*                    *                    *

(7) "Interest" means all charges and fees assessed, payable directly or indirectly, including fees pursuant to R.S. 9:3530(C) in connection with or as a condition of a deferred presentment transaction or small loan.

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 4, delete lines 25 and 26 in their entirety and insert the following:
"A. (1) In conjunction with a deferred presentment transaction or small loan, notwithstanding any other provision of law, a licensee may charge a fee not to exceed sixteen and seventy-five one hundredths percent of the face amount of the check issued or, in the case of a small loan, the equivalent rate of interest, provided however that such fee or interest does not exceed forty-five dollars, regardless of the name or type of charge, seventy-two percent interest annually. Any transaction or loan made or collected in violation of this Paragraph is void and the licensee shall not have the right to collect, receive, or retain any principal, interest, fees, or other charges.

AMENDMENT NO. 7
On page 7, delete line 17 in its entirety and insert in lieu thereof the following:

§3578.5. Rebate upon prepayment

Upon the prepayment in full of a deferred presentment transaction or small loan, during the first five days of the term of such transaction or loan only, the licensee shall refund any and all unearned charges by a method no less favorable to the consumer than the actuarial method, less twenty dollars of the original fee, which shall be considered earned and shall not be subject to refund. Should the consumer make prepayment after the first five days of the term of the transaction or loan, the licensee shall not be required to make any refund.

§3578.6. Prohibited acts

A. A licensee shall not:

* * * * * *

(7) Renew or roll over a deferred presentment transaction or small loan. However, a licensee may accept a partial payment of twenty-five percent of the amount advanced plus fees charged and enter into a new deferred presentment transaction or renew the small loan for the remaining balance owed. Once a deferred presentment transaction or small loan has been completed, a consumer may enter into a new transaction or loan with the licensee. A deferred presentment transaction or small loan shall be considered completed when the amount advanced has been paid in full by the consumer.

* * * * * *

(9) Engage in any device or subterfuge intended to evade the requirements of this Chapter through any method, including but not limited to mail, telephone, Internet, or any electronic means, or by doing any of the following:

(a) Offering, making, assisting a borrower to obtain, or brokering a deferred presentment transaction or small loan at a rate of interest prohibited by Louisiana law, or acting as an agent for a third party in such a transaction.

(b) Making deferred presentment transactions or small loans disguised as personal property sales, consumer credit sales, and leaseback transactions.

(c) Disguising deferred presentment transaction or small loan proceeds as cash rebates for the pretextual installment sale of goods or services.

(d) Disguising a deferred presentment transaction or small loan as a revolving line of credit, or making or assisting a borrower to obtain a revolving line of credit for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of Subsection A of this Section.

* * * * * *

C. A violation of this Section is a violation of the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, Chapter 13 of Title 51 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

AMENDMENT NO. 8
On page 7, between lines 24 and 25, insert the following:

"Section 2. R.S. 9:3560(A)(8) and 3578.3(4) are hereby repealed in their entirety."

AMENDMENT NO. 9

“§239. Traffic violations; civil fines; automated traffic enforcement systems

A. No governing authority of a local governmental subdivision may impose a civil fine for a violation of any traffic law, ordinance, rule, or regulation if the sole evidence of such a violation is that captured by an automated traffic enforcement system unless the imposition of such fines based on such evidence has been authorized by a majority of the voters of the local governmental subdivision voting on a proposition authorizing such actions at an election held for this purpose in accordance with the Louisiana Election Code.

B. Any governing authority of a local governmental subdivision that, prior to the effective date of this Section, has provided for the imposition of civil fines for violations of traffic laws, ordinances, rules, or regulations based on evidence captured by automated traffic enforcement systems may continue to impose such fines until July 1, 2015. On and after July 1, 2015, the governing authority may impose such civil fines only if authorized in accordance with Subsection A of this Section.

C. For purposes of this Section, the term “automated traffic enforcement system” means a camera or optical device erected along or above a public road, street, or highway or attached to the outside of a parked vehicle and designed to work in conjunction with a traffic control signal or radar speed detection equipment, or both, and designed to photographically record images of the license plate or other identifying feature of a motor vehicle that is operated in violation of law, ordinance, rule, or regulation.

Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval.”

RULE 6.8(A) REPORT
OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON CIVIL LAW AND PROCEDURE
ON HOUSE BILL NO. 111
April 8, 2014

I. SUMMARY OF JOINT RESOLUTION

This report is for House Bill No. 111 of the 2014 Regular Session by Representative Leger, proposing to amend Art. VI, Section 26(E) of the Constitution.

HB 111 proposes to authorize an increase in ad valorem taxes for fire and police protection in Orleans Parish from five mills to six mills.

II. CONCLUSION

The proposed measure cannot be accomplished statutorily.

HB 111 proposes to increase the existing constitutionally authorized millage rate for fire and police protection in Orleans Parish. Only an amendment to the constitution can accomplish such a change in the millage rate.

III. OTHER PENDING MEASURES

Total joint resolutions introduced: 57

Total joint resolutions reported by other standing committees: 3

There is no other pending legislation amending Const. Art. VI, Section 26(E).
