"Section 1. R.S. 2:654.1 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§654.1. Board of Commissioners; creation; membership; terms; officers; meetings

A. The Board of Commissioners of the Louisiana Airport Authority is hereby authorized and established as the governing authority of the Authority. The powers of the authority shall be vested in the board.

B. The board shall be comprised of eleven voting members appointed as follows:

(1) Two members shall be appointed by the governor representing Ascension Parish.

(2) One member shall be appointed by the governor representing St. James Parish.

(3) One member shall be appointed by the governor representing Assumption Parish.

(4) Two members shall be appointed by the governor representing Iberville Parish.

(5) Two members to be appointed at large by the governor.

(6) The secretary of the Department of Economic Development or his designee.

(7) The secretary of the Department of Transportation and Development or his designee.

(8) The governor or his designee.

C. For purposes of selecting members as provided in Paragraphs (1) through (8) of Subsection B of this Section, the governor shall appoint the members within thirty days of August 15, 2008. The members shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. The term of members of the board serving prior to August 15, 2008, shall expire upon confirmation of the members appointed by the governor pursuant to Subsections B and C of this Section. The first meeting of the board shall occur not later than sixty days after August 15, 2008.

D. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States, a resident of Louisiana, and shall be of an outstanding personal and professional reputation.

E. The members of the board shall serve without compensation.

F. A vacancy occurring on the board for any reason shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the same manner as the original appointment.

G. The members of the board shall serve terms concurrent with that of the appointing governor.

H. The board shall appoint one of its members to serve as the chairman and vice-chairman of the board to serve at the pleasure of the governor. At its first meeting, the board shall elect one of its members as secretary. The board may elect such additional officers as it may deem necessary and appropriate for the conduct of its business affairs. The authority may employ an executive director, airport manager, technical experts, and such other officers, agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties and compensation. The authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

I. The board shall hold regular monthly meetings and may hold additional meetings as it deems necessary. A board member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings, or four or more meetings in a one-year period, shall automatically be recommended by the board to the appropriate appointing authority for removal, and, upon removal, a vacancy in that position shall be declared and filled as provided herein. All meetings of the board and all minutes and records thereof shall be subject to the Open Meetings Law and the Public Records Act. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and such quorum shall be required for the transaction of all business of the board. Action by the authority shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.

J. The board shall adopt bylaws for the governance of the board and for the operation and governance of the Authority.

K. No member of the board shall own or have any interest or part in any public or private organization, business, company, or entity conducting business of any kind with the authority or any of the facilities controlled by the authority.

L. Any member of the board who is convicted of a felony or found to be in violation of the Code of Governmental Ethics, R.S. 42:1101 et seq. or any other ethical violation shall be removed from the board. The board may also recommend to the governor the removal of any board member who regularly fails to attend board meetings. Standards for subjecting board members to removal shall be addressed in bylaws to be promulgated by the board.

M. The domicile of the authority shall be the city of Baton Rouge, in East Baton Rouge Parish.

N. The authority shall be subject to the Public Bid Law.

Section 2. R.S. R.S. 2:654 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 3. Chapter 5 of Title 2 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 2:650 through 661, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 4. Subject to the appropriation of funding, the Department of Economic Development shall complete the following items relating to the project commonly referred to the Louisiana Transportation Center by May 1, 2009:

(a) Draft a preliminary business plan, including critical success factors, key team members, principles for successful management, marketing and operating all airport facilities if built, for successful development of the Louisiana Transportation Center;

(b) Prepare a commercial program description discussing the location, land uses, likely marketing efforts and resources needed, potential financial and economic values, timing and phasing of the development;

(c) Develop a preliminary development program and budgetary schedule for the Louisiana Transportation Center;

(d) Report identifying contract principles to be prepared.

(e) A recommendation as to whether or not the Louisiana Transportation Center is or is not economically feasible.

Section 5. Should the Department of Economic Development recommend the Louisiana Transportation Center is not economically feasible, Section 3 of this Act shall be effective July 1, 2009. In the event that the Department of Economic Development recommendation that the Louisiana Transportation Center is economically feasible, Section 3 of this Act shall become null and void.

Section 6. Should Section 3 of this Act become effective, all books, papers, records, money, equipment, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the Louisiana Airport Authority, shall be transferred to the Department of Economic Development within one hundred and eighty days of the effective date of Section 3.

Section 7. Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and this Section of this Act, shall become effective upon signature of the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law with or without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."

"Section 3. R.S. 47:463.43(A), (D), and (E) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§463.43. Special license plates; ~~office of~~ environmental education division

A. The Department of Public Safety and Corrections shall establish a special prestige motor vehicle license plate for the ~~office of~~ environmental education division within the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, ~~office of wildlife~~, R.S. 30:2503 et seq. The license plates shall be restricted to use on passenger cars, pickup trucks, vans, and recreational vehicles.

D. The department shall collect the donation for each license plate and forward the donation as provided in Subsection C hereof to the ~~office of~~ environmental education division in the ~~office of the governor~~, R.S. 30:2503 et seq. division. The one dollar handling fee as provided in Subsection C hereof shall be retained by the department to offset the administrative costs. The funds received by the ~~office of~~ environmental education division pursuant to this Section shall be deposited in the Louisiana Environmental Education Fund, R.S. 30:2511, and used solely for the purposes of that fund.

E. The secretary with the assistance of the ~~office of~~ environmental education division shall establish such rules and regulations as are necessary to implement the provisions of this Section including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the collection and disbursement of the donation, the transfer and disposition of such license plates, the colors available, and the design criteria. The design shall include the use of the ~~office of~~ environmental education division logo.

Section 4. R.S. 36:4(O) is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 5. On the effective date of this Act, the office of environmental education shall be abolished and the environmental education division in the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, office of wildlife, shall be created as its successor. All unfinished business, references in laws and documents, employees, property, obligations, and books and records of the office shall be transferred as provided in this Section. Upon the abolition of the office, any pending or unfinished business of the office shall be taken over and be completed by the division with the same power and authorization as that of the office and the division shall be the successor in every way to the office for the purpose of completing such business. Any reference in laws and documents to the office shall be deemed to apply to the division. Any legal proceeding to which the office is a party and which is filed, initiated, or pending before any court on the effective date of this Section, and all documents involved in or affected by said legal proceeding, shall retain their effectiveness and shall be continued in the name of the division. All further legal proceedings and documents in the continuation, disposition, and enforcement of such legal proceeding shall be in the name of the division, and the division shall be substituted for the office without necessity for amendment of any document. This Act shall not be construed so as to impair the effectiveness of any rule or policy, and any such rule or policy shall remain effective as provided therein or until changed as otherwise provided by law. This Act shall not be construed so as to impair the contractual or other obligations of the office or of the state of Louisiana. The division shall be the successor in every way to the office, including all of its obligations and debts. All dedications and allocations of revenues and sources of revenues heretofore made shall continue in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as were provided prior to the enactment of this Act, unless and until other provision is made therefor. This Act shall not be construed or applied in any way which will prevent full compliance by the state, or any department, office, or agency thereof, with the requirements of any Act of the Congress of the United States or any regulation made thereunder by which federal aid or other federal assistance has been or hereafter is made available. All books, papers, records, money, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the office are hereby transferred to the division. All employees heretofore engaged in the performance of duties of the office, insofar as practicable and necessary are hereby transferred to the division and shall continue to perform the duties heretofore performed, subject to applicable state civil service laws, rules, and regulations and other applicable laws. Subject to such laws, positions in the unclassified service shall remain in the unclassified service.

Section 6.A. The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change references in the following statutes from the "office of environmental education" to the "environmental education division": R.S. 30:2506, 2507, and 2511(A) and (B). The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change the reference from "office" to "environmental education division" in R.S. 30:2511(D).

B. The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change the references in the following statutes from the "office of environmental education" to the "environmental education division within the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, office of wildlife": R.S. 17:185.3 and R.S. 32:412.

Section 7. This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2008; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on July 1, 2008, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later."

C. No peremptory challenge made by the state or the defendant shall be based solely upon the race or gender of the juror. If an objection is made that the state or defense has excluded a juror solely on the basis of race or gender, and a prima facie case supporting that objection is made by the objecting party, the court may demand a satisfactory racially race or gender neutral reason for the exercise of the challenge, unless the court is satisfied that such reason is apparent from the voir dire examination of the juror. Such demand and disclosure, if required by the court, shall be made outside of the hearing of any juror or prospective juror.

D. The court shall allow to stand each peremptory challenge exercised for a racially race or gender neutral reason either apparent from the examination or disclosed by counsel when required by the court. The provisions of Paragraph C and this Paragraph shall not apply when both the state and the defense have exercised a challenge against the same juror.

E. The court shall allow to stand each peremptory challenge for which a satisfactory racially neutral or gender neutral reason is given. Those jurors who have been peremptorily challenged and for whom no satisfactory racially neutral or gender neutral reason is apparent or given may be ordered returned to the panel, or the court may take such other corrective action as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. The court shall make specific findings regarding each such challenge."
