§1199.3. Definitions
As used in this Part, the following words have the following meanings:

(7) “Workforce development work release” means a program for on-the-job training of inmates who are participating in or have completed the inmate rehabilitation and workforce development program authorized by the provisions of this Part.

§1199.9. Workforce development work release for graduates of program administered by the department

B. Workforce development work release shall be for inmates who have graduated from the inmate rehabilitation and workforce development program and have been certified or licensed as skilled craftsmen have completed the one-year intensive training program and are either licensed or certified as a skilled craftsman or are working toward licensing or certification in a craft pursuant to the provisions of this Part.

§1199.10. Workforce development work release for graduates of the program administered by the sheriff

B.(1) Only an inmate who has graduated from the inmate rehabilitation and workforce development program and obtained the proper certification or licensing as a skilled craftsman completed the one-year intensive training program and is either licensed or certified as a skilled craftsman or is working toward licensing or certification in a craft pursuant to the provisions of this Part may participate in a workforce development work release program administered by the sheriff.

§1199.11. Traditional work release programs not affected
Participation in workforce development work release programs as authorized by the provisions of R.S. 15:1199.9 and 1199.10 shall not be construed to prohibit an inmate from participating in a work release program authorized by the provisions of R.S. 15:711 or 1111 if the inmate is otherwise eligible for participation. However, only those inmates who have graduated from the program and have been certified or licensed as skilled craftsmen completed the one-year intensive training program and are either licensed or certified as a skilled craftsman or are working toward licensing or certification in a craft pursuant to the provisions of this Part may participate in workforce development work release as authorized by the provisions of R.S. 15:1199.9 and 1199.10.

§1199.12. Program duration; development; selection of craft

D.

(2) Upon completion of the one-year intensive training program, the inmate shall qualify for any necessary examination to become a skilled craftsman provided the inmate is otherwise eligible and fulfills the requirements required for licensing or certification in the selected craft. If the inmate is not qualified for licensing or certification in the selected craft upon completion of the one-year intensive training program, the inmate may qualify for any available continuing training, including apprenticeship, or similar on-the-job training required for certification or licensing in the selected craft.

(3) The inmate shall take any necessary examination required for certification or licensing as a skilled craftsman in the selected craft if the inmate is otherwise eligible and fulfills the requirements for taking the examination.

(4) Upon successful completion of any certification or licensing as a skilled craftsman, the inmate shall begin a one-year workforce development work release program. The department may provide by rule for the crediting of work release to fulfill the requirements of Paragraph (2) of this Subsection.

F. The provisions of this Part shall not be construed to relieve an inmate from meeting any certification or licensing requirements for a selected craft established by a professional licensing board or association or which are otherwise provided for by law.

AMENDMENT NO. 3
On page 1, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

"§5. Records in custody of governor

A. This Chapter shall not apply to any of the books, records, writings, accounts, letter books, photographs or copies thereof, ordinarily kept in the custody or control of the governor in the usual course of the duties and business of his office. However, the provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to any agency transferred or placed within the office of the governor or any agency transferred or placed within any agency within the office of the governor by R.S. 36:4(V) and 4.1. Records in the custody or control of the executive office of the governor shall be subject to the provisions of this Chapter; however, any such record shall remain confidential for a period of time not to exceed three years from the creation or receipt of the record if the governor determines that confidentiality of the record is necessary.

B. The provisions of Subsection A of this Section shall not apply to any agency transferred or placed within the office of the governor.

C. The provisions of this Section shall not prevent any person otherwise herein authorized so to do from inspecting, examining, copying, or obtaining a reproduction of any books, records, papers, accounts, or other documents record pertaining to any money or monies or any financial transactions in the control of or handled by or through the governor.

D. For purposes of this Section, the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

1. "Executive office of the governor" shall mean the governor, his chief of staff, and his executive counsel.

2. "Record" shall mean any of the materials defined as "public records" by R.S. 44:1(A)(2)(a); however, to the extent provided by this Section, such material shall be confidential.

E. Notwithstanding any provision of this Chapter to the contrary, any record prepared, possessed, or created by the governor or any agent of the governor related to the proposed Cyber Innovation Center to support the Air Force Cyber Command shall remain confidential until August 15, 2010.
