On page 3, delete lines 1 through 7 in their entirety and insert the following:

"A. Any testimony transcript electronically certified by an officer as defined in Code of Civil Procedure Article 1434(B) via a public key infrastructure (PKI) or hash-and-link cryptographical time stamp service provider shall not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form. Any such testimony transcript, signature, or record in electronic form shall have the full effect of law.

B. Any electronic application used to attach a digital signature to a testimony transcript shall have security measures in place that insure the authenticity of the digital signature, including secure user identification name and password protection to ensure private and secure access to the owner's personal digital signature.

C. The owner of a digital signature shall not share his digital signature user identification name or password with any other person or entity.

D. If a law requires a signature, an electronic signature as described in Subsection A of this Section applied with an electronic application as described in Subsection B of this Section shall satisfy the law.

Section 2. Code of Civil Procedure Articles 1445 and 1446(A)(1) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Art. 1445. Submission to witness; changes; signing

When the testimony is fully transcribed and certified, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, in paper or electronic form, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within thirty days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Article 1456 the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part. A video deposition does not have to comply with the requirements of reading and signing by the deponents.
Art. 1446. Certification by officer; custody of deposition; exhibits; copies; notice of availability for inspection or copying; cost of originals and copies of transcripts

A.(1) The officer as defined in Article 1434(B) shall in the text of certification on the deposition attest that the witness was duly sworn and that the deposition is a true and accurate record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked “Deposition of (here insert name of witness)” and shall promptly send it by United States mail or by courier to the party at whose request the deposition was taken, who shall become the custodian of the deposition. Review and certify either the printed deposition by hand signing and sealing it with his CSR Board provided seal or the electronic deposition file by attaching an electronic signature as described in R.S. 9:2603.2(B) utilizing a public key infrastructure (PKI) or hash-and-link cryptographic time stamp service provider as described in R.S. 9:2603.2(A). He shall then promptly deliver either the printed deposition by courier, United States mail, or other professional delivery service or the secured electronic deposition file via email, secure ftp server or electronic media to the party at whose request the deposition was taken, who shall become the custodian of the deposition. The original of the paper or electronic deposition shall not be filed in the record, but shall be made available upon request to all other parties in the matter for inspection or copying. The failure or lack of filing such original of the paper or electronic deposition in the record shall not affect the use or admissibility of the original at trial or by the court if otherwise authorized or provided by law.
