AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, line 15, delete "33:9613(H) and (I)" and insert "33:9613(A)(4)"

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 1, delete lines 20 and 21 and delete pages 2, 3, and 4 and on page 5, delete lines 1 through 7 and insert the following:

"(3) In the performance of its duties, a local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of the inspector general may compel the attendance of witnesses to be deposed under oath or the production of public and private records by issuing a subpoena. However Except as provided in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection, such a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall be issued only upon approval of a judge of the district court of the parish in which a local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general is domiciled upon application in writing by such entity, board, or office. The judge shall issue a written decision within seventy-two hours after receipt of such application. Any subpoena for production of private records shall be in compliance with all applicable constitutionally established rights and processes. Any request for financial records in the possession or under the control of a bank pursuant to this Chapter is subject to and shall comply with the requirements and procedures of R.S. 6:333. The subpoena may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the addressee's residence or business address, or by representatives appointed by the local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general, or may be directed for service to the office of the municipal police. If a person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general, the district court of the parish in which the local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general is domiciled may issue an order to the person requiring the person to appear before the court to show cause why an order shall not be issued ordering such person to obey the subpoena.

(4)(a) In the performance of its duties, a local office of inspector general in the city of New Orleans or parish of Jefferson may issue an administrative subpoena duces tecum to require the production of books, records, documents, or other evidence deemed relevant or material to an investigation, audit, or inspection. The subpoena duces tecum shall only be issued in furtherance of the authority provided by respective local ordinance and by Subsections D and E of this Section and shall comply with all applicable constitutionally established rights and processes.

(b) The subpoena duces tecum may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the addressee's residence or business address.

(c) The entity receiving the subpoena duces tecum may file a motion with the district court of the parish in which the office of inspector general is domiciled to amend or quash the subpoena. The motion shall be filed any time before the date for attendance or compulsion specified in the subpoena or within twenty days after the subpoena duces tecum has been served, whichever is earlier. In no event shall any penalty attach to the recipient of such an administrative subpoena duces tecum for failure to respond without an order from the district court of the parish in which the office of inspector general is domiciled.

(d) If the subpoena duces tecum is not quashed and is not complied with by the date for production of documents, the office of the inspector general may apply to the district court of the parish in which the office of inspector general is domiciled for an order compelling compliance with the subpoena. Any person failing to comply with the order compelling compliance shall be adjudged in contempt of court.

The Crescent City Connection Division may sell transferrable Automatic Vehicular Identification tags or nontransferrable Automatic Vehicular Identification tags to toll patrons at a cost that shall equal and shall not exceed the department's cost to purchase the tags for either device. The proceeds from such tolls collected shall be subject to the provisions and used as follows:

(1)(a) The tolls to be collected, as herein provided, shall continue to be considered as self-generated revenues and are to be deposited in accordance with the 1954 Bond Indenture for the financing by the Mississippi River Bridge Authority of the Greater New Orleans Mississippi River Bridge No. 1 and all supplements thereto and the Supplemental Bond Indenture of April 1, 1992, and in furtherance of the provisions of Act 402 of 1976 as amended, and in accordance with law vesting the secretary of the Department of Transportation and Development of the state of Louisiana with his legally directed executive and administrative control over the Mississippi River Bridge Authority, now called the Crescent City Connection Division of the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development, pursuant to the Executive Reorganization Act and especially the provisions of Act 315 of 1989, with such funds to be deposited and expended in accordance with the foregoing in the trustee accounts as provided in such bond indentures as amended, and all pursuant to the provisions of the constitution and laws of Louisiana relative to annual appropriations and capital outlays for the funding of the operations and maintenance of the bridges and ferries under the authority of the Crescent City Connection Division within the Department of Transportation and Development. For Fiscal Years 1994-1995 through 1996-1997, the amount appropriated for operation and maintenance of the bridges and ferries under the authority of the Crescent City Connection Division shall not exceed nine million five hundred thousand dollars annually from self-generated toll revenues. Commencing in Fiscal Year 1997-1998, the amount appropriated in each fiscal year from all means of financing can exceed the prior fiscal year's appropriation by no more than three percent. However, any appropriation for any extraordinary expenses of the Crescent City Connection Division shall require the approval of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget. For Fiscal Year 1997-1998 through Fiscal Year 2011-2012 and for the first half of Fiscal Year 2012-2013, the

(b) Beginning January 1, 2013 through December 31, 2022, the money from the self-generated tolls shall be used as follows:

(i) As much thereof as is necessary to provide for annual payments to the New Orleans Hornets by the state pursuant to a contract between the New Orleans Hornets and the Department of Economic Development for rebates under the Quality Jobs program.

(ii) Thereafter, for operation and maintenance of the bridges and ferries under the authority of the Crescent City Connection Division, and to complete the bridge projects as set forth in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, and to maximize, for the projects set forth in Paragraph (2), the state's ability to obtain federal matching funds for transportation purposes pursuant to the project by appropriation or grant from the United States Department of Transportation or its successor including but not limited to obtaining federal matching funds with the use of toll-generated monies, authorized by the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991, Public Law 102-240, or its successor, and amendments thereto, upon appropriate authorization by the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development and the Louisiana Legislature, in accordance with laws relative to such joint projects financed with state and federal funds, and any other appropriate funds that may be available. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, no funds appropriated to the division for Fiscal Year 1998-1999 or thereafter shall be expended for engineering services performed after June 30, 1999, which are related to examinations and inspections, maintenance, or repair of, or construction of special projects related to, bridges and ferry facilities under the authority of the division, and their approaches and appurtenances, if such services are provided under a contract which has not been subject to competitive selection or bid in the manner provided by law for any contracts for engineering services. After providing for the requirements of this Subparagraph, any remaining toll monies shall be available for use as otherwise provided in this Subsection.
