"A. Board of Trustees.

** * * *

(8) The Board of Trustees shall elect from its membership a Chairman and shall by a unanimous vote appoint a Secretary who shall be one of its members. The Board of Trustees shall engage such actuarial and other services as shall be required to transact the business of the retirement system. The compensation of all persons engaged by the Board of Trustees, and all other expenses of the Board necessary for the operation of the retirement system shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the Board of Trustees shall approve.

(9) The Board of Trustees shall engage such actuarial and other services as shall be required to transact the business of the retirement system. The compensation of all persons engaged by the Board of Trustees, and all other expenses of the board necessary for the operation of the retirement system shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the Board of Trustees shall approve.

(9)(10) The Board of Trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuation of the various funds of the retirement system, and for checking the experience of the system.

(44)(11) The Board of Trustees shall keep a record of all of its proceedings which shall be open to public inspection. It shall publish annually a report showing the fiscal transactions of the retirement system for the preceding fiscal year, the amount of the accumulated cash and securities of the system, and the last balance sheet showing the financial condition of the system by means of an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the retirement system.

(44)(12)(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the members of the board of trustees of the Harbor Police Retirement System shall receive for attendance at meetings of the board a per diem of seventy-five dollars per meeting, provided funds are available for this purpose and Civil Service rules are followed.

(b) The members of the board of trustees shall receive a per diem for each meeting of the board. However, no member of the board shall be eligible for a per diem for more than six board meetings in any year.

B. Legal advisor. The Attorney General shall be the legal advisor of the Board of Trustees.

C. Medical board advisor. The Board of Trustees shall designate a Medical Board to be composed of three firm to provide medical advice to the trustees related to disability and other medical determinations. The trustees will obtain the advice of physicians not eligible to participate in the retirement system to provide such advice. If required, other physicians may be employed to report on special cases. The board of trustees may use Medical Board shall advisor firm to provide physicians to arrange for and pass upon all medical examinations required under the provisions of this Subpart, and the physicians approved by the trustees shall investigate all essential statements and certificates by or on behalf of a member in connection with an application for disability retirement, and shall report in writing to the Board of Trustees its conclusion and recommendations upon the matters referred to it.

D. Actuary, duties and actuarial assumptions. (1) The Board of Trustees and the Board of Commissioners of the Port of New Orleans shall jointly designate an actuary who shall be the technical advisor of the Board of Trustees on actuarial matters regarding the operation of the fund created by the provisions of this Subpart, and shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith.

(2) Immediately after the establishment of the retirement system, the actuary shall make such investigation of the mortality, service and compensation experience of the members of the system as he shall recommend and the Board of Trustees shall adopt, and on the basis of such investigation he shall recommend for adoption by the Board of Trustees such tables and such rates as are required in Subparagraphs (3)(a) and (b) of this Section. The Board of Trustees shall adopt all actuarial tables, assumptions, and certify rates, and as soon as practicable thereafter file. The actuary shall make such valuation, valuations and determinations based on such tables, assumptions, and rates of the assets and liabilities of the funds created by this Subpart.

(3) In the year of nineteen hundred seventy-two, and at least once in each five-year period thereafter, and upon approval of the Board of Trustees, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation into the mortality, service and compensation experience of the members and beneficiaries of the retirement system, and shall make a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the system, and taking into account the result of such investigation and valuation, the Board of Trustees shall:

(a) Adopt the retirement system such mortality, service, and other tables and actuarial assumptions as shall be deemed necessary.

(b) Certify the rates of contribution payable by the employer on account of new entrants.

(4) On the basis of such tables and actuarial assumptions as the Board of Trustees shall adopt, the actuary shall make an annual valuation of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the system created by this Subpart.

(5) Unless different actuarial assumptions are formally adopted and disclosed, the following assumptions shall be used in determining actuarial equivalents:

(i) Interest shall be compounded annually at the rate of seven percent per annum.

(ii) Annuity rates shall be determined on the basis of the Group Annuity Unisex Mortality Tables - most current mortality table recommended by the Society of Actuaries for retirement systems.

(iii) Effective July 1, 2011, interest for calculating transfers into the HPRS and for buying back refunded service shall be eight and one-quarter percent per annum.

(b) The board of trustees may authorize the use of interest and mortality rates in determining the actuarial equivalents which are different from the actuarial assumptions used for other purposes in this Subpart. Any change in such actuarial assumptions shall be considered a part of this retirement system and shall be considered an amendment to the provisions of this Section. In order to be effective, such change must be formally adopted by the board of trustees and disclosed to members of the retirement system.

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 6, between lines 2 and 3, insert the following:

"Section 5. If the secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or the director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau by final administrative decision determines that R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) or application of R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) to any person or circumstance is considered to be in conflict with the federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-289), or any rules or regulations adopted pursuant to that act, R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) shall be held invalid; however, the remainder of Louisiana law implementing the federal act or the application of the provisions thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected. In the event the provisions of R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) are null and void or otherwise held invalid, and until such time, any person acting according to this provision of invalidity shall be deemed in compliance with the provisions of Louisiana law implementing the federal act and any transactions of any type covered in Louisiana law implementing the federal act are hereby deemed to be lawful and in full force and effect."
Section 6. Any licensing requirement for any person operating pursuant to the exception found in R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11), should the provisions of R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) be null and void or otherwise held invalid, shall not be effective until one hundred eighty days after the secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or the director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau makes such a determination of invalidity in writing. This period shall not commence until the commissioner of financial institutions has concurred in this determination and posted official notice of this action on the Office of Financial Institution’s official website.

Section 7. If any provision of R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) or the application thereof is null and void, or otherwise held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of R.S. 6:1087 which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application and to this end the provisions of R.S. 6:1087(E)(10) or (F)(11) are hereby declared severable."

"Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 40:1299.35.0 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1299.35.0. Legislative intent

Whereas in Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000), Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia wrote that "the Court should return this matter to the people–where the Constitution, by its silence on the subject, left it–and let them decide, State by State, whether this practice should be allowed," it is the intention of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana to regulate prohibit abortion to the extent permitted by the decisions of the United States Supreme Court. The Legislature does solemnly declare and find in reaffirmation of the longstanding policy of this State, that the unborn child is a human being from the time of conception and is, therefore, a legal person for purposes of the unborn child's right to life and is entitled to the right to life from conception under the laws and Constitution of this State.

Further, the Legislature finds and declares that the longstanding policy of this State is to protect the right to life of the unborn child from conception by prohibiting abortion impermissible only because of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and that, therefore, if those decisions of the United States Supreme Court are ever reversed or modified or the United States Constitution is amended to allow protection of the unborn then the former policy of this State to prohibit abortions shall be enforced. An unborn child shall be considered as a natural person for whatever relates to its interests from the moment of conception or biological beginning.
