AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 1, between lines 8 and 9 insert the following:

"B. The elements of evaluation and standards for effectiveness shall be defined by the board pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated for such purpose. Such rules and regulations shall require that, at a minimum, local evaluation plans contain the following elements:

* * *

(5)(a) Measure of effectiveness. By the beginning of the 2012-2013 school year, fifty percent of such evaluations shall be based on evidence of growth in student achievement using a value-added assessment model as determined by the board for grade levels and subjects for which value-added data is available.

(b) For grade levels and subjects for which value-added data is not available and for personnel for whom value-added data is not available, the board shall establish measures of student growth. The model shall take into account important student factors, including but not limited to special education, eligibility for free or reduced price meals, student attendance, and student discipline. The state board shall develop and adopt a policy to invalidate such student growth data for any teacher for any school year in which there is a natural disaster or any other unexpected event that results in the temporary closure of the school.

(c) For the 2012-2013 school year only, the results of an evaluation shall not be used for any purpose except that the results of the observation portion of the evaluation shall be used as a criterion in making reduction in force decisions.

C.

* * *

(b) Each intensive assistance program shall be designed for the individual teacher or administrator involving the evaluator or evaluators and the teacher or administrator and shall include at a minimum:

* * *

(v) If Beginning in the 2014-2015 school year, for teachers and administrators evaluated in the 2013-2014 school year and thereafter, if the intensive assistance program required pursuant to this Paragraph is not completed in conformity with its provisions or if the teacher or administrator is determined to be ineffective after a formal evaluation conducted immediately upon completion of the program, then the local board shall timely initiate termination proceedings pursuant to Part II of Chapter 2 of this Title.

* * *

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"Section 2. This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2013; if vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on July 1, 2013, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later."

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 1, at the end of line 9, after "employment" insert a semi-colon ";" and "city of New Orleans"

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, delete lines 10 through 13 in their entirety and insert the following:

"A.(1) The managing director and employees of the Office of Police and Secondary Employment (OPSE), or its successor, may only communicate with the New Orleans Police Department, its staff, officers, or superintendent regarding matters concerning paid detail or secondary employment assignments. All other matters shall be communicated in writing, in a standardized format available for public review. The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to the Public Integrity Bureau.

(2) The provisions of this Section shall apply to any other entity which may be created, or which supercedes OPSE, to oversee or manage paid details or secondary employment of New Orleans city police officers.

B.(1) The office of the independent police monitor shall investigate any complaint concerning any detail or secondary employment of a New Orleans city police officer. In addition, the office of the independent police monitor may examine, review, audit, inspect, and investigate the records, books, reports, documents, papers, correspondence, accounts, audits, inspections, reviews, recommendations, plans, films, tapes, pictures, computer hard drives, software data, hardware data, e-mails, instant messages, text messages, and any other data and material relevant to any detail or secondary employment complaint and may issue an administrative subpoena duces tecum to require the production of books, records, documents, or other evidence deemed relevant or material to an investigation. The subpoena duces tecum shall comply with all applicable constitutionally established rights and processes.

(a) The subpoena duces tecum may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the addressee's residence or business address.

(b) The entity receiving the subpoena duces tecum may file a motion with the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans to amend or quash the subpoena. The motion shall be filed any time before the date for attendance or compulsion specified in the subpoena or within twenty days after the subpoena duces tecum has been served, whichever is earlier. In no event shall any penalty attach to the recipient of such an administrative subpoena duces tecum for failure to respond without an order from the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans.

(c) If the subpoena duces tecum is not quashed and is not complied with by the date for production of documents, the office of the independent police monitor may apply to the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans for an order compelling compliance with the subpoena. Any person failing to comply with the order compelling compliance shall be adjudged in contempt of court.

(d) Any costs and attorney's fees incurred by the office of the independent police monitor shall be taxed against the person who failed or refused to comply with the terms of the subpoena.

(e) When the office of the independent police monitor has reason to believe that a person may attempt to conceal or destroy materials essential to an investigation, examination, audit, or inspection, such office may apply by verified petition to the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans for an order protecting the materials from concealment or destruction. The court may order and fix the amount of a bond to be posted and conditioned upon compliance with the terms of the subpoena. The order shall be directed to the person upon whom the subpoena will be served and to any other person necessary to protect the materials from concealment or destruction.

(2) The office of the independent police monitor may examine the accounts and books of OPSE, or any other entity which may be created, or which supercedes the Office of Police and Secondary Employment, to oversee or manage paid details or secondary Employment of New Orleans city police officers."
