reason may only be considered where, after considering the inmate's conduct record since placement in closed cell restriction, the review board determines it is virtually in equipoise as to whether the inmate should be released.
