The following message from the Governor was received and read:

June 12, 2011

The Honorable Alfred W. Speer
Clerk of the House
State Capitol
Baton Rouge, LA 70802

Re: House Bill No. 591 by Representative Ritchie

Dear Mr. Speer:

House Bill 591 repeals the June 30, 2012 sunset on the 4/20 of one cent tax on cigarettes and makes the tax permanent. I have made a commitment to the taxpayers of Louisiana to oppose all attempts to raise taxes.

For this reason, I have vetoed House Bill No. 591 and hereby return it to the House of Representatives.

Sincerely,

Bobby Jindal
Governor

Lies over under the rules.

Message from the Senate

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 5, below line 30, add:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby call a constitutional convention if the Constitutional Convention Study Commission determines that a constitutional convention is needed, such convention to convene on September 3, 2013, at 12:00 noon and to be for the purpose of framing a new constitution for the state of Louisiana, and the legislature does further include in the call for the convention the terms, conditions, and provisions set forth in this Concurrent Resolution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, relative to the convention delegates, that:

(1) There shall be one hundred twenty-five delegates to the convention as follows:

(a) One delegate shall be elected from each of the districts from which members of the House of Representatives of the Louisiana Legislature are elected in 2011.

(b) The members of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission shall be delegates to the convention.

(c)(i) Five additional delegates shall be appointed not later than December 3, 2012, as follows:

(aa) A representative of the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry appointed by the association.

(bb) A representative of the Louisiana AFL-CIO appointed by the Louisiana AFL-CIO.

(cc) A representative of the Louisiana League of Women Voters appointed by the league.

(dd) A representative of the Louisiana National Association for the Advancement of Colored People appointed by the association.

(ee) A representative of the Louisiana Municipal Association and the Police Jury Association of Louisiana appointed by the joint concurrence of the two associations.

(ii) These appointments shall be made and shall be submitted to the secretary of state not later than December 3, 2012.

(2) The secretary of state shall issue a commission to each delegate.

(3) Each delegate to the convention shall be an elector of the state of Louisiana, shall be at least eighteen years of age, and shall be a resident of the state of Louisiana, and each delegate elected from a representative district shall be a resident of the district from which he is elected at the time he qualifies as a candidate for election as a delegate.

(4) The election or appointment of any public official or public employee as a delegate to the convention and his service in the convention or as a member of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission and his service on the commission and the appointment of any public official or public employee to the staff of the convention or the staff of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission and his service on such staff shall not be construed to constitute dual officeholding or dual employment within the prohibitions of Part III of Chapter 2 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

(5) A delegate elected from a representative district shall be considered an elected official within the scope of and subject to the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; a delegate who is not an elected delegate, a member of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission, or a member of the staff of the convention or of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission shall be considered a public employee within the scope of and subject to the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; for purposes of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, the agency and the governmental entity of delegates and staff members of the convention shall be the convention and the agency and the governmental entity of members and staff members of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission shall be both the commission and the convention; and for purposes of any other office or employment of any such delegate, commission member, or staff member, the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 shall remain applicable.

(6) The delegates to the convention, the staff of the convention, and the members and staff of the Constitutional Convention Study Commission shall be subject to the public bribery provisions of the laws of this state.

(7) Each candidate for election as a delegate to the constitutional convention and each elected delegate shall be subject to the provisions of the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act, and the office of delegate shall be a district office for the purposes of that Act.

(8) Any attorney at law serving as a delegate to the convention shall be entitled to the absolute right of the continuance of any case in which he is bona fide counsel of record in any court of the state during his attendance upon the sessions and work of the convention.

(9)(a) The one hundred five delegates to the convention to be elected from representative districts shall be elected at a special election.

(b) The special primary election for such delegates shall be held at the primary election on Tuesday, November 6, 2012, and, if necessary, the special general election for delegates shall be held at a statewide election to be held on Saturday, December 1, 2012.

(c) The governor shall issue a proclamation and give notice of the election to be held as provided in this Section not less than forty-five days before the date of the election as fixed in this Section.

(d) Each person desiring to become a candidate for election as a delegate from a representative district shall qualify as a candidate from the particular representative district he seeks to represent by filing a statement of candidacy with the secretary of state not later than the closing of the qualifying period for candidates in the primary election on November 6, 2012, as otherwise provided by law, and qualification as a candidate shall be without regard to party affiliation.

(e) The election of a person to the office of delegate shall be in accordance with provisions for the election of candidates for public office in the Louisiana Election Code, and except as otherwise provided in this Concurrent Resolution, the primary and general elections for convention delegates shall be conducted and the results thereof published and promulgated in accordance with the Louisiana Election Code.

(f) All qualified electors shall be entitled to vote in their respective election precincts without regard to party affiliation.

(g) The votes for candidates for the office of delegate shall be tabulated as in the case of candidates for public office.

(h) The costs of the elections authorized herein for election of delegates shall be paid as provided by the Louisiana Election Code for payment of costs of elections in which a candidate for the state legislature appears on the ballot.

(i) All offenses, prosecutions, penalties, and punishments arising out of or in connection with the elections required herein shall be governed by the applicable laws of the state.

(8) In the event of the death or the inability or unwillingness of a delegate to serve, whether before or during the convention:

(a) In the case of an elected delegate, the speaker of the House of Representatives, the president of the Senate, and the governor shall fill such vacancy within thirty days after the vacancy occurs by appointment, by unanimous consent of the three officials, of a person from the same district who possesses the qualifications for delegate.

(b) In the case of any delegate other than an elected delegate, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original selection within thirty days after the vacancy occurs.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the convention shall have the authority to frame a new constitution for the state, including such alternative provisions as it deems appropriate, which shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, but the convention is prohibited from framing any article or provision whereby:

(1) The bonded or other indebtedness of the state or of any parish, municipality, district, or other political subdivision or authority of the state would be impaired.

(2) The term of office of members of the legislature or of any other elected or of any appointed official of the state or of any political subdivision thereof would be reduced or shortened prior to the expiration of the term of office being held at the time of the adoption of the new constitution, or the salary of any such official would be reduced prior to the expiration of the term of office being held at the time of the adoption of a new constitution.

(3) The state capital is removed or could be removed from Baton Rouge.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any action to determine a question of the construction or validity of this call for a constitutional convention or to determine the scope of authority of the convention shall be brought in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court; the matter shall be tried by preference over other matters, and the court shall render a decision as soon as practicable, and that, in the event of an appeal, the appellate court shall place the matter on its preferential docket, shall hear it without delay, and shall render a decision as soon as practicable.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) The delegates to the convention shall meet in the House chamber in the State Capitol, or at such other suitable location in the capital city as shall be determined jointly by the presiding officers of the legislature, at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, September 3, 2013; that the chief justice, or in his absence any associate justice of the supreme court designated by the court, shall attend the opening of the convention and shall preside until the chairman has been elected, and that the secretary of state shall attend the opening of the convention and call the roll of the delegates, whereupon the temporary presiding officer shall administer to the delegates the following oath:

"I, . . ., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution and laws of the United States and the constitution and laws of this state and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as a delegate to the convention, according to the best of my ability and understanding, and that I will observe and obey the limitation of authority contained in the Act under which this convention has assembled. So help me God."

(2) No delegate shall be qualified to serve as such unless and until he has taken and subscribed to the required oath.

(3) After the oath has been administered, the delegates shall proceed to effect the permanent organization of the convention and shall:

(a) Adopt rules of procedure for the convention, which rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this call.

(b) Elect from among their number a chairman, a vice chairman, and such other officers as they deem necessary.

(c) Elect from among their number an executive committee, the membership of which shall be determined by the delegates but which shall include among its members all of the elected officers of the convention.

(d) Elect a chief clerical officer of the convention who shall not be a delegate and whose duties shall be provided by the rules of procedure for the convention.

(e) Take such other actions as they deem necessary to effect a permanent organization of the convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, prior to the convening of the convention, members of the House of Representatives and Senate staffs, as designated by the presiding officers of the legislature, shall prepare a draft of rules of procedure for consideration, amendment, and adoption by the convention when it convenes and that:

(1) Such proposed rules shall be based upon the rules of the constitutional convention convened in 1973, except as inconsistent with this call for the convention.

(2) The rules of procedure adopted by the convention shall be subject to later change as the delegates shall provide therein.

(3) No delegate shall be allowed to vote by proxy and the rules shall so provide.

(4) No committee of the convention, including the executive committee, shall exceed seventeen members and the rules shall so provide.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, after completing organizational activities, the convention may meet either as a full body or in committees until it completes its duties.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) As soon as possible after the members of the executive committee are elected, the executive committee shall employ a research director, research assistants, and secretarial and clerical personnel as provided in Paragraph (2) below and may also employ such other professional, research, technical, clerical, and stenographic employees as the committee shall deem necessary.

(2) The staff of the constitutional convention may include but shall not be limited to the following who shall not be delegates to the convention:

(a) A director of research who shall possess such qualifications as determined by the committee.

(b) Research assistants in such number and possessing such qualifications as determined by the committee.

(c) Personnel provided by the Louisiana State University, Tulane University, Loyola University, and Southern University law schools from the faculty as requested by the committee.

(d) Such other staff as the executive committee deems necessary.

(3) The secretary of state shall advertise for applicants for the staff of the constitutional convention and shall receive such applications for staff service prior to the first meeting of the convention and shall present the applications he has received to the executive committee on the day the convention convenes; however, if the executive committee deems necessary, it may receive additional applications after the convention convenes.

(4) Compensation of staff personnel shall be established by the executive committee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, as soon as possible after the members of the executive committee are elected, the executive committee shall prepare a budget of anticipated expenses of the convention, including staff salaries and other necessary expenditures, based on the amount of the appropriation for the convention and any other funds available for expenditure.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the executive committee may create and establish such substantive and procedural committees as it deems appropriate and that the chairman of the convention shall appoint the chairman, vice chairman, and the membership of each such committee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) Unless the legislature is in session, the House chamber and the legislative committee rooms in the State Capitol shall be available for use by the convention and its committees.

(2) If the facilities at the State Capitol are not available or are not sufficient for use by the convention or its committees, the convention or its committees shall meet at a suitable location in the capital city, which location shall be determined by the chairman of the convention, and public notice of the location shall be given and posted at suitable locations in the State Capitol.

(3) The convention shall have full authority to use the facilities and services of any board, commission, department, or agency of the state or of any political subdivision of the state, and all such entities shall cooperate with the convention to the fullest extent in furnishing services, facilities, and employees upon request, and the convention may use the facilities and services of other persons and organizations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the convention shall have full authority to accept grants, monies, aid, facilities, and services from public or private sources for the purpose of accomplishing its task of framing a new constitution and any such grants, monies, facilities, services, and donations, as well as the names of the donors thereof, shall be recorded in the record of the proceedings of the convention, and such records shall be open to inspection by any person.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the final draft of the proposed constitution shall be completed no later than June 27, 2014.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) Delegates to the convention shall receive a per diem for each day of actual attendance at meetings of the convention or of committees thereof in the amount provided for members of the legislature for attendance at legislative sessions, but no delegate shall be paid a per diem after June 27, 2014, or the date the final draft is completed, whichever is earlier.

(2) No delegate may accept any other compensation from any source for work performed as a delegate to the convention; however, if a delegate is engaged in regular, bona fide employment, should the delegate's employer choose to continue to pay compensation while the delegate is engaged in the work of the convention, such delegate may accept that compensation, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) Any appropriation for the expenses of the convention shall be used solely to defray the necessary expenses of the constitutional convention for which provision is made in this call, including the payment of per diem of delegates, salaries, and expenses of necessary employees, supplies, materials, equipment, printing, and reproduction of materials, and all other necessary expenses incurred in connection with the convention and its work.

(2) Any funds appropriated for the convention shall be withdrawn from the state treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the chairman of the convention, and all checks for the disbursement of funds shall be signed by the chairman and the vice chairman of the convention or by the chairman or vice chairman and such other person as shall be designated by the convention.

(3) The legislature shall make adequate appropriations to the convention for so long as the convention remains in existence and for so long thereafter as is necessary to assure the payment of all expenses incurred in connection with the work of the convention.

(4) The convention shall not be deemed to be a budget unit of the state and therefore shall not be subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; however, the financial books and records of the convention shall be subject to audit by the legislative auditor.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

(1) Upon completion of its work, the convention shall submit a proposed draft of a new constitution for the state to the governor.

(2) At the discretion of the convention, it may also propose and submit at the same time such alternative provisions as it deems appropriate.

(3) The constitution as drafted by the convention, together with any alternative provisions proposed for submission, shall be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection, and, within thirty days after submission of the proposed draft to the governor, he shall by proclamation call an election, to be held at the same time as the congressional primary election in 2014, for the purpose of submitting the proposed draft and any alternative provisions to the people for adoption or rejection.

(4) The election shall be held and the results shall be promulgated in accordance with the Louisiana Election Code.

(5) All electors duly qualified to vote in the state at the time of the election shall be entitled to vote without regard to party affiliation in their respective precincts on the proposition for or against adoption of the revision and on the question or questions of adoption of such alternative provisions as may be proposed by the convention.

(6) The costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the Louisiana Election Code for elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot.

(7) The convention may submit to the electors of the state the proposal for acceptance or rejection of the constitution and any alternative provisions in such form and manner as it may determine and may direct the proper election officials to take the necessary steps to effectuate the determination of the convention in presenting the proposed constitution and any alternative provisions to the electors.

(8) Adoption of the constitution and of any such alternative provisions shall require the favorable vote of a majority of the electors voting on the respective proposition.

(9) Upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state, if the constitution is ratified and adopted by the people in the election for which provision is made in this Section, the governor shall proclaim the constitution, including such alternative provisions as are adopted by the people at the election, to be the Constitution of Louisiana.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the constitution, including such alternative provisions as are so adopted, shall become effective at midnight on December 31, 2014, except as otherwise provided in the constitution adopted or in any such alternative provisions adopted."

Point of Order

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 2, delete lines 10 through 20, and insert:

"§851.4. Careless operation of a watercraft

~~Any person who shall operate any watercraft in a careless or heedless manner so as to be grossly indifferent to the person or property of other persons or at a rate of speed greater than will permit him in the exercise of reasonable care to bring the watercraft to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead shall be guilty of the crime of careless operation, punishable by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or by both.~~

A. Careless operation of a watercraft is:

(1) The failure to operate a watercraft in a careful and prudent manner so as not to endanger the life, limb, or property of any person.

(2) The failure to operate a watercraft in accordance with any of the following provisions:

(a) Vessels passing head-on shall each keep to their respective right.

(b) A vessel overtaking another vessel may do so on either side, but must grant the right-of-way to the vessel being overtaken.

(c) When vessels are on paths that cross, the vessel on the left will yield right-of-way to vessel on the right.

(d) Motorboats shall yield right-of-way to non-motor powered boats, except when being overtaken by non-powered vessels, for deep draft vessels that have to remain in narrow channels, or when vessel is towing another vessel.

(e) Motorboats must maintain a direct course when passing sailboats.

(f) A vessel approaching a landing dock or pier shall yield the right-of-way to any departing vessel.

(g) A vessel departing shoreline or tributary shall yield right-of-way to through traffic and vessels approaching shoreline or tributary.

(h) Vessels will not abruptly change course without first determining that it can be safely done without risk of collision with another vessel.

(i) If an operator fails to fully comprehend the course of an approaching vessel he must slow down immediately to a speed barely sufficient for steerageway until the other vessel has passed.

(j) Vessels yielding right-of-way shall reduce speed, stop, reverse, or alter course to avoid collision. Vessel with right-of-way shall hold course and speed. If there is danger of collision, all vessels will slow down, stop, or reverse until danger is averted.

(k) Vessels will issue warning signals in fog or weather conditions that restrict visibility.

(l) No mechanically propelled vessel shall be operated so as to traverse a course around any other vessel underway or any person swimming.

(m) In a narrow channel, vessels will keep to the right of mid-channel.

(n) Vessels approaching or passing another vessel shall be operated in such manner and at such a rate of speed as will not create a hazardous wash or wake.

(o) A seaplane on the water shall in general keep clear of all vessels and avoid impeding the navigation of all vessels.

(p) All vessels shall be operated at reasonable speeds for given conditions and situations and must be under the complete control of the operator at all times.

(q) No person shall, under any circumstances, operate a vessel in excess of an established speed or wake zone.

(r) No vessel or person shall obstruct or block a navigation channel, entrance to channel, mooring slip, landing dock, launching ramp, pier or tributary.

(s) Vessels shall keep at least 100 feet clearance of displayed diver's flag.

(t) Operator shall maintain a proper lookout.

(u) No one who currently has a Louisiana Operators license that is under a suspension may operate a motor vessel.

B. Whoever commits the crime of careless operation of a watercraft shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars, or imprisoned for not more than thirty days, or both.

§851.8. Operating a watercraft during suspension

No person shall operate a watercraft upon the waterways of this state during the period of his suspension or revocation of the privilege of such operation pursuant to R.S. 14:98.3 or R.S. 32:414 or 667."

AMENDMENT NO. 2

In Senate Committee Amendment No. 7 proposed by the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and adopted by the Senate on June 1, 2011, on page 1, delete lines 24 through 38 and delete page 2, and insert:

"§851.4. Careless operation of a watercraft

Any person who shall operate any watercraft in a careless or heedless manner so as to be grossly indifferent to the person or property of other persons or at a rate of speed greater than will permit him in the exercise of reasonable care to bring the watercraft to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead shall be guilty of the crime of careless operation, punishable by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or by both.

A. Careless operation of a watercraft is the failure to operate a watercraft in a careful and prudent manner so as to not endanger the life, limb, or property of any person, when such failure constitutes a violation of any of the following requirements:

(1) Vessels passing head-on shall each keep to their respective right.

(2) A vessel overtaking another vessel may do so on either side, but must grant the right-of-way to the vessel being overtaken.

(3) When vessels are on paths that cross, the vessel on the left will yield right-of-way to vessel on the right.

(5) Motorboats must maintain a direct course when passing sailboats.

(6) A vessel approaching a landing dock or pier shall yield the right-of-way to any departing vessel.

(7) A vessel departing shoreline or tributary shall yield right-of-way to through traffic and vessels approaching shoreline or tributary.

(8) Vessels will not abruptly change course without first determining that it can be safely done without risk of collision with another vessel.

(9) If an operator fails to fully comprehend the course of an approaching vessel he must slow down immediately to a speed barely sufficient for steerageway until the other vessel has passed.

(10) Vessels yielding right-of-way shall reduce speed, stop, reverse, or alter course to avoid collision. Vessel with right-of-way shall hold course and speed. If there is danger of collision, all vessels will slow down, stop, or reverse until danger is averted.

(11) Vessels will issue warning signals in fog or weather conditions that restrict visibility.

(12) No mechanically propelled vessel shall be operated so as to traverse a course around any other vessel underway or any person swimming.

(13) In a narrow channel, vessels will keep to the right of mid-channel.

(14) Vessels approaching or passing another vessel shall be operated in such manner and at such a rate of speed as will not create a hazardous wash or wake.

(15) A seaplane on the water shall in general keep clear of all vessels and avoid impeding the navigation of all vessels.

(16) All vessels shall be operated at reasonable speeds for given conditions and situations and must be under the complete control of the operator at all times.

(17) No person shall, under any circumstances, operate a vessel in excess of an established speed or wake zone.

(18) No vessel or person shall obstruct or block a navigation channel, entrance to channel, mooring slip, landing dock, launching ramp, pier, or tributary.

(19) Vessels shall keep at least 100 feet clearance of displayed diver's flag.

(20) Operator shall maintain a proper lookout.

B. Whoever commits the crime of careless operation of a watercraft shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than thirty days, or both."

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Rosalind Jones to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 55 by Senator Murray

AMENDMENT NO. 1

In House Committee Amendment No. 3 proposed by the House Committee on Judiciary and adopted by the House of Representatives on June 8, 2011, on page 1, line 40, delete "quarterly"

AMENDMENT NO. 2

Delete House Committee Amendment No. 7 proposed by the House Committee on Judiciary and adopted by the House of Representatives on June 8, 2011.

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 3, line 2, change "D. Any" to "D.(1) Except as provided in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, any"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 3, between lines 17 and 18, insert the following:

"(2) Beginning on January 1, 2012, any wine producer, manufacturer, or out of state retailer who sells and ships directly to a consumer in Louisiana pursuant to Subsection B of this Section shall file a statement quarterly indicating the amount of sparkling wine or still wine shipped to the state of Louisiana with the secretary of the Department of Revenue. The statement shall be filed by January twentieth, April twentieth, July twentieth, and October twentieth of each calendar year and shall indicate the total number of bottles sold and shipped during the preceding three-month period, the sizes of those bottles, the name brand of each sparkling wine or still wine included in such shipments, the quantities of each sparkling wine or still wine included in such shipments, and the price of each item included in such shipments. All excise and sales and use taxes due to the state of Louisiana on the sparkling wine or still wine sold and shipped pursuant to Subsection B of this Section shall be remitted by company check drawn on an account in the name of the permit holder or by electronic funds transfer at the time of the filing of the required statement, and copies of all invoices transmitted with each shipment shall be attached to the statement. This statement shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of the Department of Revenue and shall include such other information as the secretary of the Department of Revenue may require."

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 3, after line 18, add the following:

"Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."
