(b) In determining whether to order a defendant, as a condition of release on bail, to participate in global positioning system monitoring, the court shall consider the likelihood that the defendant’s participation in global positioning system monitoring will deter the defendant from seeking to harm, injure, or otherwise threaten the victim prior to trial.

(c) The defendant shall only be released on bail pursuant to the provisions of this Article if he agrees to pay the cost of the global positioning monitoring system and monitoring fees associated with the device, or agrees to perform community service in lieu of paying such costs.

B.(1)(a) If the court orders the defendant to be equipped with a global positioning monitoring system as a condition of release on bail, the court may order the defendant, with the informed consent of the victim, to provide the victim of the charged crime with an electronic receptor device which is capable of receiving the global positioning system information and which notifies the victim if the defendant is located within an established proximity to the victim.

(b) The court, in consultation with the victim, shall determine which areas the defendant shall be prohibited from accessing and shall establish the proximity to the victim within which a defendant shall be excluded. In making this determination, the court shall consider a list, provided by the victim, which includes those areas from which the victim desires the defendant to be excluded.

2. The victim shall be furnished with telephone contact information for the local law enforcement agency in order to request immediate assistance if the defendant is located within that proximity to the victim.

3. The court shall order the global positioning monitoring system provider to program the system to notify local law enforcement if the defendant violates the order.

4. The victim, at any time, may request that the court terminate the victim’s participation in the global positioning monitoring system of the defendant.
(5) The court shall not impose sanctions on the victim for refusing to participate in global positioning system monitoring provided for in this Paragraph.

"§1002. Coverage of vocational-technical students, unmarried dependent children and grandchildren by the Office of Group Benefits

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, and in particular the provisions of R.S. 22:1001, 1003, and 1003.1, coverage of dependent children or grandchildren by the Office of Group Benefits shall be controlled by this Section as to limitations relative to age, marital status, and full-time student status.

B. Except as otherwise provided by Subsection D of this Section, for those dependent children or grandchildren who are unmarried but who are not full-time students, coverage shall extend to those under the age of twenty-one years.

C. For those dependent children or grandchildren who are unmarried but who are full-time students, coverage shall extend to those under the age of twenty-four years.

D. Coverage for an unmarried dependent child or grandchild who is a full-time student and who develops a mental or nervous condition, problem, or disorder which renders the child or grandchild, in the opinion of a qualified psychiatrist, subject to a second opinion if deemed necessary by the Office of Group Benefits, unable to attend school as a full-time student and from holding self-sustaining employment shall extend until the child or grandchild reaches the age of twenty-four years.

E. (1) Children, Unmarried dependent children who attend are enrolled as students at an accredited college or university or at a vocational, technical, vocational-technical, or trade school or institute in Louisiana on a full-time basis shall be considered as full-time students for purposes of coverage by family group health and accident insurance policies issued in this state.

(2) In order to qualify for coverage as a dependent of a grandparent, an unmarried child must be in the legal custody of and reside with the grandparent.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all policies issued more than ninety days following July 31, 1974. Any insurer who, on July 31, 1974, has health and accident insurance policies in force shall have until July 31, 1975 to convert such existing policies to conform to the provisions of this section.
