§1299.35.0. Legislative intent

Whereas in Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000), Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia wrote that "the Court should return this matter to the people—where the Constitution, by its silence on the subject, left it—and let them decide, State by State, whether this practice should be allowed." It is the intention of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana to regulate prohibit abortion to the extent permitted by the decisions of the United States Supreme Court. The Legislature does solemnly declare and find in reaffirmation of the longstanding policy of this State, that the unborn child is a human being from the time of conception and is, therefore, a legal person for purposes of the unborn child's right to life and is entitled to the right to life from conception under the laws and Constitution of this State. Further, the Legislature finds and declares that the longstanding policy of this State is to protect the right to life of the unborn child from conception by prohibiting abortion impermissible only because of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and that, therefore, if those decisions of the United States Supreme Court are ever reversed or modified or the United States Constitution is amended to allow protection of the unborn then the former policy of this State to prohibit abortions shall be enforced. An unborn child shall be considered as a natural person for whatever relates to its interests from the moment of conception or biological beginning."
