§123. Stop signs and yield signs; penalties for violations

B. Except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic-control signal, every driver and operator of a vehicle approaching a stop intersection indicated by a stop sign shall stop before entering the crosswalk crosswalk on the near side of a clearly marked stop line, but if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection. After having stopped, the driver shall yield the right-of-way right-of-way to all vehicles which have entered the intersection from another highway or which are approaching so closely on said highway as to constitute an immediate hazard.

D. The driver or operator of a vehicle approaching a stop sign shall slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions, or shall stop if necessary, before entering the crosswalk crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, in the event there is no crosswalk crosswalk, at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway. Having slowed or stopped in this manner, the driver shall yield the right-of-way right-of-way to any pedestrian legally crossing the roadway on which he is driving, and to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another highway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard.

§143. Stopping, standing or parking prohibited in specified places

A. No person shall stand, or park a vehicle, except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic, or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or traffic control device, in any of the following places:

(5) On a crosswalk crosswalk;

(6) Within twenty feet of a crosswalk crosswalk at an intersection;

§175. Vehicles must yield at railroad grade crossings; exceptions; penalties for violations

A. The driver or operator of a vehicle approaching a railroad crossing shall slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions, or shall stop if necessary, before entering the crosswalk at a clearly marked stop line, or if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting rail of such railroad where the driver or operator has a clear view of any approaching train. The driver or operator shall listen and look in both directions along such track for any approaching train and for signals indicating the approach of a train. Having slowed or stopped in this manner, the driver or operator shall yield the right-of-way right-of-way to any approaching train and then shall proceed only upon exercising due care and upon being sure that it is safe to proceed.

§213. Crossing at other than crosswalks crosswalks

A. Every pedestrian crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked crosswalk crosswalk or within an unmarked crosswalk crosswalk at an intersection shall yield the right-of-way right-of-way to all vehicles upon the roadway.

B. Between adjacent intersections at which traffic-control signals are in operation pedestrians shall not cross at any place except in a marked crosswalk crosswalk.

§215. Pedestrians to use right half of crosswalks crosswalks

Pedestrians shall move, whenever practicable, upon the right half of crosswalks crosswalks.

§234. Flashing signals

A. Whenever an illuminated flashing red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal, it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

(1) FLASHING RED (STOP SIGNAL)—When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk crosswalk at an intersection or at a stop line when marked, or, if none, then before entering the intersection, and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.
