AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 2, delete line 5 in its entirety and insert the following:

"(2) Notwithstanding any provision of this constitution to the contrary, the property assessment of a property for which this exemption has been claimed, to the extent of seven thousand five hundred dollars, shall not be treated as taxable property for purposes of any subsequent reappraisals and valuation for millage adjustment purposes under Article VII, Section 23(B) of this constitution. The decrease in the total amount of ad valorem tax collected by a taxing authority as a result of the exemption shall be absorbed by the taxing authority and shall not create any additional tax liability for other taxpayers in the taxing district as a result of any subsequent reappraisal and valuation or millage adjustment. Implementation of the exemption authorized in this Paragraph shall neither trigger nor be cause for a reappraisal of property or an adjustment of millages pursuant to the provisions of Article VII, Section 23(B) of this constitution.

(3) The exemption provided for in this Paragraph shall only extend and apply in a parish if it is established through an election which shall be called by either an ordinance or a resolution from the parish governing authority. The proposition shall state that the exemption shall extend and apply in the parish and become effective only after the question of its adoption has been approved by a majority of the registered voters of the parish voting in an election held for that purpose."

AMENDMENT NO. 8

On page 2, delete line 15 in its entirety and insert the following:

"To exempt from ad valorem tax, in addition to the homestead exemption, the next seventy-five thousand dollars of value of property"

AMENDMENT NO. 9

On page 2, line 20, after "property" and before the period "." insert a semicolon ";" and insert the following:

"to require the taxing authority to absorb any decrease in the total amount of ad valorem taxes collected as a result of this exemption; to prohibit the exemption from creating any additional tax liability for other property taxpayers; to prohibit implementation of the exemption from triggering reappraisal of property or adjustment of millages; provides that the exemption shall only extend and apply if established through an election called by the local governing authority and approved by a majority of the registered voters in an election held for that purpose"

AMENDMENT NO. 10

On page 2, line 21, after "Section" change "21(C)(20)" to "21(K)"

K.(1) A Louisiana driver's license or identification card, regardless of its class, issued to any person who has been convicted on or after August 15, 2010, of a second or subsequent felony violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law shall contain a restriction code which declares that the license or identification card holder has been convicted of a felony violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law. Upon the second or subsequent conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Public Safety and Corrections. The secretary of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections shall comply with the provisions of this Subsection, and the driver's license or identification card shall include the words "drug offender", which shall be orange in color.

(2) Any person to whom this Subsection applies shall obtain a driver's license or identification card as provided for in this Subsection immediately following the period of incarceration, if he is incarcerated. Once the driver's license or identification card as authorized by the provisions of this Subsection has been issued, the person shall carry it upon his person at all times.

(3) The department shall issue a license required pursuant to this Subsection for a period of four years. When the department issues a license or identification card pursuant to this Subsection, the license or identification card shall be valid for a period of four years from the date of issuance.

(4) The driver's license or identification card containing the restriction code provided for in this Subsection shall be carried for a total of eight years.

(5)(a) The provisions of this Subsection shall only apply to a person who has been convicted of a second or subsequent felony violation for producing, manufacturing, distributing, or dispensing or possession with intent to produce, manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled dangerous substance.

(b) In addition to any other fine or penalty imposed by the court on an offender as described in Subparagraph (a), the court shall impose a fine of twenty-five dollars. After collection by the clerk of court of the additional fine, the clerk shall remit such monies, on a monthly basis, to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, to be used to implement the provisions of this Subsection.

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 14, after "report." and before "The" insert the following :

"The report shall be due no later than the first day of February of each year. The office of facility planning and control shall submit the report on the capital outlay projects which it administers. State agencies which are authorized to administer their own capital outlay appropriations either pursuant to R.S. 39:113, or by specific reference in a Capital Outlay Budget Act, hereinafter referred to as "independent agencies", shall submit their respective reports for all projects which qualify for reporting.

B.(1)"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

Delete page 2 in its entirety and insert the following:

"(e) A designation as to whether or not any unspent appropriations from the original project have been reappropriated for another project or purpose.

(f) For reports by independent agencies, if the agency administers a statewide program for capital outlay expenditures, the report shall include a listing of projects within such programs which meet the criteria for reporting.

(2) Each entity which receives an appropriation of state capital outlay monies which are administered by the office of facility planning and control shall assist that office in the provision of any information with respect to a capital outlay project which may be necessary for the preparation of the annual report required under Subsection A of this Section.

(a) The commissioner of administration shall develop a format for the submission of information to the office of facility planning and control, as well as prescribe any necessary deadlines related thereto. The commissioner of administration shall share the format with the independent agencies for their use in preparation of their reports.

(b) In the event that a recipient entity fails to submit the requisite information to the office of facility planning and control in accordance with the requirements established by law and any other requirements prescribed by the commissioner of administration relating to the submission of such information, the office shall provide written notification of such deficiency to the member of the House of Representatives and the Senate in whose district the project is located. Such notification shall occur no later than January seventh of each year. The failure of any recipient entity to submit the requisite information to the office of facility planning and control in time for its inclusion in the report to the committees shall result in the exclusion of the project from the governor's next capital outlay budget submission, and unused cash or bond proceeds for the project shall be subject to reappropriation. In addition to the annual report, the office of facility planning and control shall provide the committees with a list of the capital outlay projects for which they were unable to receive information in time for inclusion in the annual report. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the commissioner of administration is directed to exclude such projects from the governor's capital outlay budget submission, unless specifically directed otherwise by either of the committees. Committee action shall be evidenced by a motion approved by majority vote of the members of each committee who are present and voting."
