(11) "Administrative review", "compliance review", "quality check", or "QC" means a process that checks a appraisal report for compliance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice or other stipulated requirements.

(12) "Appraisal review" means the act or process of developing and communicating an opinion about the quality of another appraiser's work that was performed as part of an appraisal assignment. The term shall not include any examination of an appraisal for grammatical, typographical, mathematical, or other similar administrative errors that do not involve the appraiser's professional judgment, including compliance with the elements of the client's statement of work.

(13) "Fee appraiser" means a person who is not an employee of the mortgage loan originator or appraisal management company engaging the appraiser and is one of the following:

(a) A state-licensed or certified appraiser who receives a fee for performing an appraisal and certifies that the appraisal has been prepared in accordance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

(b) A company not subject to the requirements of §124 of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989, 12 U.S.C. 3331 et seq., that utilizes the services of state-licensed or certified appraisers and receives a fee for performing appraisals in accordance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice."

AMENDMENT NO. 9

On page 2, between lines 19 and 20 insert the following:

§3415.13. Adherence to standards; competency

A. Each appraisal management company seeking to be licensed in this state shall certify to the board on an annual basis that it has a system in place to review on a periodic basis the work of all appraisers that are performing real estate appraisal services for the appraisal management company to ensure that the real estate appraisal services are being conducted in accordance with Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

B. Before or at the time of making an assignment to an appraiser, an appraisal management company shall verify that the appraiser receiving the assignment satisfies each provision of the competency rule of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice for the appraisal being assigned.

§3415.15. Fees; customary and reasonable; disclosure

A. An appraisal management company shall compensate appraisers at a rate that is customary and reasonable for appraisals being performed in the market area of the property being appraised, consistent with the presumptions of compliance under federal law.

B. An appraisal management company shall separately state to the client all of the following:

(1) The fees paid to an appraiser for appraisal services.

(2) The fees charged by the appraisal management company for services associated with the management of the appraisal process, including procurement of the appraiser's services.

C. (1) An appraisal management company shall not prohibit any appraiser who is part of an appraiser panel from recording the fee that the appraiser was paid by the appraisal management company for the performance of the appraisal within the appraisal report that is submitted by the appraiser to the appraisal management company.

(2) An appraisal management company shall not include any fees for appraisal management services performed by the company in the amount the company reports as charges for the actual completion of an appraisal by the appraiser."

§3415.21. Rulemaking authority; effective date

A. The board shall have the power to adopt any rules and regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act necessary for the enforcement of this Chapter.

B. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, these rules shall require the affirmative approval by the House of Representatives Committee on Commerce and the Senate Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection and International Affairs. If the board submits its proposed rules for affirmative approval and the legislature is not in session, the proposed rules shall be deemed affirmatively approved if sixty days have elapsed from the date the proposed rules are received by the oversight committees and no hearing is held by either committee.
E. Any appraisal management company doing business in this state at the time of passage of this Act, may continue to perform such services without a license until the earlier of either such time that the rules and regulations pertaining to this Chapter have been approved in accordance with Subsections A and B of this Section or January 1, 2014.

On motion of Rep. Ponti, the amendments were adopted.
