"(3) A taxpayer shall not be subject to the payment of attorney fees unless the local collector is the prevailing party entitled to reimbursement of attorney fees and costs as provided for in Subsection B of this Section.

B.(1) Except as otherwise provided for in Paragraph (3) of Subsection A of this Section, the prevailing party in a dispute, contest, or other controversy involving the determination of sales and use tax due shall be entitled to reimbursement of attorney fees and costs, not to exceed ten percent of the taxes, penalties, and interest at issue, unless the position of the non-prevailing party is substantially justified. The prevailing party is defined as the party which has substantially prevailed with respect to the amount in controversy or substantially prevailed with respect to the most significant issue or set of issues presented. A position is substantially justified if it has a reasonable basis in law and fact. The reimbursement amount for attorney fees and costs shall be subject to the discretion of the court as to reasonableness.

(2) The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to amounts timely paid under protest by the taxpayer with a return that is not delinquent, or paid under protest to a vendor in accordance with law, as provided for in Subsection A of this Section.

(3) A local collector, which is a non-prevailing party in a collection action, assessment appeal, or an action to recover amounts paid under protest, shall be reimbursed by the local taxing authorities for attorney fees and costs incurred by the tax collector and recoverable as a deduction from current collections.

(4) The provisions of this Section shall only apply to matters referred to private counsel by the local collector.

C. A local collector may waive the attorney fee award as provided for in this Section. A waiver of attorney fees by a local collector shall be considered timely if the notice of the waiver is mailed to a taxpayer by certified mail, return receipt requested, within fifteen days of the filing of a suit. If a local collector timely waives its attorney fee award, a taxpayer may not recover attorney fees as provided for in Subsection B of this Section."

"(2)(a) In addition, the court may order the defendant to be equipped with a global positioning monitoring system as a condition of release on bail pursuant to Paragraph B of this Article.

(b) In determining whether to order a defendant, as a condition of release on bail, to participate in global positioning system monitoring, the court shall consider the likelihood that the defendant's participation in global positioning system monitoring will deter the defendant from seeking to harm, injure, or otherwise threaten the victim prior to trial.

(c) The defendant shall only be released on bail pursuant to the provisions of this Article if he agrees to pay the cost of the global positioning monitoring system and monitoring fees associated with the device, or agrees to perform community service in lieu of paying such costs.

B.(1)(a) If the court orders the defendant to be equipped with a global positioning monitoring system as a condition of release on bail, the court may order the defendant, with the informed consent of the victim, to provide the victim of the charged crime with an electronic receptor device which is capable of receiving the global positioning system information and which notifies the victim if the defendant is located within an established proximity to the victim.

(b) The court, in consultation with the victim, shall determine which areas the defendant shall be prohibited from accessing and shall establish the proximity to the victim within which a defendant shall be excluded. In making this determination, the court shall consider a list, provided by the victim, which includes those areas from which the victim desires the defendant to be excluded.

(2) The victim shall be furnished with telephone contact information for the local law enforcement agency in order to request immediate assistance if the defendant is located within that proximity to the victim.

(3) The court shall order the global positioning monitoring system provider to program the system to notify local law enforcement if the defendant violates the order.

(4) The victim, at any time, may request that the court terminate the victim's participation in the global positioning monitoring system of the defendant.

(5) The court shall not impose sanctions on the victim for refusing to participate in global positioning system monitoring provided for in this Paragraph.
