"A. Each official elected from a voting district having a population of five thousand or more persons shall disclose the information required by Subsection B of this Section. The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to a statewide elected official.

B.(1) The following information shall be disclosed:

(a) The name, address, job title, salary, and date of employment of any person who is directly hired by the elected official to serve as an agency head in the agency of the elected official and who made a contribution or loan in excess of one thousand dollars to a campaign of the elected official and the amount of any such contribution or loan to a campaign.

(b) The name, address, position held, date of appointment, and amount of any compensation provided for such position of any person who is appointed by the elected official to a board or commission which has the authority to expend, disburse, or invest ten thousand dollars or more of funds in a fiscal year and who made a contribution or loan in excess of one thousand dollars to a campaign of such elected official and the amount of any such contribution or loan to a campaign.

(2) The information required to be disclosed by this Subsection shall be filed each year as part of the elected official's annual financial disclosure statement required by this Part and shall include only those persons who contributed or made a loan to a campaign of the elected official and who were hired or appointed within one year of the contribution or loan. This information shall be included in the report which covers the time period in which the employment or appointment occurred.

C. Each elected official included in Subsection A of this Section may submit to the Board of Ethics a list of each position the holder of which the official reasonably believes he is required to disclose pursuant to this Section as part of his annual financial disclosure statement required by this Part. If the official discloses the information required by this Section for each person holding a position on the list he submitted to the Board of Ethics as part of his annual financial disclosure statement, such official shall be in compliance with the provisions of this Section. However, if the Board of Ethics determines that information concerning a person holding any position not included in the list is required to be disclosed pursuant to this Section, the board shall notify the official, and the official shall provide the required information no later than the thirtieth day after the notification from the board.

D.(1) Each person who is directly hired by a statewide elected official to serve as an agency head and who made a contribution or loan in excess of one thousand dollars to a campaign of the statewide elected official or a contribution as defined in R.S. 42:1125 in excess of one thousand dollars shall disclose his name, address, job title, salary, date of employment, and the amount of any such contribution or loan to a campaign or contribution as defined in R.S. 42:1125 to the Board of Ethics. If the person is required by law to file an annual financial disclosure statement pursuant to this Part, the person shall include the information required by this Paragraph in his annual financial disclosure statement. If the person is not otherwise required to file an annual financial disclosure statement pursuant to this Part, such person shall disclose the information required by this Paragraph no later than May fifteenth each year in the manner prescribed by the Board of Ethics.

(2) Each person who is appointed by a statewide elected official to a board or commission which has the authority to expend, disburse, or invest ten thousand dollars or more of funds in a fiscal year and who made a contribution or loan in excess of one thousand dollars to a campaign of the statewide elected official or a contribution as defined in R.S. 42:1125 in excess of one thousand dollars shall disclose his name, address, position held, date of appointment, amount of any compensation provided for such position, and the amount of any such contribution or loan to a campaign or contribution as defined in R.S. 42:1125 to the Board of Ethics. Each such person shall include the information required by this Paragraph on his annual financial statement which is required by this Part.

E. This Section shall be subject to the same provisions for enforcement and penalties for violation as those applicable to provisions for filing the public servant's financial disclosure statement. However, if the person required to disclose information pursuant to this Section is not otherwise required to file a financial disclosure statement pursuant to this Part, such person shall be subject to the same provisions for enforcement and penalties applicable to provisions for filing financial disclosure statements by the elected official who hired or appointed the persons.
