"A. Any person who, after having been convicted within this state of a felony or adjudicated a delinquent under Title VIII of the Louisiana Children’s Code for the commission of a felony grade violation of either the Louisiana Controlled Dangerous Substances Law involving the manufacture, distribution, or possession with intent to distribute a controlled dangerous substance or a crime of violence as listed in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, or who, after having been convicted under the laws of any other state or of the United States, or any foreign government of a crime which, if committed in this state would be a felony, thereafter commits any subsequent felony within this state, upon conviction of said felony, shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the second felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life, then the sentence to imprisonment shall be for two-thirds the longest period prescribed for a first conviction.

(2)(a) If the second felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life, then the sentence to imprisonment shall be for two-thirds the longest period prescribed for a first conviction.

(b) If the second felony and the prior felony are sex offenses as defined in R.S. 15:541, or the prior felony would be a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541, except it occurred prior to June 18, 1992, or the conviction was obtained under the laws of any other state, the United States, or any foreign government, the person shall be sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for a determinate term not less than two-thirds of the longest possible sentence for the conviction and not more than three times the longest possible sentence prescribed for a first conviction.

(3) If the third felony and the two prior felonies are felonies defined as a crime of violence under R.S. 14:2(B), a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:540 et seq. when the victim is under the age of eighteen at the time of commission of the offense or any part thereof, the person shall be imprisoned for the remainder of his natural life, without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence.

(4) If the third felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life then:

(a) The person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a determinate term not less than two-thirds of the longest possible sentence for the conviction and not more than twice the longest possible sentence prescribed for a first conviction; or

(b) If the third felony and the two prior felonies are felonies defined as a crime of violence under R.S. 14:2(B), a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:540 et seq. when the victim is under the age of eighteen at the time of commission of the offense, or as a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law punishable by imprisonment for ten years or more, or any other crimes punishable by imprisonment for twelve years or more, or any combination of such crimes, the person shall be imprisoned for the remainder of his natural life, without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence.

(4) If the fourth or subsequent felony is such that, upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life then:

(a) The person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for the fourth or subsequent felony for a determinate term not less than the longest prescribed for a first conviction but in no event less than twenty years and not more than his natural life; or

(b) If the fourth felony and two of the prior felonies are felonies defined as a crime of violence under R.S. 14:2(B), a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:540 et seq. when the victim is under the age of eighteen at the time of commission of the offense, or as a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law punishable by imprisonment for ten years or more, or of any other crime punishable by imprisonment for twelve years or more, or any combination of such crimes, the person shall be imprisoned for the remainder of his natural life, without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence:

(2) (a) Attempted first degree murder.
(b) Attempted second degree murder.
(c) Manslaughter.
(d) Armed robbery.
(e) Forcible rape.
(f) Simple rape.

Rep. Wooton sent up floor amendments which were read as follows:

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS
Amendments proposed by Representative Wooton to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 476 by Senator N. Gautreaux

AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMENDMENT NO. 2
On page 1, line 3, after "bodies;" delete the remainder of the line and delete line 4 and insert "to provide for the application of the laws relative to public records to the office of the governor and agencies and officials within the office of the governor; and to provide for related"

AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 1, delete lines 8 through 16 and insert the following:

"§5. Records of the governor
A. This Chapter shall not apply to any records having been used, being in use, possessed, or retained for use by the governor in the usual course of the duties and business of his office relating to the deliberative process of the governor, intra office communications of the governor and his internal staff, the governor’s security and schedule, or communications with or the security and schedule of the governor’s spouse or children.

Records of the office of the governor shall be public records and shall be subject to the provisions of this Chapter.

B. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, a record of the office of the governor that reflects pre-decisional mental impressions, advice, proposals, or opinions created for the purpose of assisting the governor in the formulation of a decision in the usual course of the duties and business of his office shall be privileged from disclosure.

(2)(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, any record of the office of the governor pertaining to the schedule of the governor, his spouse, or his child which record contains security details which if public could impair the safety of the governor, his spouse, or his child shall be confidential.

(b) Nothing in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph shall be interpreted or construed in a manner to make all records concerning a meeting or event the governor attends and transportation related thereto confidential; however, the governor may keep a record concerning a meeting or event the governor attends and transportation related thereto privileged for a period not to exceed seven days from the occurrence of the meeting or event.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Subsection, the provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Section Subsection shall not apply to the records of any agency, office, or department transferred or placed within the office of the governor or to the records of any other executive branch agency.

C. Notwithstanding Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, a record limited to pre-decisional advice and recommendations to the governor concerning budgeting in the custody of any agency or department headed by an unclassified gubernatorial appointee shall be privileged for six months from the date such record is prepared.

D. For purposes of this Section:

(1) "Deliberative process" means the process by which decisions and policies are formulated.

(2) "Internal staff of the governor" means the governor, chief of staff, executive counsel, director of policy, and employees under their supervision. Internal staff shall not mean any person employed in any other executive agency, including those designated by state law as housed in or transferred to the office of the governor.

(3) Records "relating to the deliberative process of the governor" means all forms of pre-decisional advice, opinions, deliberations, or recommendations made for the purpose of assisting the governor in the usual course of the duties and business of his office.

E. Notwithstanding any provision of this Chapter, the state police shall maintain a travel log identifying the date and location of all travel by the governor in a state police helicopter, which record shall be available for inspection and copying in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. Entries to the state police helicopter travel log shall be made within seven days after the date of travel.

D. (1) The office of the governor shall preserve all records of his office in accordance with law, including those records made privileged or confidential pursuant to Subsection B of this Section.

(2) At the conclusion of the term of office of the governor, the governor shall transfer all records of his office either to the custody of the Department of State or to the custody of a Louisiana public postsecondary educational institution selected by the governor.

(3) A record that is made privileged or confidential pursuant to Subsection B of this Section shall remain privileged or confidential until the lapse of a time period established by the transferring governor which shall not exceed ten years from the date the record was created. After the lapse of the time period, the record shall be public and subject to inspection, examination, copying, and reproduction in the manner provided in this Chapter.

Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."
Point of Order

Rep. Ligi asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled that the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.
