A board member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings, or four or more meetings in a one-year period, shall automatically be recommended by the board to the appropriate appointing authority for removal, and, upon removal, a vacancy in that position shall be declared and filled as provided herein. All meetings of the board and all minutes and records thereof shall be subject to the Open Meetings Law and the Public Records Act. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and such quorum shall be required for the transaction of all business of the board. Action by the authority shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.
I. The board shall adopt bylaws for the governance of the board and for the operation and governance of the Authority.

K. No member of the board shall own or have any interest or part in any public or private organization, business, company, or entity conducting business of any kind with the authority or any of the facilities controlled by the authority.

L. Any member of the board who is convicted of a felony or found to be in violation of the Code of Governmental Ethics, R.S. 42:1101 et seq. or any other ethical violation shall be removed from the board. The board may also recommend to the governor the removal of any board member who regularly fails to attend board meetings. Standards for subjecting board members to removal shall be addressed in bylaws to be promulgated by the board.

M. The domicile of the authority shall be the city of Baton Rouge, in East Baton Rouge Parish.

N. The authority shall be subject to the Public Bid Law.

Section 2. R.S. 2:654 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 3. Chapter 5 of Title 2 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 2:650 through 661, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 4. Subject to the appropriation of funding, the Department of Economic Development shall complete the following items relating to the project commonly referred to the Louisiana Transportation Center by May 1, 2009:

(a) Draft a preliminary business plan, including critical success factors, key team members, principles for successful management, marketing and operating all airport facilities if built, for successful development of the Louisiana Transportation Center;

(b) Prepare a commercial program description discussing the location, land uses, likely marketing efforts and resources needed, potential financial and economic values, timing and phasing of the development;

(c) Develop a preliminary development program and budgetary schedule for the Louisiana Transportation Center;

(d) Report identifying contract principles to be prepared.

(e) A recommendation as to whether or not the Louisiana Transportation Center is or is not economically feasible.

Section 5. Should the Department of Economic Development recommend the Louisiana Transportation Center is not economically feasible, Section 3 of this Act shall be effective July 1, 2009. In the event the Department of Economic Development recommendation that the Louisiana Transportation Center is economically feasible, Section 3 of this Act shall become null and void.

Section 6. Should Section 3 of this Act become effective, all books, papers, records, money, equipment, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the Louisiana Airport Authority, shall be transferred to the Department of Economic Development within one hundred and eighty days of the effective date of Section 3.

Section 7. Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and this Section of this Act, shall become effective upon signature of the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law with or without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. This Act shall not be construed so as to impair the contractual or other obligations of the office or of the state of Louisiana. The division shall be the successor in every way to the office, including all of its obligations and debts. All dedications and allocations of revenues and sources of revenues heretofore made shall continue in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as were provided prior to the enactment of this Act, until and other provision is made therefor. This Act shall not be construed or applied in any way which will prevent full compliance by the state, or any department, office, or agency thereof, with the requirements of any Act of the Congress of the United States or any regulation made thereunder by which federal aid or other federal assistance has been or hereafter is made available. All books, papers, records, money, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by the office are hereby transferred to the division. All employees heretofore engaged in the performance of duties of the office, insofar as practicable and necessary are hereby transferred to the division and shall continue to perform the duties heretofore performed, subject to applicable state civil service laws, rules, and regulations and other applicable laws. Subject to such laws, positions in the unclassified service shall remain in the unclassified service.

Section 6.A. The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change references in the following statutes from the "office of environmental education" to the "environmental education division": R.S. 30:2506, 2507, and 2511(A) and (B). The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change the reference from "office" to "environmental education division" in R.S. 30:2511(D).

B. The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby authorized and requested to change the references in the following statutes from the "office of environmental education" to the "environmental education division within the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, office of wildlife": R.S. 17:185.3 and R.S. 32:412.

Section 7. This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2008; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on July 1, 2008, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later.

C. No peremptory challenge made by the state or the defendant shall be based solely upon the race or gender of the juror. If an objection is made that the state or defense has excluded a juror solely on the basis of race or gender, and a prima facie case supporting that objection is made by the objecting party, the court may demand a satisfactory racially neutral reason for the exercise of the challenge, unless the court is satisfied that such reason is apparent from the voir dire examination of the juror. Such demand and disclosure, if required by the court, shall be made outside of the hearing of any juror or prospective juror.

D. The court shall allow to stand each peremptory challenge exercised for a racially neutral or gender neutral reason either apparent from the examination or disclosed by counsel when required by the court. The provisions of Paragraph C and this Paragraph shall not apply when both the state and the defense have exercised a challenge against the same juror.

E. The court shall allow to stand each peremptory challenge for which a satisfactory racially neutral or gender neutral reason is given. Those jurors who have been peremptorily challenged and for whom no satisfactory racially neutral or gender neutral reason is apparent or given may be ordered returned to the panel, or the court may take such other corrective action as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. The court shall make specific findings regarding each such challenge.

Such a contract may be renewed, but may not continue in effect March 3, 2008, or at any time prior to the initiation of the public service which made the person subject to the provisions of this Subsection; however, no contract for such professional services shall be entered into after January 8, 2012.

(i) An agreement for the provision of goods or services by state government provided on the same terms and conditions available to similarly situated persons.

(3)(a) No person formerly serving in a position identified in Item (1)(a)(ii) of this Subsection nor his spouse nor any legal entity of a person shall, for a period of one year following the termination of the public service of such person enter into a contract that would have been prohibited by this Subsection prior to the termination of the public service of such person. The provisions of this Paragraph shall not prohibit the renewal of a contract that was not prohibited prior to March 3, 2008.

(b) The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to a person, to the spouse of a person, nor to a legal entity of a person if the public service of the person terminated prior to March 3, 2008. However, the provisions of this Paragraph shall apply to a person, to the spouse of a person, and to a legal entity of a person if the person served in an office or position identified in Item (1)(a)(ii) of this Subsection on or after March 3, 2008.

(4)(a) Each person identified in Item (1)(a)(ii) of this Subsection shall file a report with the Board of Ethics, by July first of each year of his term of office or of his service in his position, identifying the parties to and the value and term of each contract between him or his spouse or legal entity of a person and state government during the previous calendar year.

(b) Each immediate family member, except a spouse, of a person identified in Item (1)(a)(ii) of this Subsection shall file a report with the Board of Ethics by July first of each year of the person’s term of office or of the person’s service in his position identifying the parties to and the value and term of each contract between the immediate family member or any legal entity of a family member and state government during the previous calendar year.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Paragraph, the first report due pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall be due by May 15, 2009, and shall include the information required by this Paragraph for the period between and including March 3, 2008, and December 31, 2008.

E. (5) If any provision of this Section Subsection conflicts with any other provision of this Part Section, the more restrictive provision shall govern.

(i) The provisions of this Subsection shall not prohibit a sale by a retail establishment which is a provider agreement entered into with the Department of Health and Hospitals under the state medical assistance program.

(ii) For purposes of this Subparagraph, "retail establishment" shall have the same meaning provided in R.S. 14:67.25.

(b) For the purposes of this Subsection, the following shall not constitute a contract:

(i) A provider agreement entered into with the Department of Health and Hospitals under the state medical assistance program.

(ii) A foster parent provider agreement or a child care provider agreement entered into with the Department of Social Services.

(iii) An agreement with a state entity or state quasi-public entity providing for housing, medical treatment, retirement benefits, or insurance benefits, provided that such benefits are available to similarly situated persons.

(iv) An agreement providing for public assistance benefits, including but not limited to subsidies for agriculture, aquaculture, forestry, soil and water conservation, educational scholarships, grants and subsidies, or guaranteed student loans, provided that such benefits are available to similarly situated persons.

(v) An agreement for which the compensation is solely reimbursement of costs.

(vi) Applying for, payment of fees for, or obtaining a license, credential, or permit provided that such license, credential, or permit is available to similarly situated persons.

(vii) The payment of admission fees.

(viii) The sale of property pursuant to the expropriation of immovable property by any branch, agency, department, or institution of state government.

(ix) The donation of professional veterinary services and the donation of any goods and services related to the provision of such veterinary services.

(b) The provisions of this Subsection shall not prohibit the following:

(i) Contracts for employment or for services in a professional educational capacity in an elementary or secondary school or other educational institution.

(ii) Contracts for employment or for services by any licensed health care professional providing services in the classroom or working with administration in an elementary or secondary school or other educational institution.

(iii) Contracts for services by health care professionals which are required by federal or state law to provide an educational program for students in an elementary or secondary school or other educational institution.

(iv) Contracts of sale pursuant to the expropriation of immovable property by any branch, agency, department, or institution of state government. A provider agreement entered into with the Department of Health and Hospitals under the state medical assistance program.

(v) Contracts of employment of a physician or other licensed health care professional with the state or the charity hospitals of the state or the Department of Health and Hospitals.

(vi) Donation of professional veterinary services or the donation of any goods and services related to the provision of such veterinary services.

(vii) Applying for, payment of fees for, or obtaining a license, credential, or permit provided that such license, credential, or permit is available to similarly situated persons.

(5) Each person covered by this Section Subsection who derives, either directly or through a company covered by this Section Subsection, any thing of economic value through any contract which is directed to addressing needs directly emanating from a gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency and which the person covered by this Section Subsection knows or reasonably should know is or may be funded or reimbursed in whole or in part with federal funds shall disclose the information required by Subsection C of this Section as provided in that Subsection.

B. (1) Except persons covered by Subsection A of this Section and except as provided in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, each elected official other than a statewide elected official or legislator, each appointed state official, other than the commissioner of administration or the chief of staff or executive counsel to the governor, and each immediate family member of an official subject to this Subsection or Subsection A of this Section who derives, either directly or through a legal entity in which such official or immediate family member owns ten percent or more, any thing of economic value through any contract which is related to a gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency and which the official or immediate family member knows or reasonably should know is or may be funded or reimbursed in whole or in part with federal funds shall disclose the information required by Subsection C of this Section as provided in that Subsection.

(2) No person required to disclose information by Paragraph (1) of this Subsection shall be required to disclose the receipt of any thing of economic value pursuant to this Section when the value of the transaction or contract is two thousand five hundred dollars or less. However, no person shall enter into separate transactions or contracts valued at two thousand five hundred dollars or less with the Department of Health and Hospitals.
